First Generation

1. John Allison1–5 was born about 1585 in Windyedge, Lanark Co, Scotland. He died about 1660 at the age of 75 in VA. He emigrated from From Windyedge, Lanark County, Scotland.6

Land and religion were vital in the life of John and others who lived in Scotland and it seems that land and religion led to his departure. Land was controlled by the Catholic Church. It could not be owned by an individual. But rental rights could be acquired in four ways: (1) by grant of the Church; (2) by succession; (3) by kindness or as a gift for service; (4) by marrying the daughter of a rector.

"The Temporall land of the Archbishoprick of Glasgow are the Baronies of Glasgow, Carstairs, Anerum, Lillisleaf, Eskirk, Stobe and Eddiston, with ye Bishops forest and other little things in Carrick, Lothcin, and elsewhere .... Carstairs was situated in the quitter district of Lanarkshire ... The Royalty embraced the city of Glasgow and a wide district on the north, east and west, comprising the Barony Parish, the Parish of Cadder, the Parish of Govan, and a large portion of the Parish of old Monkland. p. 24-25. (Land rental in Windyedge is mentioned in Oct. 1546, p. 134; April 1542, p. 120; 1526, p. 86.)" RENTAL BOOK OF THE DIOCESE OF GLASGOW 1509-1570, Vol. 1, Joseph Bain and Rev. Charles Rogers, London, 1875.

"The Township and barony of Carstairs belonged, from the middle of the twelfth century, if not from an earlier period, to the Bishops of Glasgow, the rents thereof forming part of their personal revenue. Their title to it was confirmed by Pope Alexander III in 1170, and by Honorius III in 1216." p. 453, THE UPPER WARD OF LANARKSHIRE DESCRIBED AND DELINEATED, Vol. 2, Alexander Murray, Thomas Murray and Sons, London, 1894.

The above records seem to indicate some of the difficulty that John may have had; however, there are records of land rentals to member of the Allison families. There was a John who rented land from John Gibson 3 Oct. 1549 in Glasgow Diocese (p. 142). John Allison rented land from John Alison, his father, 25 Aug. 1563 (p. 177). Robert Alason rented land from John Alason, his brother, 5 Dec. 1545 (p. 187). Jonat Allason rented land from William Alanson, her father, in 1545, and she was the wife of James Mylar (p. 163). RENTAL BOOK OF THE DIOCESE OF GLASGOW 1509-1570, Vol. 1, Joseph Bain and Rev. Charles Rogers, London, 1875.

As for religious problems, "The religious fervor burnt high and fiercely. Following the disposition of the Queen Regent an alliance was formed with Queen Elizabeth of England. In 1560, the Scottish Parliament abolished Roman Catholicism and established Calvinism, forbidding the celebration Mass under dire penalties. The civil war which ensued after Mary, Queen of Scots' return from France in 1561 continued throughout her brief reign until 1568, when her abdication was followed by her flight to England."

"The Presbyterian system was established throughout Scotland although resistance to it was great in the Highlands. This system had a penetrating influence on the population and gave them a sense of independence, for unlike the Church of England where the clergy came mostly from the upper classes, the Presbyterian system gave every church goer a say in the government of the Church, and the ministry of the Scottish Church was mainly from the lower or middle classes. p. 6, THE SEARCH OF SCOTTISH ANCESTRY, Gerald Hamilton-Edwards, Phillimore & Co. LTD. Sussex, England, 1986.

John Allison was beheaded and Elizabeth I, Queen of England died in 1603. James I, son of Mary, Queen of Scots,' became King of both Scotland and England even though they were two separate countries. James set about to bring religious and social changes to both Scotland and England. It was during this time that the King James Bible was translated (1611). So there were the Scottish Highlanders resisting change, the Scottish Lowlanders accepting Calvinism, the Puritan growing in number and power, the Catholic Church still had its influence and then there was the Church of England. All of these forces were struggling for power and control and much blood was shed.

Windyedge was in no-man's land in this religious conflict. The following example will give us some clue as to what John may have faced in Lowlands Scotland in the early 1600s. "Johnne Alison's house in Jedburgh was attacked for three hours 14th Sept. 1601. All persons were killed and the house was burned." The reason for the attack was not given. John had served as "bailie of Jedburg" and he escaped the fire as he was again mentioned as "bailies of Jedburg in 1602. p. 377, 407, 829, REGISTER OF PRIVY COUNCIL, 1599 -1604. .P

John Allison of Windyedge in Avondale, County Lanark, a follower and companion of Sir Robert Hamilton, married Ellin Hamilton and named his eldest son Robert for Sir Robert Hamilton. The two families were associated in Maryland, Virginia and South Carolina. John Hamilton petitioned for 200,000 acres in South Carolina on which he was to settle a colony. It was John Hamilton's grandfather who was one of the most important leaders of the migration of Scots to Ireland.

John probably moved from Windyedge, Scotland to Glasgow which was about 20 miles west. He probably sailed from Glasgow and arrived in Virginia in 1622/23. He came to Virginia on the PROSPEROUS. He was listed in the Archer's Hope census of 1622/23.

John Allison and Ellin Hamilton were married about 1610 in Windyedge, Lanark Co, Scotland. Ellin Hamilton was born in 1585 in Scotland. She died in VA. Ellin was from the highly regarded Hamilton Family of Lanark County, Scotland. She and John probably married in Lanark County and John probably sailed for America and sent for her about a year later. She probably sailed from Glasgow and she arrived in Virginia in 1624 on the CHARITIE. The Hamiltons controlled much of the land east of Glasgow in 1500 and 1600. This land was in Lanark County where the Hamilton and Allison names were very numerous. This was the time that many were fleeing from Scotland. Many went to Ireland for safety and financial reasons. Many moved on to America in the early 1600's. Many Hamilton records exist today attesting their historical importance in Scotland, Ireland and America. One report says, "In Galloway have the Kennedys and the Maxwells and the great family of Hamilton occupy much of Strathclyde." p. 63, Gerald Hamilton- Edwards, IN SEARCH OF SCOTTISH ANCESTRY, Camelot Press, LTD., Southampton, Hampshire, 1963. "The magnificent Hamilton Palace, located in what is now Strathclyde Regional Park, was pulled down 1922-32 as it was found sinking as a result of coal mining operations in the area." p. 105-106, Roddy Martine, SCOTTISH CLAN AND FAMILY NAMES, John Bartholomew and Sons Limited, Edinburg.
Another said, that the Duke of Hamilton played an important role under King Charles in the General Assembly in 1638. The Duke of Hamilton walked out of the Assembly and the King declared the decisions of the Assembly void. p. 9, Gerald Hamilton-Edwards, IN SEARCH OF SCOTTISH ANCESTRY, Camelot Press, LTD., Southampton, Hampshire, 1983.
"The CLAN descended from Walter Fitz-Gilbert of Hameldone, noted in 1295, and granted the lands of Cadzow by Robert Bruce descended from Walter. The King's grandson became Earl of Arran in 1503, and his grandson was made Marquis, was created Duke of Hamilton in 1643. The title passed to his daughter, Anne, who married William Douglas, Earl of Selkirk, later connecting the dukedom with the Douglas family, although the Duke remains Chief of the Hamiltons, not the Douglass." p. 104, Roddy Martine, SCOTTISH CLAN AND FAMILY NAMES, John Bartholomew and Sons, Edinburg, 1987.

John Allison and Ellin Hamilton had the following children:

+2 i. Robert Ellison, born abt 1615, Scotland.; married Hannah Gerrard, 1640, VA; died 1666, James City Co., VA.

3 ii. George Ellison was born about 1618 in Scotland. He died in 1624 at the age of 6 in Archer's Hope, VA. George was probably born in Scotland about 1618. He was not listed with John or Ellin in the ship's list but this does not seem to be unusual. He might even have traveled with other relatives on another ship. There was a George Allison who arrived in 1624 at Archer's Hope. His age, parents, etc., are not given and this could possibly be the same George even though his death is given as 1624 at Archer's Hope. Dates were not very accurate in these early records. George was listed as as a child who was dead at Archer's Hope in 1624 in The Complete Book of Emigrants, 1607-1776.

Second Generation

2. Robert Ellison (John-I) was born about 1615 in Scotland. He died in 1666 at the age of 51 in James City Co., VA. Robert was probably born in Scotland about 1615. There is no date for his arrival and he did not appear in the ship's list. with John or Ellin. This, however, does not pose a real problem since the lists kept on most ship were not that accurate.

"Robert Ellyson was in the Maryland Colony at least by 1642. He was listed in the levy of St. Mary's Hundred of August 2, 1642, when he was assessed thirty pounds of tobacco. He must have lived in St. Mary's County, and also owned land in Kent County, for that same year he was listed as an absent freeman of Kent. It had become a county that year and Robert's land was likely on the Island of Kent.

"Robert was practicing as a chirurgeon and physician at that time, with patients on Kent Island. He was involved in the Provincial Court with several patients who had not paid their bills. One of his delinquent accounts belonged to Sir Edmond Ploydon who had engaged him to tend two of his maid servants. The entry in the court records read: 'Robert Ellyson, barber-chirurgeon demandeth of Sir Edmond Ploydon, Kent, 1156 pounds tobacco due by account of chirugeny and physick this last summer for Ellen and Jane Stevenson, maidenservants of the said Sir Edmond.'

"Added to Robert's responsibilities were those of sheriff of St. Mary's County, but he held office only briefly. He did investigate a case of high treason against Captain Ingle who had 'Spoken scandalous words against Prince Rupert.' Ingle was arrested, escaped and led a rebellion in which St. Mary's City was sacked and the governor forced to flee. Fortunately for Robert, he was no the sheriff at the time of the rebellion.

"What drew Robert Ellyson to Maryland is not known, nor what then caused him to resettle in Virginia as he did not seem to be involved in the religious controversy. He was in Maryland as late as February 1644, but was in York County, Virginia, by 1646, when he was listed as a lawyer there. Dr. Ellyson became active in the affairs of the county, and may have helped settle several estates. At a court held in January 1646, he was allowed to satisfy his claim for 1030 pounds of tobacco out of the estate of Robert Jackson.

"Apparently had more than one place of residence, as he was found in both James City County and Gloucester County, later. He was elected a burgess from James City County to the General Assembly for the 1655-1656 session. In 1656, he was addressed as Lieutenant Colonel Ellyson and was listed among the justices of the Gloucester County court, while the following year he served as a justice in James City County. He was again elected to serve as a burgess from James City County. During his terms he was appointed a member of the committee for the levy and later, on the committee for private causes which dealt with suits appealed from the General Court of the Assembly. He served at one time as sergeant-at-arms for the General Assembly, and was also the high sheriff of James City County.

