The Stowers Family History

About 1780 or 1785 Lewis Stowers came from Orange County, Virginia to Elbert County, Georgia and settled (in all probability) close to what is called Sandy Landing, close to the Savannah River in what is now Gaines District. Lewis had fought in the Revolutionary War with the Green Coat Regiment. After coming to Georgia, his son Thomas, was born in 1790. Lewis had other children, but little is known of them. Elbert County records mentioned two more sons, one of whom was Lewis, Jr. (The Hart County History does not mention any other children than Thomas). The Elbert County records show that Lewis, Jr. sold his property to his brother, Thomas. This included the ferry on the River, later known as the Kinley's ferry). Lewis, Jr. moved to DeKalb county.

Thomas Stowers (1790-1854) married Jincy Gaines, daughter of Francis Gaines and Judy Lively Gaines. Thomas and Jincy lived near Sandy Landing and both are buried in the Stowers cemetery on a knoll between Sandy Landing and the home place.

The Stowers house burned about 1930. Thomas was known as "Major" Thomas Stowers. Why he was given this title is unknown. It may be possible that he served in the War of 1812, but this is conjecture. He was also known as "Captain" Thomas Stowers to some. Again the reason is unknown. He gave four of his children a total of 1400 acres. Other children may have received land and later sold it, or they may have received money. Each of the following children received 350 acres of land: Francis Gaines Stowers, (whose land was back of Cokesbury Methodist Church); Thomas (whose land was northwest of Cokesbury; Judith (Judy) who married Marion McMullan, received 350 acres on the Savannah River close to her father's place; Permelia ("Mealy") married William Craft and kept the home place. Children who may have received land and later sold it or who may have received cash were the following: John Richard and Lewis (grandson of the first Lewis). Two of Thomas Stowers' sons died as young men unmarried: William, who was killed, and Mark, who died as a youth.

Thomas' son, Francis Gaines, married Mary Elizabeth Gaines, his first cousin. She was the daughter of Levingston P. Gaines and Mattie Johnston Gaines. The marriage took place in December, 1839. She apparently came of a fairly well-to-do family because her dowry included eight negro men slaves and some negro wives and children. She inherited all of her father's property, being the only child to attain womanhood. One child died young. At the time of Mary Elizabeth's marriage, she was living with her grandmother near the forks of the two Coldwater Creeks. Probably at first Francis Gaines and his wife lived on his land given him by his father. This house is still standing (1961). Some of their children were born here. One of their children, Thomas Levingston, died here at the age of ten. About 1850 F. G. Stowers sold this place to Harrison Strange, and the estate was later known as "Ceday Crest". It was while Mr. Strange owned this house that the first piano known in this region was bought and placed here. After selling to Mr. Strange, F. G. Stowers moved to what is now

GAINES FAMILY

Hart County, which was soon to become a county of its own. Here he acquired land that amounted to about 850 acres. He also owned land in Mississippi, not far from Mobile, Alabama, located in Jackson County, Mississippi. F. G. sent his brother John Richard to supervise the farm. John Richard had married Sara Gaines, daughter of Ralph Gaines. Another of F. G.'s brothers, Lewis, married Kathryn Dooly and went to Mississippi- (also Jackson County, Mississippi). John Richard, it is reputed, was not a churchgoer, while his brother Lewis, who lived on an adjoining farm, was a churchgoer. John Richard, it is said, sat on his porch on a Sunday morning and said of his brother Lewis as he went to church, "There goes the old Christian devil on his way to church".

Francis Gaines Stowers and his wife Mary Elizabeth had nine children. They were Thomas Levingston (1841-1851), William, (1842-1862), Sarah, (1845-1878), John Richard, (1848-1872), Mary Ann, (1852-1881), Permèlia Frances, L (1854-1905?), James Benjamin, (1850-1927), Marion Columbus, (1859-1925), and Georgia E., (1862-1865). Thomas Levingston died at the age of ten; William died while a soldier in the Civil War and was buried somewhere in Tennessee and the youngest child, Georgia, died as a baby.

