He died on 9 Mar 1929 at the age of 53 in Stephens County, TX. He was buried in Woodson Cemetery, Throckmorton County, TX. The following is from the book, "Throckmorton County, Texas", 1984, Throckmorton County History Committee / Specialty Publishing, Inc., Lubbock, TX, shown as being contributed by Ms. Johnnie Carol Sullivan Jones, a granddaughter of James and Bessie (Johnnie's mother was Vera Allison):

James and Bessie lived in the canyon down by Ranger, Eastland County, TX, before coming to Throckmorton County. There they farmed the land raising grain for feed and bread, sugar cane for sorghum syrup, vegetables for canning, hogs for lard, soap, and meat. The hogs were also butchered and sold in the coal mining town of Strawn for money to buy the few staples needed such as salt, sugar, soda and fabric for clothing. Bessie dried her fruit for winter months, she washed her clothing on a rub-board, and she never went to bed without a starched and ironed nightgown on her children, which she made from the flour sacks they got at the mill. James played the fiddle for square dances to add to the income for his large family.

James and Bessie first came to Throckmorton County in 1911. Following the loss of their child from Typhoid Fever. They farmed the land at New Town [Lusk] on the old Allison place. In 1913 they went back to the canyon in Eastland County and stayed until 1918. They returned to Throckmorton County and farmed the land at New Town until 1924. They bought a farm south of Woodson where they lived until James passed away at the age of 53. Bessie sold the farm in 1947 and lived with her children until her death in 1979 at the age of 100 years, 2 months and 3 days.

She died on 27 Nov 1964 at the age of 87 in Woodson, Throckmorton County, TX. She was buried in Woodson Cemetery, Throckmorton County, TX. "Ma" was my great-grandmother, and she lived until about a week before my 18th birthday, so I remember her well, and loved her so much. She was a great cook. I would observe her using an old teacup (which I would dearly love to see once again) to add flour or other ingredients. She canned and pickled and baked. Her husband ("Pa") always said of her that her waist was so tiny, he could span it with his hands.

Ma even taught my mother to cook--Mother was from Montana, and didn't know how to cook "Texas food, Texas-style". Mattie was a great teacher, and Mother was an apt pupil. Oh, that pie crust and those biscuits! Chicken 'n Dumplings, strawberry-rhubarb preserves, watermelon pickles! Fresh cucumbers and tomatoes and green beans!

Mattie Elizabeth Allison and Pierce Butler Harling were married on 15 Jul 1896 in Davilla, Milam County, TX. Pierce Butler Harling was born on 22 Oct 1872 in Edgefield District, SC. He died on 16 Feb 1957 at the age of 84 in Woodson, Throckmorton County, TX. He was buried in Woodson Cemetery, Throckmorton County, TX. Worked as Transfer Man for two railroads in Taylor, Williamson County, TX, during the 1890s. Spent the remainder of his life as a farmer in Woodson, Throckmorton County, Texas.

Had piercing, sky-blue eyes and could sing anything. He even sang on the radio and was paid for it! His great-granddaughter, Barbara Jean Harvey Mircovich has a record of his singing.

He was very tall (about 6 feet 3 inches) and always slender.

His namesake was Col. Pierce M. Butler, hero in the War of 1812 and Governor of SC.

Pierce Butler Harling and Mattie Elizabeth Allison had the following children:

She died on 31 May 1980 at the age of 98 in Rising Star, Eastland County, TX. THE MEMOIRS OF EDNA LEAH (ALLISON) BARNES - Born 1881; Died 1980

My Grandfather's name was James ALLISON. He married Delilah HOWARD, my Grandmother. My grandfather came to Texas in the year of 1835 with his family. They came in covered wagons drawn by oxen. So could only make a few miles, for they brought their cattle with them, and all the older boys . . . drove the cattle, scouted ahead, and looked out [for] a good camping place, and others would have their axes and cut out a road, for there were no roads in those days. There were several families that came together from Tennessee to Texas. And when we were little children, my father would have us all spell bound (gathered around him) telling all the things that happened on the way. One of the boys was appointed to look after the fire as they had to use flint "punk" to kindle a fire, and so they would cover the fire (in a hole in the ground) and go back at night and get an iron pot full of coals to use to cook supper so they could travel very slowly.