"He was referred to variously as Captain, Major, Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel, though not necessarily in correct rank sequence. He must have certainly served in the militia, as the military titles were not generally used without authority. During the period of Dr. Ellyson's service to the colony, he seemed to have continued in his practice of medicine, occasionally.

"Dr. Robert Ellyson testified that he treated Fortune Perkins, who came to him sorely bruised in his body about the arms and sides, and one of his shoulders dislocated. His shoulder was reduced by Dr. Ellyson and he stated that he did not know how Perkins came by his injuries (August 1661). The entry in the court record described the confrontation in detail. Mr. Perkins had been beaten up by Benjamin Rucker, with the crowd that gathered shouting 'Beat out his eyes and do not let him breathe.'

"Robert was one of those appointed, in 1660, to a committee of the Council and Assembly to make plans to build a state house. The state house was to be the third, and the site chosen was adjoining the lots later owned by Philip Ludwell and Robert Beverley (1694). Walter Chiles also served on the committee. The variety and importance of the positions that Robert Ellyson held indicated that he enjoyed the favor of the leaders of the colony. He was again elected a burgess, from James City County in 1663. He was appointed to a committee to examine the election of burgesses newly returned, one of the most important committees of the House.

"In the Spring of 1664, Robert Ellyson was ordered, with Edmund Scarborough, the Surveyor General of Virginia, and several others to go to Manakin and confer with the Commissioners of Maryland and if possible adjust the boundary dispute. This concerned the Pocomoke River Valley in Somerset County, Maryland.

"By the mid 1600's, it is known that Captain Ellyson owned land in James City County on Ware Creek. He had patent land in New Kent County on the narrows of the York River in 1657. At the same time he also patented 200 acres in James City County on the east branch of Burchen Swamp. It would seem that he did not settle on either land patent, as his son was to repatented them later.

"No information has survived about Robert Ellyson's activities after his assignment to help settle the boundary dispute with Maryland. He may have returned to his practice of medicine, for he was referred to in a General Court proceeding by his title of Dr. Ellyson. On September 28, 1671 the General Court ordered that Capt. George Lydall pay a debt of 593 pounds of tobacco from Dr. Ellyson's estate." p. 382-383. TIDEWATER VIRGINIA FAMILIES, Virginia Lee Hutchins Davis, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. Baltimore, MD. 1989.

There does not seem to be conclusive proof as to Robert Ellyson's wife. Most writers seem to think that his wife was Elizabeth and some think that she was the daughter of Dr. Thomas Gerrard. This does not seem likely since there is a marriage record of Elizabeth Gerrard and Nehemiah Blackstone May 6, 1659. However, it can be safely assumed that the wife was a Gerrard since the name became a common given name with a son and a grandson. This writer assumes that Hannah Gerrard is the correct name since Capt. Robert Ellison was named as the husband of Hannah Gerrard of Maryland and Virginia. FAMILY BIBLE RECORD OF ELIZABETH ELLISON ERWIN PRIOR TO 1795.

Robert Ellison and Hannah Gerrard were married in 1640 in VA. Hannah Gerrard was born about 1618. Robert Ellison and Hannah Gerrard had the following children:

+4  i. Gerrard Robert Ellison, born abt 1637, VA; married Sarah Spence, abt 1657; died abt 1700, VA.
+5  ii. Hannah Ellison, born abt 1657, VA; married Anthony Armistead, 18 Jul 1672, Petersberg, VA.; died abt 1728, Elizabeth City, Co, VA.

Third Generation

4. Gerrard Robert Ellison (Robert-2, John-1) was born about 1637 in VA. He died about 1700 at the age of 63 in VA. Gerrard Robert Ellison and Sarah Spence were married about 1657. Sarah Spence was born about 1638 in VA. She died in VA. Gerrard Robert Ellison and Sarah Spence had the following child:

+6  i. Gerrard Robert Ellison, born 1659, James City Co., VA; married Anne Myhill, 1675, Elizabeth City Co, VA.; died bef 1727, St Peters Parish, VA.

5. Hannah Ellison (Robert-2, John-1) was born about 1657 in VA. She died about 1728 at the age of 71 in Elizabeth City, Co, VA.

"Hannah Ellyson was the daughter of Robert Ellyson. She has been identified only by a later entry in the court records when a deed she made was recorded in New Kent County. She married Captain Anthony Armistead and on July 18, 1698, she and Captain Armistead deeded 200 acres of land in New Kent County to their son-in-law, John West. The land was described as "given to said Hannah by her father , Mr. Robert Ellyson of James City County, deceased."

"Captain Armistead and his wife, Hannah, had four children, as named in Hannah's will: William, Anthony, Robert and Judah (Judith) Armistead who married John West of West Point, the great nephew of Lord Delaware. The record of the marriage of Judith to John West was recorded in Elizabeth City County, on October 15, 1698, although the deed from Hannah called him her son-in-law in July of that year. Hannah Armistead's will was recorded in Elizabeth City County on September 19, 1728." p. 384, TIDEWATER VIRGINIA FAMILIES, Virginia Lee Hutcheson Davis, Genealogical Publishing Co., Baltimore, MD. 1989.

Hannah Ellison and Anthony Armistead were married on 18 Jul 1672 in Petersberg, VA. Anthony Armistead was born about 1651.

Anthony Armistead and Hannah Ellison had the following children:

+7  i. William Armistead, born abt 1673, Petersberg, VA.; married Hannah Hines; married Rebecca Moss; died Feb 1714/5, Petersberg, VA..
+8  ii. Anthony Armistead, born abt 1674; married Elizabeth Westwood; died Dec 1728, Petersberg, VA..
+9  iii. Capt. Robert Armistead, born abt 1676; married Katherine Nutting, 1700; died May 1742, Elizabeth City, Co, VA..
+10 iv. Judith Armistead, born abt 1680, Petersberg, VA.; married John West, 15 Oct 1698, Elizabeth City, Co,
Fourth Generation

6. Gerrard Robert Ellison (Gerrard Robert-3, Robert-2, John-1) was born in 1659 in James City Co., VA. He died before 1727 at the age of 68 in St Peters Parish, VA.

Gerrard Robert Ellyson II was the son of Gerrard Robert and Anne Myhill Ellyson. It has been difficult to sort out the successive generations of Ellysons, due to the use of the same name and the scarcity of county court records. It is believed that it is a correct interpretation of the date at hand, that there were two generations named Gerrard Robert, and not one as some researchers have assumed. Careful attention has been paid to dates, and the conclusions drawn about these relationships seem to be accurate.

Gerrard (Jarret) Ellyson was living in Henrico (Varina) Parish in 1726, and in March 1729. His land lay on Chickahominy Swamp, Miery Branch and Bever Ponds. It adjoined Robert Mosley and William Cocke. This would have to be Gerrard named in the will of Anne Myhill Ellyson, as Gerrard Robert Ellison I would have already died. Robert Ellyson II is clearly identified in the Quaker records as the son of Gerrard Robert and was always called by the name of Robert.

Gerrard Robert II purchased 22 Acres of land for L5 in the same parish from Samuel Bugg, in May 1730; it adjoined land he already owned. In September 1737, he bought additional land from John Webb. It was next to his mill branch, Round Hill Branch and Thomas Carter. In December of the same year he added another 129 acres to his land holdings.

There does not seem to be any records that Gerrard Robert I was associated with the Quakers, but it is believed Gerrard Robert II was involved with the Quaker movement by 1700. He signed a certificate of marriage held at the New Kent Meeting House on February 28, 1700. Sarah Ellison signed the Henrico Monthly Meeting minutes as an indication that she was in unity with the meeting, on April 1, 1703.

In 1702, Gerrard was one of the representatives to the Virginia Yearly Meeting, with John Woodson, Joseph Pleasants, Charles Fleming, John Pleasants, John Bates, and Robert Jordan. They were neighbors of Gerrard, as was Thomas Stanley, another stalwart Quaker. Gerrard had been known to have lived and been impressed with their integrity and sincerity, as well as the manner in which they conducted their business. It seemed natural to inquire about their beliefs, and as natural to become one of them.

Three of Gerrard's children married three of the children of John and Sarah Crews of Charles City County, and a fourth married the daughter of Robert Crews, of Charles Crews. In all, Gerrard and Sarah had nine children who lived to adulthood and married. The order of their birth is not known, but they are listed in the order in which they married: Robert, Agatha, Hannah, William, Elizabeth, Judith, Cecilia, Ursula and Thomas Ellyson.

The Ellysons were members of Henrico Monthly Meeting, but attended the New Kent Particular Meeting. Gerrard was appointed the overseer of the poor and he was also named to care for traveling Friends. He and Sarah opened their home to them and served as their guide in the community. In 1720, Gerrard was named the treasurer of the Henrico Meeting.

As happened, over and over, Gerrard suffered persecution by the county officials for his refusal to conform to the laws of the established church. He had a gun and a pair of stillards confiscated for his refusal to pay the levy for the minister's salary, 'the priests wages', as the Quakers defined it. When the Black Creek Particular Meeting was organized, Gerrard and his family became staunch supporters of that meeting. The minutes from that meeting show that Gerrard had a horse seized for his failure, one again, to pay the tithe.

By 1738, Gerrard was in a declining state of health and he asked to be relieved of the responsibility of treasurer of the Society. He continued to be hounded by the authorities and in 1741 Sheriff Edward Burch seized a number of his household goods, because he, again, refused to pay the tithe to the parish church.

Gerrard Robert Ellyson died before 2nd day 10th month 1749, although no record has been found of his exact death date. The entry in the monthly meeting minutes referred to a quarrel that Gerrard's children had about the Negroes in his estate. The misunderstanding continued into the new year as all of the children were drawn into the dispute arising from the division of his estate.

The Society appointed a committee to help the family settle their differences. The committee judged that two Negroes belonged legally to Sarah, the widow, and that she did, by deed of gift, give them to her son, Robert Ellyson. The ownership of the slaves rightfully lay with Robert.

There is no entry among the abstracted Quaker records as to the death date of Sarah Ellyson. Whether she was the Sarah Ellyson who was reported married to Robert Johnson on 5th day 8th month 1751 is not clear." p. 385-386, TIDEWATER VIRGINIA FAMILIES, Virginia Lee Hutcheson Davis, Genealogical Publishing Co., Baltimore, MD. 1989.