When Francis Gaines (F. G.) moved to Hart County, he built only one mile from the Savannah River an imposing structure, which was considered one of the best built homes in that day. It was adorned with small white columns set on a wide verandah which encircled three sides of the house. In the living room to the left, F. G. Stowers imported curly rosewood to decorate the panels under each of the four windows. This is said to have cost $52 per foot. The house and plantation was named "Stately Oaks" for the beautiful oaks around the house. The house was one of the stops for the stagecoach going from Anderson, S. C. to Athens, Georgia.

F. G. was elected to the state Senate in 1860 and served two terms. During the war he was a river freight agent for the Confederate government. For many years before the war he operated a cotton boat taking cotton to Augusta.

After the close of the war when the Federals were still occupying the South, three young Federal men were placed on guard at the river close to the Stowers homeplace to guard six bales of cotton which had been claimed by the Federal government for taxes. This cotton had been brought to the river by the Keyes family from South Carolina. These people hoped to have the cotton transported by the Stowers boat, but the Federals captured the cotton, claiming it for the Federal government. A mob, led by Mance Jolly, came from South Carolina and shot the Federal boys from the boat into the river. Mance Jolly and his men hid the cotton on an island below the shooting, then brought the boat back to the place of the shooting. Later, F. G. Stowers was accused of killing the Federal boys since he owned the boat; he was arrested and imprisoned for three years. He spent most of this time on the Dry Tortugas Island below Florida. While he was imprisoned, his wife Mary Elizabeth went to Washington and sought his release. Very soon after her arrival at the President's residence, she was able to talk to President Andrew Johnson. President Johnson promised that F. G. Stowers would be released shortly. F. G. was taken to Washington D. C. Here he became sick, and was hospitalized for a while. By the time he arrived at his home in Hart County, he had contracted tuberculosis. Several of his children consequently became ill with the same disease. Sarah died in 1878, Mary Ann in 1881. John Richard died in 1872, possibly of tuberculosis. One of the daughters (Sarah, probably,) was educated at Lucy Cobb Institute in Athens. This was considered a very exclusive school for young ladies. This account is mentioned in the Hart County History.

Brown's Zerby

GAINES FAMILY

James Benjamin Stowers lived until 1927 in Elbert County. He was married Josephine Craft. To them were born two children, William and Sallie.

The youngest son was Marion Columbus (Bud) Stowers, (1859-1925). Bud was married to Georgia Virginia Brown and to them were born five children: Francis Gaines (1886-1956), Livingston Stanley, (1889-), Stevenson Adlai, (1891-), Mary Elizabeth, (1893-), and Georgia Virginia, (1895-). Bud's wife, Georgia, died in 1895. A few years later he married Bessie McCurley and soon after sold the Stowers homeplace where three generations of Stowers' had lived. He lived the remainder of his life in Elbert County. His oldest son, Gaines, moved to Tampa, Florida, while a young man and died there in 1956. Stanley married Mamie Greenway and lives in Elbert County. Adlai married Clara Adams, daughter of Joe T. Adams, on January 18, 1914, and they live in Elbert County. Mary Elizabeth ("Bessie") married Claude R. Gaines. She and her sister, Georgia, married to Hafford Adams, live in Elbert County.

GAINES FAMILY

Interview with Sanford Boswell Gaines at his home near Calowton
Church in Elbert Co., Ga. PREFACE

As to the parentage of Francis Gaines of Albemarle Co., Va. and Elbert Co., Ga., I am doubtful if anyone now living knows. I became interested in the Gaines lineage in the early 1920's and inquired at every opportunity of the older people who might know. One of the first with whom I talked was Cousin Wesley Gaines of the Strother Gaines line; he thought that three Gaines brothers came down from Va. to Elbert Co., Ga., one of whom was Billy (William). One might conjecture that the other two were Francis and Hierome, Jr. Or he could have had reference to the three sons of Francis, who were Taliaferro, Strother, and Levingston, though neither of them was named Billy (William). In an interview with Mrs. Rossie Alexander Craft about forty years ago, she told me that the children of the Taliaferro Gaines line spoke of "Old Uncle Billy" Gaines but she didn't know whether this was from courtesy or blood relationship. She was 92 years of age at that time and her mind was very bright.