In Arkansaw my Uncle John was born. They were fighting in Texas with the Mexicans. My grandfather preempted a home stead [in Texas]. And that is the time outlaws from other states tried to take over. When a home steader had his land all under cultivation and a log cabin, then the outlaws would come in (a dozen or more) and tell them they would give them 24 or 36 hrs to get ready and get out, or they would come back with enough men and amunition to really put them out.

One day my grandfather was sitting in the shade of the log cabin. (By the way, I have looked at the old log cabin myself and had a lot of serious thought of what happened there.) While my grandfather was reading his bible, a crowd of rough looking men rode up (all the boys were out on the range). And the leader of the men asked are you the owner of this spread? Yes I am my grandfather replied. The outlaw said, we have come to take it over, and if you go without any trouble, there will be no lives lost. My grandfather said, Now Mr. you will have to give me time. My wagon wheels has to be fixed. They are all loose and have to be swelled or I would not get any where. So the "outlaw" said I'll give you three days. After the men left, my uncles came in from the range. My grandfather sent each of them in a different direction to get word to every home steader. And grandfather had a boy hired I remember his name was Jennings, the outlaws caught him and tried to make him swear he knew of some crime my grandfather had committed, but he told them Mr. ALLISON was one of the best men he ever knew. So they hung him to a tree, pulled him up the third time trying to make him tell something on grandfather. So they turned him loose and told him not to go back to grandfathers. (Jennings was only about 18 yrs.) But Jennings came straight back to grandfathers as fast as he could make it.

During this time my grandfather was a very buse [busy] man. He went to Round Rock and had a "Big Buffalo Gun" made, it would hold slugs, bolts or anything of kind. And when it was fired it sounded like a cannon.

The day came for grandfather to fight or run, so he was ready for them. To the north of the log cabin was a creek or ravine [actually, the San Gabriel River, Williamson County, Texas]. The outlaws were across this creek and they had a cannon, but they never did get it set up but what the lead balls they used went over the cabin and they were never able to make a hit. My grandfather had so many neighbors there and all had guns, and all would turn loose at one time and the old big buffalo gun would turn loose. It made more noise than all the rest put together. One of the men screamed out, lets get out of here or ALLISON will kill us all. They never came back for any more. By the way the Big gun was stolen but it is now in Round Rock Museum.

The school house was a log cabin, and you know all of my grandfathers Sons had a lot of teaching at home, and all wrote a beautiful hand and could draw anything.

My grandmother [Delilah HOWARD] was a beautiful woman, they had a large family. Here I will give their names: Uncle David [b. 1830, a twin], Uncle Elihu [b. 1830, a twin], Uncle Jimmy [b. 1843], Uncle Tommy [b. 1841], Uncle John (born in 1833 in Ark. on the way to Texas), Uncle Bill born in 1846 in Texas, Uncle Bob born in 1853 in Texas and lived till he was 30 before he married. And Andrew Jackson [b. 1855], my dad, was the baby. They, my grandparents had one daughter, but we all called her Aunt Sis, but us children never knew her [actually, they had four daughters: Sarah, b. 1837; Elizabeth, b. 1838; Louisa Jemima, b. 1849; and Melvina, b. abt. 1857]. My dad was born in the log cabin in 1855. The outlaws came when he was about 10 months old. He has told us children of digging up those cannon balls and melting them for bullets after he was about 14 & 16 yrs old.

The Governor gave my grandfather a league & LaBara [actually, a "labor"] of land for their help in ridding Texas of the outlaws. This land is down around Wills Point. The land was a grant given by the Governor free of taxation and could not be sold, and would be for him & his heirs forever and it is on record in Austin, Texas still in his name.

A man by the name of -- I have forgotten his name -- came to Davilla sometime I believe in the 80s and tried to get my father to sign his right away. My father would not do it. So he has fraudulently sold some of it. I had the name of every one that lived on it and some of them said they would sell, but could only give a quit claim deed.

Uncle Davie moved up in the north west in the Oregon County, Uncle Bills decendants was last heard of in Okla. Uncle Bob is buried in Woodson Texas.