This will tells us that Robert was a rather prosperous land owner, but it also tells us of the close ties of the Erwin families. The Ellison and Erwin Family Bibles need to be compared at this point. Will Bk. 1771-1774, Charleston Co, SC.

Robert Ellison seems to have moved from Virginia or Maryland about 1735. Robert. his son. has a military record which says that his father was born in Maryland. The FAMILY BIBLE RECORD of Elizabeth Ellison Erwin also says that some of the family came from Maryland.

Robert settled in Williamsburg District and we find him listed among the early settlers. Every man settling here was granted a half acre town lot and fifty acres of land in the township for himself, his wife, and each one of his children." Robert Allison is listed as an original settler among the heads of families prior to 1737. HISTORY OF WILLIAMSBURG (SC), William Willis Boddie. Among those listed as heads of families prior to 1737 in Williamsburg Township were Robert Allison and Robert Ervin (HISTORY OF WILLIAMSBURG, The State Co, Columbia, SC. William Willis Boddie).

Hector was the fourth pastor of the Williamsburg Presbyterian Church. He became pastor in 1763'64. HISTORY OF WILLIAMSBURG CHURCH, REV. JAMES WALLACE, 1856. One report says He is "believed to have been a native of Lancaster Co, PA. and that He was a borther of Rev. Francis Alison of Philadelphia who was a distinguished minister and Scholar of the Presbyterian Church." (Mrs Joyce Graf of Washington, DC.)

HECTOR ALISON

Was examined by the synod s committee, and approved, May 28, 1745.Hie was ordained by Newcastle Presbytery in 174, probably at White Clay. He was scetdkd at Drawyers from1753 to '58.

A curious instance occurs in the records of synod, in 1750, in the omission of the name of a young man blamed for having hastily promised marriage. The lady was willing to release him; but she had a scruple whether it was lawful for her to do so. The synod decided it was lawful, and called up the young man, and directed John Thomson to rebuke him in the presence of the synod,"it being necessary to show our (detestation of such rash proceedings in young people." He submitted; and Cathcart and Thomson were (direcetiti to go with him to the young woman, to endeavour to issue the affair. They reported that they went to White Clay about Alison's affair, and that the parties subsequently made a mutual release.

In 1750, he was sent for eight Sabbaths to Western Virginia. In 1753, he asked for a dissolution of his pastoral relation. The presbytery referred it to the synod, and a commissiion was appointed, to meet at New London on the first Tuesday of August. They detrinimted the affair, and he probably removed to Drawyers.
In 1760, he was allowed to go as chaplain to the Pennsylvania forces; and, in answer to a very pressing application made to the synod in May of that year by the English Presbyterian gentlemen in Albany, he was directed to supply there till July. He joined Newcastle Presbytery after the union in 1761, and was released in a little time from his charge at Appoquiniminy. An application being made from Baltimore town on his behalf, a commission was sent there in November, who judged that the proposals were so unsatisfactory that it was inexpedient to suffer such a call to he placed in his hands. He was dismissed from the presbytery in December, 1771, probably with a view to join South Carolina Presbytery, and settled at Williamsburg, South Carol ina. *

Hector had a grant of 2,000 acres on Catfish Creek on the northeast side of Pee Dee River in Craven County, SC. The memorial on this land is dated 15 July 1765. Both are connected in some records with Jeffery's Creek, both died about the same time (Hector in 1767 and Robert in 1772); therefore, it is a safe assumption to say that they were brothers.

Will of Rev. Hugh Allison.

I, Hugh Allison, of James Island, Saint Andrews Paris in Berkeley County being weak in body but of a sound mind thanks to God for this do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following:

First, it is my will and desire that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid.

Secondly, it is my will and desire that the whole of my estate real and personal shall whenever my executrix and executor think proper be equally divided between my loving wife Doretha Allison and my three children, viz; my son Jacob Allison, and my two daughters Regina Allison and Martha Allison in such way and manner as they in their judgment may think best sharing share and share alike.

Thirdly, and lastly I do nominate and appoint my loving wife Doretha Allison to be my Executrix and my brother-in-law, Jacob Smizer to be my Executor to this my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this second day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand and seven hundred and eighty. Signed: Hugh Allison, L.S.

Sealed, published and declared this to be his last will and testament. In the presence of us, William Royal, James Witten, Jr, John Witten. Proved before Charles Lenning, Esq. 28 Sept. 1784 at the same time qualified Doretha Lee, lately Doretha Allison, Executrix. SOURCE: Original, Probate Court Charleston Co, SC. Bk. H p. 399, 1784. SC Archives Vol. 21 p. 484. Hugh in 1784 in the Revolutionary War.

Rev. Hugh Allison and Unk. Allison were married about 1760. Unk. Allison died before 1770.

Hugh Allison and Unk. Allison had the following children:

80 i. Martha Allison was born about 1760. She in 1784 in the Will Hugh Allison as a daughter. She died after 1784 at the age of 24. Martha was named in the will of her father in 1784, but she was not named as a minor in 1786. This means that she had either died between 1884 and 1886 or she was over 21 years of age in 1786. If this is true, Doretha Smizer would have had to be the second wife of Hugh Allison. Other evidence seems to indicate this also.

81 ii. Regina Allison\(^{45}\) was born about 1763 in Charleston Co, SC.

James Hugh Ellison and Sarah Wilson appeared in the census in 1790 in Anderson Co, SC. He is listed as having 2 males plus 16 and 1 male minus 16 and 1 female They appeared in the census in 1800 in Anderson Co, SC.

He has 3 males 1 minus 10, 2 males 10 to 16, 1 male 16-26, 1 male 26-45, 1 female minus ten and 1 female 26 to 45. The other male listed as plus 16 in the 1790 census was probably a relative and not a child. This census indicates that James was born between 1755 and 1774.

They were married in Williamsburg, SC. Sarah Wilson was born about 1765. She died after 1806 at the age of 41.

Sarah Allison, was listed in the sale of 230 acres of land to Isaac Cox which is clearly identified as the original land belonging to James Allison by the persons bounding it. Reuben Cox still had land joining this property of James. Others joining the land were Robert Kay, William Williamson and Francis Clinkscales. The location was on Saluda River and Little Creek. The deed is in the name of James Allison, but it is signed only by Sarah. James had died two years earlier. Sarah had elected for George Grace to serve as administrator of James's estate, but there is no land mentioned. There are no records indicating that the land had been placed in Sarah's name, but this is not unusual. The date of this sale was 17 Mar. 1806.

James Hugh Ellison and Sarah Wilson had the following children:

348  i. Matthew eLLISON was born about 1779. He appeared in the census in 1800 in Greenville Co, SC. age 16-26.

349  ii. Elizabeth Ellison was born about 1781 in Greenville Co, SC. Elizabeth was the only heir named in the estate of James. She was probably married at the time and was old enough to receive her share.

He appeared in the census in 1850 in Anderson Co, SC. 68.

William died after 1850 at the age of 68.

There are not many records for William Ellison. We do know that he was born in Anderson County since James, his father, did not move to Greenville County until 1798. He grew up in Greenville County and then moved to Anderson County.

This land was on Broadmouth Creek waters of Saluda River. This would have placed him near the original land of his father. How he disposed of this land is not known, but he probably gave it to his daughter, Evaline, since he was living with her family in 1850. Joel Ellison was a witness to this deed on 30 Mar. 1839.

William Ellison and Elizabeth Ellison were married about 1802. They appeared in the census in 1830 in Anderson Co, SC. William Ellison: 1M(40-50), 1F(40-50) 1F(5-10), 1M(10-15), 1F(15-20), .

191. John A. Allison (James-8, Robert-7, Robert-6, John-5, Gerrard Robert-4, Gerrard Robert-3, Robert-2, John-1) was born in 1774 in South Carolina. Name was on the Tax List date place. Name was on the Tax List date place. He appeared in the census in 1850 in Houston Co, TX.. 76. He was in the household of his son, William F.Allison. He died before 6 Mar 1857 at the age of 83 in Houston Co, TX..

John A. Allison was born in South Carolina in 1774 and married there before the turn of the century. His father bought land on the south side of the mouth of Warriors Creek and the Enoree River in 1769 and some of it was not sold until 1800 which would indicate that John was born in Laurens County, S.C. He was a blacksmith and slave owner. His first son, William F. was born in 1800 in South Carolina. John was listed in York Co. in the 1800 South Carolina Census. That is also the county where his wife, Elizabeth Creswell was born. It is not known when he left South Carolina but Elihu was born in Mississippi Territory in 1808 and James A. was born in Tennessee in 1810. It is believed he left S.C. in 1800 or shortly thereafter because he and his mother, Mary and brother, James sold land on the Enoree River and Warriors Creek in 1800.

Madison County (Alabama) was formed December 13, 1808 by proclamation of Gov. Williams of Mississippi Territory. Limestone County was created out of lands purchased from the Chicasas and Cherokees in 1816 by an act of the territorial legislature passed February 6, 1818. Limestone Co. was also cut out of part of Madison county. Alabama did not become a state until December 14, 1819.

John A. owned land in Madison Co., Ala. and this is where his son, Elihu was born but records indicate that he later owned land in Limestone Co., Ala. It is not known for certain but there seems to be a possibility that he may have lived in the part of Madison Co. that later became Limestone Co. The 1850 Williamson Co., Texas Census records indicate that his son James was born in Tennessee. Of course, Madison county joins Tennessee's southern border and it is not known how far the Allison family lived from the border. There were land records that indicate that they were still living in Limestone County as late as 1820. John had a daughter, Lucinda to marry Russell J. Crawford there in 1820.

John A. Allison and his son-in-law, Russell J. Crawford, had moved to Hardeman County, TN by November 1823 because the first county court was organized in Bolivar, Hardeman, TN on that date and the first venire for the county court consisted of John Allison, R. Crawford and several other men.

John was still in Hardeman Co., Tenn. in 1830 and had one male living with him age 15-20. His wife was still living at that time.

He left for Texas about 1831 with three of his sons and others in his family. They lived in Arkansas for approximately four years. They did not arrive in Texas until 1834 and were living near Nacogdoches, Mexican Colony of Burnet. They probably did not move their families to Texas until after receiving land grants there because some of his daughter-in-laws had children in Arkansas in 1835.

Records indicate that John A. Allison was a member of the first Protestant church ever established in Texas under Mexican Rule. It was established at Elk hart by "Elder" John Parker in 1834. "Elder John Parker and many of his family were massacred at Ft. Parker on May 19, 1836 by the Comanche Indians and others. His granddaughter, Cynthia Ann Parker, was taken hostage by the Indians and she lived with them 25 years. John A. Allison's granddaughter, Nancy Ann Allison, married a cousin of Cynthia Ann's in later years. (See NOTES for Nancy Ann Allison for more details)

John was living with his son, William F. Allison, in Houston County Texas in 1850 but died before 1857.