In 1951 Sanford Boswell Gaines told me his ancestor
William (Billy) Gaines had a brother named Hiram (Hierome). This ties the William and Hierome Gaines branches together but still we are not definite about Francis.

My knowledge of the Gaines family is based on the information of Louisiana and Georgia families. It is possible that Hierome's name appears in the

11

Interview with Adlai Stowers at his home near Coldwater Church in Elbert County on April 29, 1961: He says that Jim H. Gaines, (father of Pierce, Boswell, Ophelia and Mollie) told him that Old Uncle William, Francis and Hierome were brothers. He says that his Aunt Judy McMullan who was a daughter of Thomas Stowers and Jency Gaines Stowers told him (when he was a boy) that Levingston P. Gaines and Jency were brother and sister (this would make her a sister also of Taliaferro and Strother; he doesn't know if she said others were brothers and sisters).

His father was Marion Columbus Stowers ('Bud'); his grandfather Francis Gaines Stowers (who m. Mary Elizabeth Gaines daughter of Levingston P.); his great grandfather was Maj. Thomas Stowers who m. Jency Gaines (these two being first cousins); his great great grandfather was Lewis Stowers who m. Joyce Shiflett.

(The above information from Jim Gaines as told to Adlai Stowers that Francis, Hierome and William were brothers ties in well with what Cousin Wesley Gaines, descendant of Strother Gaines, told me 40 or more years ago "that three Gaines brothers came down from Virginia." I had always assumed he had reference to Taliaferro, Strother and Levingston; however, in the light of this it was probably William, Francis, and Hierome; Francis being the father of Taliaferro, Strother, and Levingston.)

Inquiring from Adlai as to Hierome's descendants, he doesn't have any knowledge of any in Elbert County. He thinks that Mrs. DeJong of Louisiana claimed descent from Hierome. It is probable that Hierome's sons moved away from Elbert

111

County. It would be interesting to see Mrs. DeJong's material on this line. Miss Riley has considered the possibility that Hierome, William, and Francis were brothers and that Hierome, Sr. who married a Taliaferro might have been their father. She thinks Mr. Trist Wood had this idea.

The Census records of 1790 list Hierome, Francis, and Humphrey Gaines, all as residents of Albemarle Co., Va. We know that Francis and Hierome came to Elbert Co., Ga., as did William Gaines (where he was in the 1790 Census we are not sure), probably around 1792. Humphrey remained in Albemarle Co. and died there. Another Humphrey is said to have been briefly in Elbert Co. They settled not far from each other: Francis on Rock Branch; William near Coldwater Creek and Hierome a little farther down. (Where Humphrey settled I do not know) I have visited each old burial ground and have read the inscriptions on Francis and William's graves; there are no markers on the old Hierome Gaines graves.

Mrs. Virginia Wall, a descendant of William Gaines, wrote Miss Mary Riley in 1946: "I have heard it said that three (Gaines) brothers came from Va. to Ga. I know our family claimed kinship with the Francis Gaines family. Mrs. Adele DeJong told me that her ancestor Hiram Gaines, a man of wealth, came later, and she did not know whether they were brothers or cousins; that Hiram Gaines was buried at Coldwater Church." of Richard Gaines, R. G., and his wife born on the Island Creek, Va. 4 May 1752 and that his

GAINES FAMILY

The names Francis, Taliaferro, Richard, Robert, and Strother are handed down in the Francis Gaines lineage; Hiram, William, Ralph, and Sanford are handed down in the William Gaines line. As to the Hierome Gaines descendants I have largely lost track of them, though some of them went to Monroe Co., Ga. None are there now and it is presumed they moved on westward to Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana. Mrs. Adele DeJong's, of Baton Rouge, La., membership in the D. A. R.'s, I believe, is through Hierome Gaines.

