This data has been compiled from Pitt County N.C. on TUCKER in an effort to find the Tucker ancestry of Mrs. Duggan.

2

What is known

LYDIA TUCKER was born in Pitt County, N.C. 19 Feb. 1795 and married BENJAMIN BELL... In our study we find that Lydia Tucker was a daughter of JOSHUA TUCKER Jr.

Told us by Family

This TUCKER Family came from the Nansmond County area of Virginia to Pitt County, N.C. about 1760... They were supposed to have resided near the Isle of Wight County Va. side of old Nansmond County Va.... It seems that before JOSHUA TUCKER Sr. came from Nansmond area of Virginia, that he may have resided for a time in the Currituck County N.C. area.

In Book A pg. 175...John Hatton in 1761 deeds to JOSHUA TUCKER. We were unable to locate this deed book

8

The Pitt County N.C. estate records of a date up to after 1860 seem to have been burned...Most of the deed books are missing for some years...However the majority of the deed books for the county can be found...However for certain years there is a blank which tends to make the picture incomplete.

KELLY TUCKER a deed sg. 28 October 1782....80a land on Tar River...For Love & Affection to my brother, JOSHUA TUCKER. /Wit. William Dixon & William Baldwin.
10-a

Since Joshua Tucker Sr. was dead by 1779, the Joshua Tucker, brother of Keely Tucker in #10, proves Keely Tucker as a son of Joshua Tucker Sr. and his wife, Sarah Tucker....There is some indication that Sarah wife of Joshua Tucker may have been nee SARAH WRIGHT

11

Conjecture.

Keely Tucker seemed to be the eldest son of Joshua Sr. & Sarah Tucker in #9...Joshua Tucker Jr. seems to have been the youngest son.....Kelly Tucker is found in records spelled as

Kely

Kelly

Keley

Kealy

Keyleigh

Keighley

His old family graveyard can be located...I wonder how his name is spelled on his tombstone?...Keley Tucker was born in Virginia...He was also a soldier in the Revolution.

An examination of the original file in Anderson may show the names of the children as heirs when they signed receipts for shares. I once noted in Anderson in some deeds that I had a reason for examination "The heirs of Bartley Tucker" selling land but this seems to have been circa 1824 or thereabouts.

On the Daniel Tucker will of Wake Co. he had a son Pascal- and named as gr.children, Pascal, ~~Elizabeth~~ Eppes and Spain Tucker. All were born in Amelia & Dinwiddie Co. Va.. his son Daniel is supposed to be my Dan, BUT I doubt it- I can prove he is- and can prove he is not. I have

*****

Have list of all deeds of Amelia on Tucker- also the few records of Dinwiddie on Tucker- plus lots of other Tucker data- and NO Joshua in any thing
*****

I'd say tho- on list above- of Pr.George- Joshua could be from some one of them- however except for some few deed books- little else exists on that county.