This is the little I knew of my Mothers family. My grandfather REVEALE with his family came to Texas from Georgia. They had no children when they made the trip and they came in a ox drawn wagon (in a wagon train of a lot of Georgia people). My Mother [Sarah Alice REVEALE] has often told me what Grandfather told them about their trip. My Grandfathers name on Mothers side was REVEALE. He lived with us when he was old, part time with my mothers sister Aunt Annie [REVEALE] YOUNG. My Grandfather REVEALE lived to be 103 year old. He went thro the war on a mule, I can remember his saddle bags. I thought they were grand. After he was up [around] 80 or 85, he had a Buckskin mare, he would take a notion to go to Falls Co., where my uncle Joe [REVEALE] lived. 50 miles, and no one could talk him out of the trip, and go he did. Uncle Joe would write my Mother that he arrived safe, but worn out.

When my mother was three years old, grand dad taken a notion to marry, as grandmother passed on while my mother was a baby. So he gave his children away, he only had Uncle Joe, Aunt Annie, Uncle Willie and my mother [Sarah] Alice REVEALE, Mattie REVEALE. The folks that he gave my mother to was mean to her, so one day when they had gone and left my mother alone Uncle Joe who was 14 slipped her away and started afoot to Rosebud, Texas in Falls County where Uncle Joe knew some people had moved by the name of Foster and when my mother would give out walking he would carry her on his back. And when they crossed the River and it was too deep for mother to wade and was rising, & running so swift my uncle Joe could hardly make it across with my mother on his back, along in the evening an Old man in a wagon, Ox drawn, came across, and he stopped my uncle & ask him where he was going, and my uncle told him so this man taken those 2 children home with him and the next day took them on to Falls County to the home of the Fosters.

By the way, when I was 15 yrs. old [i.e., about 1895], I visited my Uncle Joe and his wife Aunt Sallie (her maiden name was Duprest) and I did get to know two of the Foster girls only they were old enough to have families. And they were wonderful people.

Uncle [Elihu] & Jimmy was in the war [Civil War] and died of disentary in Prescott, Ariz. They are both buried there. [Note: Elihu died in Texas, at the Bonham General Hospital, of complications of measles, and it is most likely that Jimmy also did so.] Source: Records of the Confederacy for Elihu C. Allison.

Uncle [Elihu or Jimmy] rode my grandmothers little buckskin mare and when he passed away, his buddies put the saddle on & tied up the reins and started her on the road home to [Allison, Williamson County] and she did go home, got there after months & months.

GRAHAM, Texas (Special) -

Ethel Mae (ALLISON) Pratt, who turned 103 on Friday [Feb. 17, 1995], is still as spry as a cricket, spending her days tatting, reading her Bible and visiting with family and residents in Graham Living Center.

With a philosophy of "if you don't use it, you'll lose it," she never lets her mind stay idle.

She says tatting keeps her mind active. "You have to count stitches or you end up with a mess."

Her Bible is always near her tatting. She has memorized entire chapters which she repeats readily.

Through the years Pratt has taught many friends to tat, and is still willing to teach those interested. "I don't tat with fine thread like I used to," she said, recalling when a ball of thread cost 10 cents. "It's way over a dollar these days."

Until four years ago, she lived in her own home in Graham, did her own laundry, kept the yard and baked big loaves of bread every week. After she broke her hip in an accident, she moved to the home of her only daughter, Mrs. Motee Ragle. In the summer, she moved to the Living Center. She took her favorite chair, a lamp, a fan and her tatting.

She walks the halls "for exercise" and sits in the living room reception area greeting everyone. Director Pat Mills says "she loves everybody and they all love her."

A few years ago, Pratt wrote her biography, in which she recalls the good and bad years. She was born Feb. 17, 1892, in Milam County, and came with her family in a wagon to Woodson, Texas. In 1910 she married William Henry Pratt, a merchant. He died in 1950. They ran mercantile stores in Eliasville, South Bend, Graham, Woodson, Newcastle and Jean. At one time they ran a motel and gasoline station in Throckmorton, Texas.