There is no record that John A. owned land in Texas but the first tax roll for Nacogdoches Co., Texas in 1837 listed his total valuation for tax was $2,780.

John A. Allison and Elizabeth Creswell were married before 1800 in South Carolina. Elizabeth Creswell was born about 1775 in York Co, SC..

John A. Allison and Elizabeth Creswell had the following children:

+363 ii. William F. Allison, born 1800, South Carolina; married Sarah Allison, abt 1821; died bef 6 Mar 1857, Houston Co, TX.

Joel died intestate. James F. Ellison petitioned for letters of administration 20 Nov. 1835. Sarah and Mary are listed as minor heirs. Other heirs were, William Ellison, Joel Ellison David Ellison, Belinda Cook and John R. Ellison. John R. Ellison was guardian of David Ellison and Belinda Cook.

It is not known where Joel and Sarah are buried, but their land was near Princeton Baptist Church and they are possibly buried there in unmarked graves. They had a son buried in this cemetery.

We are not sure of Sarah's surname. Joel Ellison received a "plantation on Broadmouth Creek containing 200 acres ... for the use and benefit of Sally Holland the wife of the said John Holland during her natural life ..." John was "desirous of providing for his family." Joel paid only $10 for this land which makes this pretty conclusive proof that there was a definite family connection. Usually the son or daughter would have been the recipients of this kind of deed, but this does not seem likely for Sarah if the census records for John Holland are correct.

Joel moved to Laurens County, SC about 1817, where he purchased land on Beaverdam Creek. This first land in Laurens County consisted of 71 acres and was purchased from Miciah Jones. It was located on Beaverdam Creek waters of Enoree River. This placed him in the northeastern section of Laurens County, SC. Joel bought and sold many tracts of land between 1813 and 1833. He and his family lived near Princeton, SC. in the corner where Laurens, Anderson and Greenville Counties intersect.

Joel bought land in Greenville County, SC. 24 Mar. 1813. This land was located on Lirrlle Horse creek waters of Reedy River. This placed him in the southern part of Greenville County and near the Laurens County, SC. line.

Joel Ellison and Sarah Mauldin were married about 1810. Sarah Mauldin, daughter of John Mauldin and Mary Talaferro, was born in 1790 in SC..

James was probably named for his grandfather. He was probably the oldest son. James F. Ellison petitioned for letters of administration 20 Nov. 1835 on the estate of his father, and served as administrator.

The estate of Joel Ellison states that "---- where as Joel Ellison in his lifetime purchased a tract of land containing 100A of Ira Arnold ---- and as the said Ellison deceased before the titles were executed and on partition of the said Joel Ellison's estate the said tract of land fell to his son William Ellison." This land was on Reedy River and James F. Ellison signed the deed.

In a deed in which John Reder Ellison sold land to William Ellison, James F. Ellison is listed as a neighbor. The land was on Beaverdam Creek waters of Reedy River. Sarah Ellison was also listed as joining this land

Roll 2954 Anderson S. C. 1873

He died in Jun 1873 at the age of 81 in Anderson Co, SC. Some one erected a tombstone for James in the Ellison-Wilson cemetery and the incorrect death date was placed on it. The date is the death date of James Wilson Ellison, Jr. James Wilson Ellison, Sr. appeared in court in Anderson, SC. at a much later date.

James was buried in Jun 1873 in Ellison-Wilson Cem, Easley, SC. You can see by the land purchases that James and his family moved several times. The last move that James made was to the Brushy Creek section between Easley and Greenville. This placed him near the boundry of Anderson and Pickens counties. His children were still young and that accounts for his children marrying and settling in the Easley, SC. area. Many of his descendants have remained in this area.

James Wilson Ellison Sr. and Mary 'Polly' Cox were married in 1815 in Pendleton Dist., SC. They appeared in the census in 1830 in Anderson Co, SC.. James Ellison, 2M(-5), 1M(5-10), 2M(10-15), 1M(15-20), 1M 30-40), 1F (5-10), 1F(10-15), 2F(15-20, 2F(30-40).

Mr. Ellison was a native of Greenville County, but in his youth removed to this county, where he has since resided devoting his life to farming, in which he was successful. Marrying in early life, he lived to see an unusually large posterity, divided up as follows: children 10, grandchildren 67, great-grandchildren 67, great-great-grandchildren 5; making a total of 221 (sic). He was an exemplary Christian, having been a member of the Baptist Church for nearly sixty years; the greater portion of that time a deacon. His remains were interred at Big Creek Baptist Church on the day following his death. Rev. G.M. Rogers conducting appropriate funeral services." ANDERSON INTELLIGENCE, Anderson Co. SC. Issue of 28 Feb. 1884. Miles was born in Greenville Co, SC. in 1799. He crossed Saluda River and settled in Anderson County at an early age. He bought his first land 27 May 1825 in the fork of Big Creek and Saluda River. He purchased a total of 928 acres from 1825 through 1839. He sold a total of 169 acres and we assume that the other was somehow transferred to his children. There are no records to show what happened to this land.

Miles was buried on 12 Feb 1884 in Big Creek Baptist Church, Williamston, Anderson Co, SC..

Miles was known as "Cap'n Miles" and he was a man of influence in his community. He was baptized into the fellowship of Big Creek Baptist Church 1 November. 1831. He was elected deacon 6 February. 1841 and was ordained as a deacon 1 May 1841. Miles served in this capacity until his death in 1884. He was elected as a messenger to the Saluda Baptist Association in 1838 and many years thereafter. The church had confidence in his ability to represent them at these annual meeting. This also indicates that he was strong in doctrine. Church doctrine was of vital importance during the time that Miles was active in the church.

Miles was a leader in a church split in 8 June 1844. The anti-mission movement was strong at that time and He was charged as being, "a missionary deacon and one who don't regard our constitution and church rules." The church withdrew fellowship from Miles and ten others. The church withdrew from the South Carolina Baptist Convention and the Foreign Missionary Society 7 February. 1844. Miles led in organizing the Missionary Baptist Church on 5 October. 1844. One year later the anti-missionary group was dissolved and most of them asked to be admitted into the Missionary Baptist Church. Big Creek Baptist Church stands today as a testimony of this man's convictions about missions. Big Creek Baptist Church has been instrumental in organizing many other churches in the local area. It has supported mission work in the United States and in foreign countries. It supports the Cooperative Program of the Southern Baptist Convention.

After arriving in Texas William F. received 1 league (4,428 acres) of land on the waters of the Angelina River on October 19, 1835 in the Mexican Colony of Burnet which is located in east Texas in what is now Rusk County. Shortly after arriving in Texas in 1836 the settlers led by Sam Houston declared their independence from Mexico to form The Republic of Texas. War broke out and William F. joined the ranks of the Texas fighters. He was listed as being in the Republic of Texas Army and was in Company 3, no. 41.

An affidavit: " Head Quarters Fort Lacy November 11, 1838
I do certify that William Allison lost at the Battle of Kickapoo the sixth day of October a Sorrel mule estimated at $250. Two Hundred Fifty Dollars. W.B. Stephens, Company ??

After Texas won it's independence in 1836 William was living in Nacogdoches Co., Texas. The first tax roll for Nacogdoches County was for 1837 and he owned 5,904 acres of land and had a total tax evaluation of $3,610.

+752 ix. Samuel Houston Allison, born 1843, Houston Co, TX.; married A.E. Allison; died 1873.

366. David Allison (John A.-9, James-8, Robert-7, Robert-6, John-5, Gerrard Robert-4, Gerrard Robert-3, Robert-2, John-1) was born in 1807. He emigrated from To Oregon. David was living in Hardeman Co., Tennessee in 1830 and was married at the time. The Memoirs of Edna Leah Allison Barnes stated that he moved to Oregon.

David Allison and Margaret Cox were married on 22 May 1828 in Hardeman Co., Tennessee. Margaret Cox was born about 1808.

He was buried in Old Friendship Cemetery, Williamson Co, TX.

Elihu Creswell Allison was born in Madison County, Alabama (Mississippi Territory at the time) but his parents may have moved to Tennessee temporarily by the time he was two. At least the 1850 Texas census suggests that his brother, James A., was born in Tennessee in 1810. His father, John A. Allison, may have lived so close to the Tennessee border that James was actually born in that state and then returned to Alabama. Several land records and other data suggests that the family didn't move to Tennessee until after 1820. John and Elizabeth's daughter, Lucinda, married Russell J. Crawford that year and Limestone County court records indicate that in 1826 John gave Power of Attorney to Russell J. Crawford to settle business in that county. The NE corner of Limestone County which borders Tennessee was cut from a small portion of Madison County. It is believed that his father, John, moved to Hardeman County about 1822 or 1823. Elihu grew to manhood and married in Hardeman Co., Tennessee. His first son, James Francis, was born in Hardeman Co.

The government of Mexico was offering land grants in Texas so Elihu Creswell left Hardeman Co., Tenn. with his wife and son, James Francis, about 1831. He was traveling with his father, John, and two brothers, William F. and James A. and other family members. It took them about four years traveling through Arkansas before they arrived in Texas. Elihu received a land grant on Mud Creek which runs into the Angelina River. He received one league of land (4,424 acres) on October 16, 1835 in the Mexican Colony of Burnet. This was located in the northeastern part of what is known today as Cherokee Co., Texas. The location was northeast of the present day town of Jacksonville and about six miles southwest of Troup, Texas. Records indicate that Elihu was living in San Augustine Co. at the time and probably never lived on land the received from the Mexican government.

On March 2, 1836 Texas declared it's independence from Mexico at a convention held at Washington- on-the-Brazos and Sam Houston was named Commander-in- chief of the Texas Army. Two of John's sons, William F. and James A. were members of the Texas army. On March 6, 1836 the Alamo fell to Santa Anna's army and he was on the move with 1000 Mexican soldiers, flush with victory, seeking the ragtag Texas Army. Houston decided to retreat rather than face superior enemy forces at that point. As Houston retreated eastward many settlers left their homes and land and moved their families to the Texas Louisiana border where Sabine County now exists for safety. This is the area where Elihu was living so they were already in a fairly safe location. Four of his children were born in San Augustine Co. between September 1835 and January 1845.