To my knowledge there are no native Gainesses in Elbert or lower Hart counties except those who are descended from Francis and William. Aunts Drucy Gaines and Mollie Brown relate that "Uncle Jones Gaines had told them of an old member of the family (they think his name was Hierome) who went away for many years and on his return wasn't recognized by any of the family. An old negro woman servant recognized him by a scar on his head."

I know of no descendants of Humphrey Gaines, Hierome Gaines or Richard Gaines in Elbert Co., Ga. However, Homer Gaines, former Mayor of Lavonia, Ga., is a descendant of one Richard Gaines who was a Baptist minister in Abbeville Co. ^{S.C.} 1810-1847; died in Chattooga, Ga. 1848 or '49. Records and maps obtained through Miss Mary Riley show that Francis Gaines owned farmland on Buck Island Creek in Albemarle Co., Va.

Pension Records of Richard Gaines, R. S., show he was born on Buck Island Creek, Va. 4 May 1752 and that his father had gone to Ga. about forty years ago (1792). This Richard stayed in Va.

On 15 Feb 1782 William Gaines bought 400 acres of land from Thomas Cawthon on Plumtree Creek, a branch of Buck Island Creek; witnesses: Hierom Gaines, David Nimmo. He is thought to be son of Hierome, Sr.

Mr. Trist Wood of New Orleans did a lot of work on the Gaines line and he finally concluded that Richard Gaines b. 1752, Humphrey Gaines b. ca 1755, William Gaines b. 1757, Francis Gaines b. 1759, and Hierome Gaines b....? were brothers. I believe also that Mrs. Adele DeJong thought that Hierome and Francis were brothers.

Mr. J. McFarland Williams, Jr. Arlington, Va. (quoted by Miss Mary Riley) reached some interesting conclusions: "(I) Sir John Gaines, Brecon, Wales (1559-1606) (II) Thomas Gaines (immigrant) b. 1585-1590; (III) Francis Gaines, King and Queen Co., Va.; (IV) Richard Gaines, Middlesex Co., Va. of Christ Church; (V) Hierome Gaines (Albemarle Co., Va.) probably b. about 1730 or prior and probably died after 1774 m. Margaret Taliaferro; (VI) (a) Richard Gaines b. 1752 (b) Humphrey Gaines b. 1755 (c) William Gaines b. 1757 m. Milly Banks, moved to Ga. (d) Francis Gaines b. 1759 m. Judy Lively, moved to Ga. (e) Hiram (Hierome) Gaines m. Ann Thomson Adams, moved to Ga. (f) Ann Gaines m. David Nimmo." (David "Nemore" is listed in 1790 Census in Albemarle Co.) These names tie in well with our Elbert Co., Ga. family as do the dates. However, I believe that somewhere in the lineage one of the Gaines married a Strother, as the name is carried to this day; possibly (IV) Richard or (III) Francis.

Finally I am indebted to a host of people for the information contained in the following pages. For more than 40 years I have gathered scraps of information here and there but have never until now found the time to assemble them. Among those who have given valuable help are Aunts Mollie Gaines Brown and Drucy Gaines, Adlai Stowers, Frank S. Fortson, Mrs. Jim Clark, Florence M. Gaines, Pierce Gaines, and many others too numerous to mention. Miss Mary Riley probably knows more Gaines data than anyone in this section and to her am I especially indebted.

GAINES FAMILY

FRANCIS GAINES I

I. Francis Gaines b. Albemarle Co., Va. 1752 or 1759; d. Oct. 1825 Elbert Co., Ga.; m. Judy Lively; resided in Albemarle Co., Va.; moved to Elbert Co., Ga. 1792.

(Following compiled by Frank S. Fortson, Elberton, Ga.)