During more than 40 years of business, the Pratts went through two depressions, a money panic, crop failures, droughts and fire. There was the Depression of 1929, while they had a dry goods store in Jean. Pratt wrote in her journal, "We had prosperous times and hard times."

The Pratts moved to Throckmorton in 1943, where they had a motel, grocery store and filling station, their last business venture. She continued to work until she retired and moved to Graham in 1960.

She has remained active in Eastside Church of Christ, where she was honored with a plaque for having the "most Christlike attitude" in December 1982.

Born Dec. 31, 1888 in Normandee, Texas, he came to Yuma in 1912 to work for the Bureau of reclamation. In 1922 he became county engineer and remained in that office for more than a quarter of a century. He retired from civil engineering about 1954.

"You never know, for sure, whether he was serious or just kidding. Except for that bit of a smile in the eyes, he did his joking with a perfectly straight face. It took me a year or so to discover that, most of the time , Luke was't really serious. How it saddens me to learn of his death.

Fa few week during high school vacations, he gave me a job on a road survey crew. Later, I knew him as a reporter knows a public official. Later, after he left public office as a friend.

Of all the men I have know, it seems to me that Luke Ellison got the most out of common everyday events in life. His quiet sense of humor never failed him. The world would be a better place if each of us could do as well." Jones Osborn

"Dewitt had a very close brush with death. "On June 7, 1941, my father, Dewitt Ellison, Sr., survived a bolt of lightning so severe, by all rights of logic, he would have been killed. It struck our house, parting the roof, dropping the ceiling boards and hitting the dining table. It broke plates and cups and splattered oatmeal over everything. It was a miracle that no one was injured.

In the kitchen my father and Mr. Green, a hired hand, who thought the oil cook stove had exploded, received the hardest jolt. Mr. Green was uninjured.

My father was knocked under the flour bin, a small cabinet, and was all crunched up there holding the back of his head. Being six feet and a fairly large man, this seems impossible. His hat was ruined. His shirt was in shreds down his back and he had a new part in his hair..

I was standing in the doorway. My brother, Boyce and three sisters, were at the table. He grabbed the girls and went out the door. Later when confronted about the speed a nine year old got the three children out of the house, he remarked, 'I out ran the lightning My mother was in the bedroom, but instantly was attending my dad. after an all day ordeal, he was able to see a doctor who declared him to be alright.'" Narrated by Dewitt Ellison, Jr. 31 June 1992.

A letter written to Eva Rogers Ellison, 14 Sept. 1986.

"Always glad to get your letter especially these lonesome days and nights.

I hope this find you well, and back in your home. Just hope the good Lord will give you good health and strength to take care of your self. I know there is no place like home even if it is lonely.

This leaves me feeling some better; my back has given me a lot of trouble for several weeks, but has been much better for the last Week. I went to church for the last four Sundays in the morning. I am afraid I want get to go much at night, don't like to come back in a dark house. I may go some before it gets too dark when we get out. I wish I could drive, I hate to have to depend on other people. Helen or Albert takes me to church, and I come back with neighbors. Helen can;t carry Ricky. I just live one mile from church. Evelyn and Curtis live closest to me, but I can't get them to go to church. They will regret it some day.

Eva I'm sending you one or two of Theorn's pictures. The children made a good many, but so many of them wasn't any good. They used a new camera and they couldn't get it to work right. I thought Theorn looked younger. I miss him so much at church. We always sat together, and I miss him at the table and at night. I get so lonesome sitting up by myself.

The children have been so good to help me. Albert is trying to take care of all the business, and he is keeping my grass cut. I have so much yard.

Helen is going to vacuum & clean my house at least once a month. I will do some sweeping , but I have promised I wouldn't try to vacuum any more. That really gets my back messed up. I have had a time with if for about three weeks, but it has been better for the last 4 or 5 days.

The last few days have been beautiful, pretty warm, but nice at night. I'm glad the rain has slacked up, but we were all thankful for it.

Eva excuse my paper. I forgot to send to get some. I hope you can read this, I just can't half write any more. My hands are nervous.