The "Texians" as they were called, lead by Sam Houston, defeated Santa Anna at San Jacinto near the present day city of Houston in 1836 and Texas became The Republic of Texas,

In 1838 Elihu C. received authority to survey and receive an additional labor (177 acres) of land. This was Class 1 Headright Land Grants issued by the Republic of Texas. Class 1 Headright certificates were given to settlers who were considered to be first class citizens and already in Texas prior to March 2, 1836, which was the Declaration of Independence Day for the new Texas Republic. The grants authorized the settlers rights for a League and a Labor but if they had already received the League from the Mexican Government they could then only receive a Labor from The Republic of Texas (per Texas General Land Office, Austin) These certificates were unconditional and the rights as well as the land could be sold at once. There is no record at the Texas General Land Office in Austin that Elihu ever found and surveyed the Labor because he never filed claim for it.

Prior to 1846 Elihu sold his land in San Augustine County but he held on to the land in Cherokee County and started moving westward and by 1846 he had rejoined his Father and two brothers in Houston County. Records indicate that he and his two brothers paid their Poll Tax in Houston County that year.

William F. and their father, John A. remained in Houston County according to the Houston County 1850 Census.

In 1847 Elihu and his brother, James A., moved to Milam Co. and bought land bordered on the south by the San Gabriel River and continued north past Willis Creek. Elihu bought approximately 5000 acres from Azi Hoxey at this location. This land was part of a six league Mexican Land Grant to Pedro Zarza. The part of the county where they bought land became Williamson County in 1848 and their land was located in the northeastern part of Williamson County. They raised their families there. Their land was located about five miles east of the present town of Granger although Granger wasn't established until after Elihu's death in 1871. In 1863 Elihu served in Army for the Confederate States and was 55 years old at the time.
In 1882 Granger was established about four miles west of the Allison home place. The MKT railroad donated land for Granger and started the town. It was a thriving town until about 1950 and as most small towns it lost most of it's inhabitants.

Elihu and Margaret Matilda's youngest child, Tirza Evoline, died at the age of ten and Elihu buried her on the western edge of his property just south of Willis Creek. His wife, Margaret Matilda died in 1867 and was buried there also. This Allison family cemetery later became known as the Old Friendship Cemetery. There is no evidence that Elihu was ever buried in this cemetery but many of his children were buried there as well as many of their neighbors and friends. In the 1970s the Laneport Dam was built down river from the Allison home place and the land and cemetery is now under the Granger Lake. The U.S. Corp. of Engineers moved the bodies from the Old Friendship Cemetery to the new Allison (Old Friendship) located in Granger Cemetery; however, Elihu's grave could not be located. A marble marker was placed in the new Allison Cemetery with the names of the ones that could not be located.

After Elihu's death in 1871 his seven living children inherited the land and after it was divided three of their sons, James Francis, Elihu Polk and Russell J. Crawford built their homes there and purchased inherited land from the other children of Elihu C. and Margaret Matilda.

Elihu Creswell Allison and Margaret Matilda Neely were married on 11 Sep 1829 in Hardeman Co., Tennessee. They appeared in the census in 1850 in Williamson Co, TX. Elihu Allison 42M, Farmer, b. AL. Margaret M. 41F b. SC. They had the following children: +755

James A. Allison Sr. (John A.-9, James-8, Robert-7, Robert-6, John-5, Gerrard Robert-4, Gerrard Robert-3, Robert-2, John-1) was born in 1810 in Hardeman Co., TN. He died in Mar 1874 at the age of 64. He was buried in Allison Cem., Granger, Williamson County, Texas. James A. ALLISON was born in 1810 in Tennessee, where he grew to manhood. (1830 Census, Hardeman County; 1850 U.S. Census, Williamson County, Texas.) He and Delilah HOWARD were married in 1829 (Marriage Records, Hardeman County, Tennessee). Their first two children were identical twins, Elihu 2nd and David, who were born in 1830. Approximately 1833, James and Delilah, along with their two little boys, two of James's brothers and their families, and James's father, began their migration to what is now East Texas, but which was then still a part of the Republic of Mexico. These families were in Arkansas by 1833, where some of their children were born. They arrived in the East Texas Piney Woods by early 1835, where they obtained one-league (6.8 square miles, or 4,428 acres) land grants from the Republic of Mexico. The land grants were written in Spanish. (Archives, GLO, Texas.)

James enlisted twice and served at least once in the Army of Texas in the Texas Revolution under Captain Henry Reed, Company of San Augustine Volunteers, Term 3 mos., Enlistment June 4, 1836, Dep.: Colorado River, New Year's Creek and Mill Creek. (Muster Records, Texas Archives, A3, T1, p. 193-195, REV. 1835-1837). The waterway locations indicate they served in the area near Washington-on-the-Brazos, Washington County, Texas, where "Texian" delegates drafted and signed the Declaration of Independence of the Republic of Texas in March, 1836.

Texas Revolution Muster Records also indicate that James and brother, William, enlisted in San Augustine County after December 14 (year unstated), Captain William D. Ratliff, Republic of Texas Militia, A8, T1, p. 250-251. There is a lengthy muster list, but it is not known if the recruits were ever called to service.

Texas won the war with Mexico, becoming the Republic of Texas, which was soon officially recognized by The United States of America and many other countries. For his military service, James was entitled to a Republic of Texas land grant ("first class headright") in the amount of one league and one labor, or 4,605 acres. This land is located in what is now Van Zandt County, Texas, and still bears his name in the State Archives. It is not known whether James and family ever resided on this land.

By 1835, James and Delilah were in Houston County, Texas, where some of their children were born. In 1847, James sold his original Republic land grant of one league and one labor (Deed Records, Houston County, TX), and, along with brother Elihu Creswell, migrated westward to Williamson County, Texas, where they purchased land near one another from a Mexican agent. The remainder of James and Delilah's children were born in Williamson County.

According to family tradition, two Mexican agents sold the same Williamson County land to James and a different family, thus igniting a land war. Family stories say that the war raged on for up to 20 years, when a judge in a neighboring county finally ruled that James had purchased the land first and was entitled to keep it.

Though the specifics of the Land War are yet unproved by me, some of us descendants of James and brother Elihu have in our possession copies of numerous letters, written between the 1950s and 1980s, to and from an older generation of Allisons, one of whom was Agnes Allison Whatley, b. 1900, d. 1980, life-long Williamson Countian, who ardently, passionately and legally researched the Allison genealogy for many, many years. One such letter, written in 1957 by Agnes to her cousin, Nettie Posey Raney, says this about the Land War:

"Now I have to give you some county history (I am compiling the history of Williamson County, Texas) so you will understand the life that James A. Allison led in Williamson County. When the Mexican Government owned Texas, they first gave a grant to Pedro Zarza which covered a large part of the county. They turned around and gave the same land to Francisco de los Santos. Pedro sold off his grant to one group of American settlers, and Francisco sold his grant (the same land) to another group of American settlers. Each group of American settlers, of course, considered his title the true one. So War broke out--the Allison-Pool War. Don't confuse this with feud fighting, for it was a real war, fought with drawn up lines of battle (as were fought them) and cannons were used, etc. Your James A. Allison was the leader of the group who had bought the land from Pedro. (Mr.) Pool was the leader of the group who had bought the land from Francisco. You can see why your James A. Allison is said to have so many enemies (legal records) and why he was called such harsh names (legal records), the courts were no help, only ruled that 'Every man had a right to bear arms and to use them in defense of himself and property. It's why the Governor issued pardons in almost wholesale lots. (James A. got one.) I am told by a girl in the County Clerk's office, whose ancestor was in the war, that every man in the county fought on one side or the other, save one man named Fisher who fought on whichever side he happened to be with when the agreed time for a battle took place.

(Every tragic situation always seems to have a comic side.) I have been told again by Mr. Young, whose ancestor was also in the war, that the Allisons won out because at the [last] agreed upon battle, the Allisons dressed their women up as men and when the Pool side saw so many coming against them, they broke and ran and then they were so ashamed to learn that they had run from women that they would never agree to another battle. This is apparently true, though I cannot prove it beyond the fact the legal records do show that the Allison side did win and that the War ended. I have told you this so that you will have forbearance and understanding of your ancestor, James A. Allison, when he sounds such a rascal in the legal records (remember, it was the men on the Pool side calling him that). He was a very brave and courageous man."

Soon after The War Between the States broke out in 1861, the State of Texas seceded from the Union. James' sons Elihu C. (2nd) and David (identical twins), Thomas, William and James enlisted. Elihu 2nd died while in service, and it is believed that James, Jr., also perished.

After the War Between the States was concluded, many folk in Williamson County, like others all throughout the South, were in dire financial straits. James must have done fairly well, though, as he purchased quite a bit of additional real property that was auctioned for unpaid taxes. (Deed Records, Williamson County, Texas.)

James and Delilah both died in 1874, some time after having given most of their property, real, personal and mixed, to their children. For reasons not fully understood at the present, many years of litigation followed which involved numerous plaintiffs, defendants and intervenors, the result being that James and Delilah's children and grandchildren lost all of their parents' property. (Probate and/or Civil records, Williamson County and Washington County, Texas.)

A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled the boon his love had given, And though the body slumbers here, the soul is safe in heaven." There is a CSA marker on his grave.

Why did Allen move his family to what is now Stonewall County, TX? It is certainly one of the most desolate places in Texas. The Associate Press carried the following article that gives a good description of the area.

"Jayton Texas - A century and a half ago, and Army explorer stumbled on a hauntingly remote desolate chunk of Texas prairie and was not much impressed.

W.B. Parker branded the hills and plains 'inhospitable' and declared: 'Destitute of soil, timber, water, game and everything tolerable, they must remain as they are uninhabitable and uninhabitable. For all purposes of human habitation except it might be for a penal colony - those wilds are totally unfit.'

He vowed never to return except in memory 'and then in reminiscences to painful to be pleasant

A giant, jagged rectangle between the skyscrapers of Dallas to the east and the fertile High Plains of Lubbock to the west, the land Parker visited was eventually settle but rarely boomed.

By passed by major highways and only fitfully romanced by King Cotton or Big Oil, it remains today a region with little population or prosperity and even less political clout.

With no name or identity of its own, it often is overlooked or ignored even by other Texans." Mike Cochran, The Associated Press.

He served in the military between 1861 and 1865 in CSA.

On December 4, 1861, John volunteered, as the Confederate States of American began recruiting men to fill the ranks of the newly formed army. He joined a company which was being formed at Mt. Springs, Anderson County, South Carolina. A company as composed of approximately 120 men. This company became known as Company D., 18th South Carolina Infantry. The 18th was made up of 10 companies from Union, Spartanburg, York, Darlington and Anderson Counties.

