Last Will & Testament of John D Deason Deceased.

In the name of God Amen!
I John Deason of said County and State being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding do make this as my last Will and Testament.
First I desire that all of my debts shall be paid as soon after my death as practicable.
Second: After the payment of my debts I desire that all of my estate both personal and real shall remain for the use and benefit of my beloved wife Julia Ann Deason during the term of her natural life or widowhood and also for the support of my son Joseph Travis Deason as long as he may remain on the place with his mother. In case my wife shall marry again then she shall have a share in my estate equal with each one of my children living. After the death or widowhood of my said wife I desire that my property both personal and real shall be sold by my Executors hereinafter appointed as they may deem for the best interest of all concerned and an equal division of the proceeds made amongst my children all to share alike. And if any of them should die leaving children my grand children shall take the share the parent would have taken if living.
Fourth. To my sons John K. Deason and Thomas E. Deason I have heretofore (to wit on the seventh day of September 1887) given each two acres of land by deed. I desire that these parcels of land shall be charged to them as advancements at the following prices to wit: John K. Deason's parcel at fifty dollars and Thomas E. Deason's parcel at fifty dollars. These amounts are to include all improvements put upon said lots by me since they were ~~[illegible]~~ deeded. If however my sons John K. Deason and Thomas E. Deason, either or both of them should reconvey the said lot or lots of land to me or my heirs then they or either of them so doing shall not be charged against them as herein directed.

Sixth. To my daughters Susan E. McKinney and my daughter Martha A. White I give the sum of Seventy five dollars in lieu of a horse given to each of my other children except my daughter Jennie Weeks who shall receive Seventy five dollars on the same account, fifty dollars having already been paid her for that purpose

Lastly. I do hereby appoint my sons James W. Deason, John K. Deason, and Thomas E. Deason as Executors of this my will with full power and authority to make sales and execute titles to the said property. In witness whereof I hereunto subscribe my name in the presence of attesting witnesses. January 4th 1889.

The Last Will and Testament of Nellie Whitlock. I, Nellie Whitlock of the County and State aforesaid hereby make and ordain this my last will and testament, revoking all former wills heretofore made by me. I devise to my Nephew Jno. Kelly Harris and my niece Nelly Johnson, the lot of land upon which I live, known as the Elizabeth Whitlock place. This same to be equally divided between them by a line running as near through the middle of said lot as practicable, perpendicular to the front of said lot. John Kelly Harris to have that half nearest the Court House, and Nelly Johnson to have the other half. I bequeath all my personal property to Nellie Johnson.

Witness my hand this 16 July 1891.

In presence of the subscribing witnesses who in the presence of testator and of each other witnessed the due execution thereof.

Nellie Whitlock