Well I'll close. Write when you can and if you ever get a chance come to see me."
Love As Always. Lila M. Ellison

She died on 2 Apr 1915 at the age of 25 in Minerva, TX. In memory of Mrs. Ethel Allen TROTTER, wife of Charles TROTTER and daughter of L. C. ALLEN, for a number of years the gin man of Minerva, and his wife, Mrs. Eunice YOUNG ALLEN, now of Lavaca county, Texas. Deceased was born October 15, 1889, died April 2, 1915. Supposed to have been bitten by a spider resulting in blood poison. Began complaining on Monday preceding her death on Friday. Growing rapidly worse, Her anxious husband summoned the services of several able physicians who battled with the awful disease heroically, but without avail. For a few hours before death she was unconscious. Then in spite of the tears, heartaches and efforts to save her, she passed gently to her eternal home.

This writer conducted her funeral services in presence of a very large assembly of her relatives, friends and acquaintances whose presence gave evidence of the esteem in which she was held for all who knew Sweet Ethel from her childhood. This writer has known Dear Ethel almost from her babyhood. A purer, sweeter girl never lived. She was not a member of any church, but thank God, it does not take membership to save, only repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Surely God has taken this sweet spirited child to live with Him.

We wired the sad news to her poor parents, but the doctors advised immediate interment, a necessity, they poor dear ones, as if bound to a martyr's stake, were unable to reach us in time. Oh, how our hearts yearn in sympathy for these dear ones.

Dear Ethel leaves behind to mourn her loss a host of friends, acquaintances and relatives. Her own Charley, her father, mother, two brothers, one sister and her sweet little four-months old babe, that must say

I hear the soft winds sighing thru ever bush and tree

Where mother dear is lying away from love and me.

Tears from my eyes are starting and sorrows shade my brow.

Oh! Blame me not for weeping,

I have no mother now.

Lovingly

The following was written by Nova ALLISON PARKER, daughter of James Frederick and Bessie, and published in the "Throckmorton County History Book":

"James ALLISON was born in 1875, Bessie WALTON was born in 1879 in Davilla, Texas. Their parents all came from Tennessee. James and Bessie grew up in Davilla and married at the ages of 21 and 17 on December 26, 1896. They made their home in Davilla until 1898, when they moved to Eastland County, near Ranger, by way of wagons. Daddy bought a farm and lived there until 1911. My Grandparents, Andrew Jackson ALLISON and Alice REVEALE ALLISON, had a farm in Lusk, Throckmorton County. In 1911, Daddy moved his family to Lusk to help Grandpaw farm. On February 12, 1913, Nova ALLISON was born at Lusk. Mrs. Simpson at Woodson delivered me because Dr. Van Horn had blood poison in his hand and could not do anything but give orders. We moved back to Eastland County until 1917 and we then came back to Throckmorton to stay.

". . . I went to school at Teters and Woodson. Growing up together, Tommy and Nova were married February 24, 1929 in front of the Methodist church by Brother Herring while sitting in their new 1928 Model A Ford Coupe Tommy had bought a few days before. Virgil ALLISON was with us. We moved to a farm and Tommy worked in the oil field to make a living and farmed on the side. In 1929, my father died and Mother could not take care of the farm in Eastland County. She sold it in 1933. . . . When I was 5 years old we had gasoline irons you had to pump up to generate air in the gas so it would heat. Elsie, my baby sister, picked up the gas jar and spilled it on herself. Being in cold weather, she dropped the jar next to the stove and it ignited and burned her. Elsie lived 2 days. Mother came to live with us in 1947. She lived some with my sisters Vera and Gladys Sullivan. Mother was 100 years old in August and died October 23, 1979. . . ."

; The train was traveling at about '25 miles per hour, the trooper estimated. Mrs. Ellison was driving "at a very minimal speed," the trooper said.

The railroad crossing has no lights or bells, Trooper Roberts said. but the freight train whistle sounded as it approached the crossing, he said. .

Apparently, the train hit the right front side of the car, spinning the 3' car sideways and hooking it.

" Anderson police officers directed -traffic on Bleckley Street during the ' rescue. The street runs along the city's western boundary.

However, the Highway Patrol in- " investigated the accident because it . was just outside the city limits.