In April 1862, the Confederate Army was reorganized as many of the early enlistments were expiring. John joined his unit on April 18, 1862, at Charleston, South Carolina, where they had been on coastal duty since December. He received a bounty in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) for enlisting for the duration of the war.

In June, the 18th South Carolina was placed in the brigade of Brigadier General Nathan George Evans. This brigade was composed of the 17th, 18th, 22nd and 23rd regiments of infantry along with Holcombe's Legion. Evans' Brigade was shipped out to Virginia to assist in the defense of Richmond.

After serving on skirmish duty, at Malvern Hill and Rappahanock Station, the 18th was fully involved in the Battle of Second Manassas (or Second Bull Run as the Yankees prefer to call it). This was on August 30, 1862, and they were a part of General John B. Hood's Division, which was in Major General James Longstreet's Corps. In this action the 18th South Carolina lost 113 men killed or wounded.

In September, the Maryland Campaign began with the 18th being involved in the battles at South Mountain, Crampton's Gap and Sharpsburg, Maryland.

At the battle of Sharpsburg (Antietam to some) the 18th South Carolina was still in John B. Hood's Division. On September 17, 1862, one of the bloodiest battles of the was was waged. The 18th lost 42 men killed and wounded, as they engaged in battle in the area known as "the cornfield."

The 18th then moved back to Virginia, where they went into camp near Winchester, then to Culpepper and finally to Richmond where many of the troops were barefooted and ill clothed, leaving their bloody footprints in the snow.

In December 1862, they were ordered to Kinston, North Carolina, and finally to Charleston, South Carolina, where they served on coastal duty and were constantly involved in checking Union advances upon Mt. Pleasant, Sullivan's Island and Fort Sumter.

In May 1863, they were ordered to Mississippi, where they were attached to Major General W.W. Loring's Division, and became part of General Joseph Johnston's army, who was going to the relief of General Pemberton whose command was under siege at Vicksburg, Mississippi.

On July 4, 1863, Vicksburg was surrendered to Union General Ulysses S. Grant. Grant then turned his attention on Johnston's army and a battle ensued at Jackson, Mississippi. During this battle Private John Thaddeus Stone was wounded, in the head. Evidently he as not seriously wounded for he was on hand to receive his pay in September 1863. At this time they had returned to the Coast where they were encamped at Savannah and Charleston.

In February 1864, the 18 South Carolina was detached and temporarily assigned to General Alfred Coilquitt's Brigade which was hurrying to Florida. Union forces were attempting to invade Georgia by advancing from Jacksonville, Florida, to south Georgia. The Union force was soundly defeated by the Confederates, at the battle of Ocean Pond, Florida, also known as the battle Olustee.

In May 1864, the 18th was ordered back to Virginia, where they were involved in several battles around Richmond. In July, the 18th was at Petersburg, Virginia and was positioned on the right of General Pelgram's artillery battery. The Union had tunneled under the Confederate position and set off a tremendous underground explosion. Company a of the 18th South Carolina was almost completely annihilated. This became known as the "Battle of the Crater." After repulsing the enemy, the Confederate force remained under siege at Petersburg the rest of the fall and winter.

In April 1865, General Robert E. Lee decided to evacuate Petersburg and fell back toward Appomattox Courthouse, Virginia.

On April 6, 1865, at Farmville, Virginia, the Army of Northern Virginia fought their last battle, just three days before General Lee surrendered his army at Appomattox Courthouse. This was known as the battle of Sayler's Creek. Here John Thaddeus Stone was captured and taken prisoner. He was imprisoned at Newport News, Virginia, until July when he was paroled to return home to Williamston, Anderson District, South Carolina.

The above article was presented at the "Gravestone Dedication and Memorial Service at Hopewell Baptist Church Cemetery, Blount County, Alabama off Hwy 231, South Of Arab on Saturday, October 10, 1998 at 2:00 P.M. for Confederate Veteran John Thaddeus Stone, Company D. 18th South Carolina Volunteer Infantry."

CYNTHIA ANN PARKER, wife of Pete Nocona, Comanche Chief
Mother of the famous Comanche, Chief Quanah Parker

A true story regarding the tough times that settlers had by moving westward to Texas in the 1830s. Many books have been written about Cynthia Ann Parker being captured by the Comanche Indians at the age of nine and growing up as an Indian. She became the wife of Pete Nocona and then the mother of Quanah. Quanah was considered a savage and made many raids into white settlements all over Texas as a young man. After his father, Nocona, was killed Quanah became the Chief of the Comanches. The time came when the U.S. Army forced the Comanches to live on a reservation in Oklahoma. He became a very respectable person and brought peace between the Comanches and the white people. He was invited to Washington D.C. as a representative of the Comanche Nation and President Theodore Roosevelt and Quanah became good friends. He became known as Quanah Parker to the world.

Nancy Ann Allison's husband, William Eldredge Parker, was a first cousin to Cynthia Ann Parker. William's grandfather "Elder" John Parker and his wife, Sarah "Sallie" White, born 1758 and 1759 respectively, brought their large family of adult children and grandchildren and other families to Texas while it was still part of the Republic of Mexico. They also established the first non-Catholic church in Texas--the Pilgrim Primitive Baptist Church near Elkhart, Anderson County. Some of their sons thereafter also established Pilgrim churches in Nacogdoches, Nacogdoches County; near Grapeland, Houston County; and near what is now Groesbeck, Limestone County. It was in Limestone County that the family and their friends built the famed Fort Parker. The men would work on their farms, but the families retired to the Fort during the night because of the threat of Indians and probably wild animals. Everything was peaceful until May 19, 1836, when many Comanche, Kiowa and Kichai warriors rushed the Fort and killed son Ben. Silas was murdered while trying to rescue his niece, Mrs. Rachel Plummer. Mr. Frost and his son were killed while defending the women and children. Elder John, his wife and Mrs. Kellogg were murdered while trying to escape. Silas's wife tried to escape with her four children, when she was overtaken and two of her sons taken. The men working their fields arrived and were able to save her. Silas's little daughter and son, Cynthia Ann and John, were also kidnapped. Those that escaped hid in the heavy timber of the Navasota River bottoms. When they returned to the Fort to check on everyone else, they found that there was only one survivor still in the Fort, a great-grandmother who had been scalped and speared.
Some 24 years later, in 1860, Texas Rangers raided a Comanche camp and captured three supposed Indians. They were surprised that one had blue eyes, a non-English-speaking white woman with her infant daughter. Col. Isaac Parker later identified her as his niece. Isaac took her to his home in Birdville (present-day Ft. Worth), where she was photographed with her baby and her hair cut short—a Comanche sign of mourning. Her husband, Chief Pete Nocona, had been killed in the raid. She made several attempts to run back to the Indians. After three months in Birdville, brother Silas took her to his Van Zandt County home; she was later moved to her sister's home near the Anderson-Henderson County lines. The 1870 U.S. Census enrolled her and gave her age as 45. At her death shortly thereafter, she was buried in Fosterville Cemetery in Anderson County. Sometime after 1910, her body was moved to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and buried beside her son Quanah. Cynthia and her family were true pioneers of Texas, whose legacy was carried on by her son Quanah. Serving as a link between whites and Comanches, Quanah became the most influential Comanche leader of the reservation era. (Sources: Handbook of Texas Online, a joint project of The General Libraries at the University of Texas and the Texas State Historical Association; 1936 History of the Baptist Church.)

William's father was Isaac Parker who was born in Georgia, and later migrated with his family to Tennessee and Illinois. He was sheriff of Clark County in 1819-20, a justice of the peace in Crawford County, and county treasurer in Coles County. He left for Texas in 1833 and, by 1834, was in Mustang Prairie, Houston County, Texas. When it later became apparent that there would be a war with Mexico, Isaac traveled throughout the South to call for volunteers to help the Texians fight for their independence. In 1836, he enlisted in the Texas Army (Elisha Clapp, commanding officer, Texas Revolution Muster Records, Texas Archives). After Texas won its independence from Mexico, Isaac represented Houston County in the House in the Third, Fourth, Sixth and Seventh Congresses (1838-1843). Thereafter, he was a Senator for Houston, Nacogdoches and Rusk in the Eighth and Ninth Congresses (1843-45). He was a member of the 1845 Constitutional Convention. Texas became a State in 1845, and Isaac was a Senator in the first four terms of the Texas Legislature (1845-53). From 1855-56, he represented Tarrant and Ellis Counties in the House, introducing the bill to establish Parker County. He made numerous attempts to obtain the release of Cynthia Ann Parker and John Parker, his niece and nephew, who had been captured by Indians at Fort Parker on May 19, 1836. On December 18, 1860, the Texas Rangers recaptured her, and Isaac identified her. He took her to his home in Birdville and later to Austin, where he was successful in getting bills passed that gave Cynthia Ann a pension and league of land. (Sources: Handbook of Texas Online, a joint project of The General Libraries at the University of Texas and the Texas State Historical Association; 1936 History of the Baptist Church.)

It has been said that Cynthia Ann died of a broken heart since her young daughter had died and her uncles would not allow her to return to be with her son, Quanah, and "her" people, the Comanches.

See his father's Notes and source file.

James Francis Allison came to Texas in 1835 when he was five years old. He was 17 when his father moved the family to Williamson County. After he reached adulthood he was a rancher and farmer. He and two of his brothers inherited land from their father, Elihu Creswell, in the northeastern edge of Williamson County, Texas and then they bought additional land from the other five living brothers and sisters. His land began at the San Gabriel River on the south and extended north past Willis Creek. At one time he owned approximately 700 acres. James built a large two story home just north of Willis Creek. Two of his brothers, Elihu Polk and Russell J. Crawford, built their homes near his place on the same road. During the 1870's a community and post office was established and known as Allison community. James served as the first Postmaster in Allison. The school became known as Friendship. The land for this town was believed to have been donated by his brother Elihu Polk because it was on his land. Allison Community was located near the Willis creek and flood washed some of the buildings away in 1921 and Friendship was relocated about 1923 a few miles east of the original location on higher ground.

James F. served in The Confederate States Army but it is not known if James actually saw action since he was farming and ranching at the time.

Mr. Allison married Sarah Ann Morris in 1856 and they had four children. After Sarah Ann died in 1879 he married Mrs. Virginia M. Blackburn. After her death he married Arnetta Marguarette Schwarting Wern aka Nettie. She was a young widow with two small children from her marriage to Leonard Wern. Prior to his marriage to Nettie, Mr. Allison divided approximately 500 acres of his land between his children from his first marriage, but retained his home and about 200 acres that stretched from the road just north of his home southward past Willis Creek and on to the San Gabriel River. Just prior to his death in 1907 Mr. Allison divided the 200 acres and the house between his and Nettie's four daughters and his two stepchildren. His wife was to have access to the home and income from the property until her death and then the property was to be divided as requested in his will.