"Francis Gaines b. 1759; d 1825 (wife Judy Lively) was a Rev. War officer. He came to Elbert Co., Ga. from Albemarle Co., Va. in 1792. Was awarded two land grants totaling 1200 acres. These grants were located in Gaines G. M. District, Elbert Co., Ga. His home dwelling was located at the foot of a hill on west side of Rock Branch, east of Mr. S. A. Stowers' present home. Piles of field stones will identify location of dwelling and kitchen. His home and kitchen were built of hewn forest pine logs; a bold spring was located about 50 ft. north of the dwelling. A wagon road running East and West passed on North side of dwelling. His negro quarters were located on a bluff across Rock Branch about six hundred feet from dwelling. His family burying ground is located on same bluff just a short distance south from where negro quarters stood. The land on which negro quarters stood and the family burying ground is located, now belongs to Mr. Frank Alexander. The land on which dwelling and kitchen stood belongs to Mr. S. A. Stowers." (I have visited the old homeplace and burial grounds--TRG)

My grandfather Marion Gaines stated that when his grandfather Taliaferro (son of Francis) Gaines came to Georgia he found the ground overgrown so thickly with peavines that it was difficult to travel. (TRG)

Miss Mary Riley writes under date of Oct. 8, 1965: "The Revolution ended 19 Apr 1783 and Francis Gaines received a grant of 400 acres on North Fork Buck Island Creek, Albemarle Co., Va. on 20 July 1784, so I believe his service was in that county."

Mrs. Addie Warren Matthews (of Amarillo, Texas--now deceased--TRG) became a member of the DAR on basis of records of Francis Gaines I, whose name appears on p. 316 of Land Lottery List of 1825 in Maj. David Dobbs Bn, Capt. Dennis Dist (List of Rev. Soldiers and widows compiled by Helen Prescott). Also his name appears in Georgia Roster of the Revolution p. 352 (Ga. State Dept. of Archives and History). Also certified List of 1827: Francis Gaines, Elbert Co., Ga.

Taliaferro Gaines, son of Francis Gaines, b. 1777 (my records show 25 Dec 1781--TRG). His wife was Sarah Alexander. He owned several hundred acres of land in Gaines G. M. Dist., Elbert Co., Ga. His home dwelling (I have visited the site TRG) was located about 1/4 mile South from Parker Daniel's home. A bold spring branch flows on the South side of this location and the family spring is about one hundred feet from dwelling site, on bank of this branch. The family burying ground is located across the branch from dwelling site (I have also visited the family burial ground TRG). He and his wife were buried there (unmarked

George Gaines, son of Taliaferro Gaines,
 b. 1802; d. 1880; his wife was Polly Craft.
 He owned several hundred acres of land located in Webbsboro, G. M. District in Elbert Co., Ga. located about seven miles from Elberton on present Elberton-Athens highway. His home dwelling was located about one mile west from Doves Creek Baptist Church on South side of Elberton-Athens highway, now standing (remodeled) and owned by the heirs of his granddaughter, Mildred Gaines Fortson.
 The family burying ground on which he, his wife, and other members of his family were buried is located on this place at rear of the present home dwelling of Rev. C. W. Davis. According to deed records it seems he owned lots of bottom lands on the running waters of Doves Creek. He operated a water powered grist mill (typical of our family TRG) on Doves Creek about 500 ft.
 South of bridge across Creek on old public road leading from Ben Stovall place to

GAINES FAMILY

(Following material prepared by Frank S. Fortson, Elberton, Ga.)

Francis Gaines b. 1842; d. 1902; m. Margaret Maley b. 1846; d. 1898; m. 21 Sept 1865 by Rev. Asa Duncan. Francis Gaines was a Confederate Soldier from beginning to end of Civil War. He suffered the hardships for lack of food, clothing, etc. Also the sad problem of burying one of his own brothers on a battlefield during the dark hours of the night. His home plantation contained around 500 acres land located in the northern part of Webbsboro G. M. District, Elbert Co., Ga. about 7 miles northwest from Elberton. The home dwelling was located on east side of public road leading from Grady Cleveland's home to Nickville and about 3/4 mile south from public road leading from Oglesby, Ga. to Goss, Ga. His plantation was bounded on North by lands of Lynch and Norman, East by Ridgeway's, South by running waters of Dove's Creek and on West by Deadwyler's. He had about 3 acres in an apple orchard on south side of his home. Apples were ripening beginning in June, on through October. Those beautiful red June apples were my favorites. But last of all the Shockley apple which was gathered in October and buried under shucks in his corn crib tasted mighty good at Christmas.