Mr. Allison was buried in the Old Friendship Cemetery which was located near the Willis creek with his first two wives and his mother and other members of his family. His third wife, Nettie, was buried in the Granger Cemetery. About 1977 the Lakeport Dam was built on the San Gabriel River a few miles down stream from the Allison home. Since the water would cover the Allison land and cemetery all the bodies buried there that could be located were moved to a new location in the Granger Cemetery. The U.S. Corp. of Engineers purchased a plot of land in this cemetery which was fenced to establish the new Allison (Old Friendship) Cemetery and the remains were relocated to this location. Mr. Allison's daughter from his third marriage, Evalene, requested that his remains be placed by her mother, Nettie, who was buried in the original Granger's City Cemetery instead of in the Allison plot.

Obituary.

Being requested, I write in memory of sister Sarah ALLISON YOUNG, late consort of J. J. YOUNG. She was born in San Augustine county, Texas, September 19th, 1835. Born again in summer of 1857. Married to J. J. YOUNG December 31st, same year, with whom she lived, loved and beloved until December 5th, 1909, nearly fifty-two years. Mother of eight children, four sons and four daughters, two of whom, son and daughter, preceded her in early life to that better world. she lived the major portion of her life in Williamson and Milam counties. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. ALLISON, having settled in the beautiful San Gabriel country, Williamson county, in our earlier days, being familiar with the privations of early life. The children surviving and deeply mourning her loss are Mrs. WEEKS of North Texas, Mrs. L. C. ALLEN of Minerva, and Mrs. KIRTLER of Cameron; Messrs. John YOUNG of Jones' Prairie, Raymond YOUNG of Midland, and Albert YOUNG of Falls County, Texas. For several years Sister YOUNG suffered intensely, though always patiently, so it became necessary to break up housekeeping, and she with her aged husband lived with their children who joyfully welcomed them to their homes. Deceased never indulged in jesting, was unselfish and thoughtful for the needs and comforts of others, could not enjoy the necessaries of life if she felt some one needed them worse or as bad as she. Neighboring, a loving wife, devoted mother, deeply pious, a consistent Christian, member of a missionary Baptist church. Died of heart failure at her son-in-law's home in Cameron, Texas, Dec. 5th, 1909, in the triumphs of the unconquerable faith and trust in her dear Lord, sweeter than life to her. As her sweet spirit was pluming itself for its upward flight, though prostrated and speechless, she lay with upturned finger pointed to the home of the Redeemer of souls saying by gesture, "I'll soon be at rest;" and doubtless yearned for assurance for loved ones to meet her there. Loving hands laid her to rest in Cameron cemetery. The bereaved children of the deceased may again see the stooping form of aged, silver locked, furrowed faced father coming to their homes, but mother . . . she is dead! They will see her no more until they see her in the house not made with hands, in the city of God that has foundations, whose builder and maker is God eternal in the heavens. Farewell mother, dear; farewell wife, companion true. Our loss is your eternal gain. May God temper the winds to the shorn lambs, may the Holy Spirit, the comforter, make the stars of hope shine through the seemingly impenetrable clouds of desolation into the broken bereaved hearts of sorrowing husband and bereaved loved ones, is the wish and prayer of HER FORMER PASTOR.

Sarah Jane Allison and James John Young were married on 31 Dec 1857 in Williamson Co, TX.. James John Young was born on 16 Jan 1833 in Florida. He died on 11 Aug 1910 at the age of 77 in Rosebud, Falls, Texas. Obituary of James "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

At the residence of his son, Mr. John YOUNG of Jones Prairie, on the morning of August 11, occurred the death of Mr. James YOUNG, one of Milam County's oldest and most highly respected citizens.

His remains were brought to Cameron the same day and carried to the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. C. KIRTLEY, where they remained until the following day. On Friday morning at 10 o'clock funeral services conducted by Rev. WOODS of Burlington were held, followed by interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

During his life time, in speaking of death, Mr. YOUNG had often expressed the desire that his summons would come suddenly, and seemingly, in answer to that wish he passed from an earthly sleep into one that knoweth no awakening, except in "the better land." On the night preceding his death he retired in his usual health and spirits, but about two o'clock in the morning his son, awakened by a noise, went into his father's room and found his dying. Efforts were made to revive him, but to no avail, as his spirit had gone to the God who gave it.

Mr. YOUNG was born in Florida on Jan. 18, 1833, and at the age of eighteen years, moved to Texas, locating in Williamson County. In that county on Dec. 31, 1857, he was married to Miss Sarah ALLISON and to them were born ten children, four of whom are dead. In 1871, he and his family came to Milam county where he has since resided in different parts of the county, living eighteen years in Davilla. Mr. YOUNG was converted during Maj. PENN'S memorable meeting and two years later united with the Baptist Church. He lived his religion every day, "visiting the fatherless and the widows in their affliction," and at all times counting it a privilege to help those in need.

Mr. YOUNG is survived by one brother and six children, and to them in their sad bereavement sincere sympathy is extended.

James John Young and Sarah Jane Allison had the following children:

Elizabeth A. Allison and Harvey M. L. Smith were married on 21 Mar 1868 in Williamson Co, TX. Harvey M. L. Smith was born about 1837.
Margaret Matilda Allison was the fifth child born to Elihu Creswell and Margaret Matilda (Neely) Allison. Elihu had a homestead near Nacogdoches, Burnet Colony, when he and many other settlers moved their families toward the Texas/Louisiana border after the Texans (as they were called) declared their independence from Mexico in 1835. This was the start of the war that finally won Texas it's independence as a Republic. At that time Texas started dividing the state into counties and the location where Elihu had settled became San Augustine County. This is where Margaret Matilda was born. The Republic of Texas began distributing land to the settlers that were living in Texas while it still belonged to Mexico and when the Republic declared it's independence. Since Elihu was married with a family and a farmer/cattleman he was given a League and a Labor (4,605 acres) of land in Sabine County, which was just east of San Augustine County. He sold this land and started moving westward. By 1846 he was in Houston County where his two brothers, William F., James A. and their father, John A. were living. In 1847 Elihu and his brother, James A. moved farther west into Williamson County, Texas and bought good flat land from Mr. Hoxey that had been a part of a six league survey originally granted to Pedro Zarza. This land was bounded on the south by the San Gabriel River and extended far north of Willis Creek. Elihu built his home and reared his family here.

Margaret Matilda was seven years old when they moved to this location. The nearest community and school would have been at Cirleville which was about six miles west of the Allison home and on the San Gabriel River also. The Allison school and community wasn't built until the early 1870s and Granger wasn't started until 1882. By that time Margaret was in her thirties and married.

By 1905 Margaret is dividing her time with sons, Wiley and Elihu Jemeyson in Christoval, Tom Green Co. Texas and with her daughters, Mary Jemeyson Wells and Medora Jemeyson Smith in Ft. Worth, Texas. She was with Medora in Ft. Worth when she died. Wiley and Elihu took her back to Friendship to be buried beside W.J. Jemeyson in the Allison (Old Friendship) Cemetery. She and W.J. Jemeyson remained buried in the Old Friendship Cemetery until it was relocated near Granger Cemetery in 1970s due to the building of Lanoport Dam.

Margaret Matilda Allison and William James Jemeyson were married on 27 Dec 1860 in Williamson Co, TX.. William James Jemeyson was born on 16 Mar 1838 in Mississippi. He died on 24 Jun 1915 at the age of 77 in Friendship, Williamson, Texas. He was buried on 25 Jun 1915 in Old Friendship Cemetery, Williamson, Texas.

NOTE: All the family and legal documentation regarding William James Jemeyson and Margaret Matilda Allison, daughter of Elihu Creswell Allison and Margaret Matilda Neely and their descendants were furnished by Frances Idalene Jemeyson Hart, Klamath Falls, Oregon. Ms. Hart is the holder of the original certified copies of all certificates.

On 27 December 1860 William James Jemeyson and Margaret Matilda Allison were married. William Jemeyson was a farmer, Rancher and owned a considerable amount of land in Williamson and Tom Green Counties, Texas. Margaret inherited approximately 800 acres of land as her share of the land that originally belonged to her parents, Elihu C. and Margaret Matilda Allison. She and W.J. first sold 300 acres of this land to her brother, Elihu Polk Allison on 6 February 1871 and then sold him 500 acres in 1876. In 1887 W.J. and Margaret homesteaded land in Williamson County, Texas. On 27 March, 1899 W.J. purchased his first section of land in Tom Green Co., Texas. By 1901 W.J. Jemeyson owned four sections of land in Tom Green County, Texas. On 16 July, 1901 Margaret divorces W.J. Jemeyson and in decree she receives one section of land in Tom Green county. On October 1, 1901 W.J. sells his son, Elihu Jemeyson, three sections of land in Tom Green Co.

On March 10, 1910, after marrying Mrs. L.C. Burgess, W.J. Jemeyson homesteads land in Jones Co. Texas. In 1912 he moves to Wichita Falls, Texas and purchases hotels. June 24, 1915 he dies at his daughter's, Sallie Jemeyson Ivey, home and is buried in the old Friendship Cemetery.

Elihu Polk was born in San Augustine Co., Texas in 1845 and his family moved to Williamson Co. (Milam County at the time) in 1847. He was two years old when they moved to Williamson County. Elihu was only 16 or 17 when he enlisted served in the Army of the Confederate States.

The land that Elihu Polk lived on was bought and settled by his father, Elihu Creswell Allison, in 1847. The land was in the north east corner of Williamson County and was bounded on the south by the San Gabriel River and north quite a distance past Willis Creek. Elihu built his two story home on his inherited land and then purchased an additional 800 acres from his sister, Margaret Matilda and her husband W.J. Jemeyson. He and his two brothers, James Frances and Crawford each built large two story homes on their land and lived the rest of their lives as very close neighbors.

Land from Elihu's property was donated for the purpose of building a school and later they built a church, tabernacle, store and a cotton gin. This was known as the Allison community but the school was later known as Friendship. After a flood on the Willis Creek in 1921 they moved the school and town about 3 miles NE and named the new place Friendship also. Allison community finally disappeared.

In later years Elihu and Evie's daughter, Ollie Lee and her husband I. Thomas Winningham owned this land and lived there. Please note that the spelling of Winningham and Winningham is coincidental but correct.

Evoline was listed in a Family Record sheet furnished by her granddaughter, Tommie Lee Winningham. Tommie Lee (Oct 1999) said that she only knew her grandmother as Evie and this name was listed on the family tombstone that was relocated from the Allison Cemetery on Willis Creek. One side was engraved with Elihu Polk Allison with his date of death and the other side was Evie (only) and no dates were engraved. The name had been listed as Evangeline Winningham by another granddaughter, Carrie May Winningham but since it was recorded as Evoline Willingham in the Family Record sheet, furnished by Tommie Lee, this is being used as fact until proven differently.

OBITUARY OF ANDREW JACKSON ALLISON:
"PIONEER THROCKMORTON COUNTY RESIDENT, A. J. ALLISON, PASSED AWAY AT HIS HOME IN LUSK
NOVEMBER 10; BURIAL THERE SATURDAY

"On the evening of November 10th at his home in Lusk, Texas, an old time Texan passed away. He was A.J. ALLISON, son of James A. ALLISON, one of the Founders of the Republic of Texas. His father was one of the outstanding pioneers of the young nation called Texas.

"Mr. Allison was born April 9, 1855, in Williamson County, Texas. He grew up on the frontier and developed the strong and vigorous characteristics of manhood for which our early settlers were famous. As a lad he witnessed the Civil War and the tragic upheaval which it caused in our social and commercial life.

"At the age of 18 years, he joined the Baptist Church and he was an earnest and consistent Christian until the day of his death. He was upright and kindly, reminding one of the splendid men who made the world a safe place for us to abide. He was generous hearted. In the early days the passing wayfarer was always a welcome guest within his gates. He fed hundreds of hungry and destitute during his life and no man ever asked a reasonable favor at his hands but that it was granted if within his power.

"He lived the life of the prophet beside the road where the races of men go by. And the men who passed his way were better because they had met and known him.

"In his going the State has lost an upright citizen, the community a splendid neighbor, mankind a generous friend, and his family a loving husband and father. May the peace of God comfort those who mourn and glorify the memory of the noble spirit which has departed the walks of the earth.

"He is survived by his wife, Mrs. A. J. Allison, to whom he had been married fifty-nine years; Four daughters, Mrs. Ethel Pratt of Jean; Mrs. Edna Barnes of Ranger; Mrs. Ollie Mills of Lusk; and Mrs. Mattie Harling of Woodson. One son, I. F. Allison of Casa Grande, Arizona also survives him. He was laid to rest in the Woodson Cemetery on the evening of November 11th in the presence of a great throng of friends. Reverend Galloway preached the funeral service, and the Kiker-Thompson undertaking establishment had charge of the interment.

By John Lee Smith
November 10, 1933 Andrew was buried in Woodson, Throckmorton County, TX.

Per Andrew Jackson's great-granddaughter, Billy Jean Pierce (Harvey) in 4/1999, "Grandpaw" was quite a good artist and writer [and had beautiful handwriting] and loved to read. He always let his children and grandchildren read his beloved books. He drew a mural of a wild turkey on the wall of his car barn at his farm in Lusk, Throckmorton County, Texas. Jean remembers his long beard and said that his hair and beard were snowy white. In the last months of his life, he used a cane and had to sit a lot. But even though he could not do much, he could still draw—he had a large blackboard on a stand, and he drew lots of pictures, one of which was of some men fishing on the River. It even included their campsite and campfire. Jean said it was so realistic that, looking at it, she expected to "feel" the water and "see" the flickering of the fire.

He told his grandchildren and great-children about going on cattle drives with his father and brothers in the old days.

Jean, now 78, remembers AJ and Alice well, and also said that AJ wrote an extensive biography of his ancestors, including their Tennessee to Arkansas to Texas migration, and gave it to John Lee Smith, who was going to publish it. According to the Smith biography in the Texas Handbook Online, Smith's papers are housed at "the SW Collection" at Texas Tech University. Smith was also AJ's attorney. (John Lee Smith was a future State Senator and Lt. Gov. when he wrote AJ's obituary in 1933.)

My Aunt Jean also told me how AJ and Alice Reveale came to marry: Alice's mother died by the time she was three, and her dad remarried and "gave the kids away" to different people. Alice probably grew up in one or more foster homes, but was taken in by AJ's parents sometime after 1870. AJ's parents died in 1874. Later, AJ and Alice got married--and were married to each other for some 59 years and bore numerous children.
Joined the Baptist Church at the age of 18.

AN INCIDENT IN THE LIFE OF CAPTAIN A.H. ELLISON

About the first of May 1865, I returned from the war to my home which was about four miles from Easley on the Greenville road; I had been away practically eight years, having worked for four years for a tobacco company in North Carolina before enlisting in the Confederate Army. Some ten days later a company of Northern troops composed of twenty-five or thirty men from a brigade stationed near Anderson came into our community, ransacking the homes, taking money, watches, silverware, and other valuables from people.

When they were ready early next morning to leave their camp which was within one-half mile of our house, some one fired from ambush where a squad of men were hiding and killed one of their men. The Yankees fled, not knowing who had attacked them. I heard the firing, and in a few minutes I saw them coming by my home. They asked me to tell them the nearest way out to Easley's Bridge on the Greenville Road as they were to meet the comrades at Greenville. Having received this information from me, they voluntarily told us that they had lost one of their men; My brother, Monroe, and I promised to see that he was burned in the Turner burying grounds nearby. When we went to see Mr. Turner, he and his sons, Ben, went with us to the camp where we found the body of the soldier who had been killed. Returning to the Turner home we prepared, as best we could, his body for burial. We buried him that same day.

That afternoon two of those soldiers in citizen's clothes came back to ascertain the fact about the killing and the burial; they seem quite satisfied, for they gave me the soldier's and regiment. I can not now recall the name, so that I might cut it on the marker of his grave, a service which I gladly rendered. Having thanked us, they rode away and we thought the incident was closed.

A week later, however, my brother and I saw five soldiers ride up to our gate; when we walked out to meet them told us curtily that we with our brother William and Ben Turner were under arrest for the killing from ambush of one of their men. They carried us to Turner's house where we found a company of soldiers waiting for the court at which we were to be tried for this crime. All the witness except the four of us being colored men, our evidence was taken first. We all swore that we knew nothing of the crime; the Negroes swore that we might have done it, one adding that he thought we did and believed that Henson Ellison was the leader.

The Captain then called Sergeant Joseph A. Eason, detail four men with him, and gave them orders to burn our house and take my life, saying "some one has to pay for this life and it may as well be this one as any other." Bewildered I did as they told me to, setting out to lead the was to my house and instructing them also how to find the Easley Bridge. Walking alone, I gave the mason's sign of distress and found that Sergeant Eason too was a mason as he returned it. Although I did not discover it just then, I found that another Mason in the group had also caught the sign I had given, for he was to befriend me with the next few minutes.

The soldiers set fire to the house and while it was burning, summoned me to follow them. I went with them to a plantation road that led through a patch of woods nearby, offering the information that this road would lead them to Easley Bridge. Almost without my realizing what was taking place, my unknown mason friend had said to the other three, "Lets gallop up boys, I don't care to see this done, and off they had ridden leaving me with Sergeant Eason. Within a few seconds he had fired his pistol into the air, had shaken hands with me, and had said "Goodby and good luck to you," giving me his name and address as Joseph M. Eason, Dayton, Ohio. A name I will never forget.

While Sergeant Eason and his men were going on their way, I returned whistling up the old road to the burning house to join my sisters. I found that my two brothers had been released and were with them already. All night we sat around the smoldering ruins of what had been our home and from which we had saved practically nothing.

The soldiers reported in Greenville that they had burned the Ellison home and had shot Henson Ellison. On the next day a number of my friends came over from there to attend my funeral, only to have me greet them personally on their arrival. A Fraternal pledge had been fulfilled; my life had been spared.

Signed: Archibald Henson Ellison

Obituary: Mr. Francis Marion Ellison, a well known and respected citizen of the St. Paul section, died at his home six miles southeast of the city, on Sunday afternoon the 14th instant, after an illness of only a few days from measles. Mr.
Ellison was 65 years of age. He is survived by his wife and nine children, seven sons and two daughters, all grown and several of them married. Also two brothers, Messrs. Augustus and Matthew Ellison of Anderson County. He leaves four sisters, Mrs. Lula Laboon, Mrs. Lucy Parker of Westminster, Mrs. Jane Mauldin of Oconee and Mrs. Kate Phillips of Mississippi. The funeral and interment were held at Fairview Church, five miles south of the city, on Tuesday, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. T.E. Martin.

Mr. Ellison was a son of Mr. Matthew Ellison who was killed by Yankee raiders in the Spring of 1865 while endeavoring to prevent them from taking the horse which he was plowing. This happened in the vicinity of St. Paul Church. A few days later, another of the same raiding party was routed and one of the party killed and a number of stolen horses re-captured by a small detachment of returned Confederate soldiers who fired into them at the forks of Easley bridge road near the farm owned by Mr. T.A. Latham, six miles east of the city. The late D.H. Russell, Julius McCain Largent, Manse Jolly and few others are said to have composed the party.

Mr. Marion Ellison was a splendid citizen. By hard work he had accumulated a good property. He owned a nice home and several hundred acres of fine farming land. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community and also of many friends in the city and county. THE EASELY PROGRESS

About 1880-81 a wagon train stopped at the farm of William M. Ellis on at what is now Williamston, SC. Nothing is known about the wagon train except that two drivers had been killed before they arrived. The origin of the wagon train is not known, but their destination was Texas.

Matthew Greenlee Ellison was the only son of William M. and Caroline Cox Ellison. He was twelve years old. His parent permitted him to go as a driver on the wagon train with the understanding that he would return within the year. Several things happened and he made several efforts to return home, but he never did make it.

On one occasion he had definite plans to return to South Carolina, When the time came to leave he was in bed with his foot tied to the ceiling. He had stepped on a nail and had developed "blood poisoning." He re coved from this but seems to have been his last effort to return home.

He was first in Jacksboro, Texas but he finally settled in what is now Beckman Co, OK. He built a house and remained there until his death. While in this home he was in two states and five different districts. The state line between TX. and OK. changed and the district line kept changing. His son was living in the house when the writer visited out there.

Matthew married twice and had a large family and he had little contact with his family in South Carolina. His halfbrother, John, did visit him on two different occasions.

Matthew's descendants have a reunion in Elk City, Ok. each year. The writer was able to attend one of these. There were 179 people registered at this reunion. Four of Matthew's children was living at that time and it was a real pleasure to meet them along with the other descendants.