His children were the following, viz:

(I think the other marriages were to Walters sisters--TRG) (All above buried in Alta Vista Cemetery, Gainesville) Mrs. Albina Miller of Ft. White, Fla., dau of Anna Gaines Dunagan, Granddaughter of Uncle Jones Gaines wrote me as of Aug 27, 1965:

I. A. 2. c. "Emily Pendleton was the mother of all the children, my father told me that she was the most refined Christian gentle woman that he had ever seen...His second wife (Mrs. Christian, I take it--TRG), I remember seeing; she was very sweet and kind. When she came to grandpa's (Uncle Jones) house she brought with her a little orphaned girl (Gertie Watt, I take it) that she was raising; she was about 10 years old, about the age of Uncle Leone. He (Leon) said he loved her from the start as she was so sweet to help him with the dishes and everything. Anyway they were raised together and got married when they were grown; they had two children named Herman and Kathleen. Aunt Gertie and Kathleen and the cook were killed in the big storm that hit Gainesville a good many years ago... Uncle Leone was mayor of Gainesville at the time of the storm"

I. A. 2. Mrs. Albina Miller writes that Uncle Jones was in the battle of Murfreesborough when he received a letter about the birth of a daughter; that he wrote his wife Emily Pendleton he wanted the baby named "Murfreesborough" so she named her "Anna Murfreesborough"; "while he was away in the war, Grandma rode a horse over the plantation and acted as overseer to the slaves." (Anna was her--Mrs. Miller's mother). "As soon as the war was over, Grandpa took up the farm work while Grandma ran a hotel in Gainesville to help out." (She was probably named for her Aunt Albina Gaines Sewell.)

Aug. 1965: MEMOIRS OF GEORGIA, HART COUNTY (published 1895, p.1070)

F. M. GAINES, farmer, Coldwater, Hart County, Georgia, son of Francis and Diodema (Hailey) Gaines, was born in Elbert County, Georgia, in 1837. His paternal grandparents were R. T. and Sallie (Alexander) Gaines. He (R. T.) was born in Virginia, left his family and came to Georgia when a youth and settled in the woods in Elbert County. He used to tell his family afterward that when he came to the county the country was so densely overgrown with pea-vines that it was difficult to travel. Mr. Gaines' father was born in Elbert County and was raised a farmer. After farming some years he added general merchandising to his farming and accumulated much property. His maternal grandparents were John and Mary (Underwood) Hailey. He (John Hailey) was a farmer, and a son of William Hailey, who died in Elbert County in 1817. Mr. Gaines grew to manhood on the farm, with very meager educational advantages. In 1862 he enlisted in Company I, Captain Eberhart--later Captain James Sanders--Ninth Georgia battalion, afterward the Thirty-seventh Georgia regiment. With his command he was engaged in some of the most important battles of the war--

They said Uncle Jones was a general in the Civil War and that he served with Uncle Lindsey and grandpa (Lindsey). They were in the battles of Atlanta and they saw Atlanta burned. They said Uncle Lindsey was a Major, Grandpa Gaines was a Lt., Uncle Jones a general--that grandpa said Uncle Jones stood out above the rest of the company being so tall (6'4").

Tazewell, Murfreesboro, Chickamauga, Dalton, Resaca (where he was wounded), the siege of Atlanta, Nashville, etc., and remained with the army until the surrender. Mr. Gaines started in life with nothing. He, however, bought a plantation for $3,500, and paid for it in two years. He has continued to prosper, and now owns a splendid tract of land of about 1,100 acres, two fine mills--one in Hart and one in Elbert County; has a guano factory, and owns stock in the Hartwell bank. His very remarkable success gives evidence of great nerve at the beginning, and industry and energy sustained by unusually good judgment in the investment of his profits. Mr. Gaines was married in 1867 to Miss Emily, daughter of Lawrence and Lucy (Teasley) Adams. He (Adams) was a native and well-to-do farmer of Elbert County, where he died. Early in 1868 Mrs. Gaines died, leaving one child, Lawrence. Late in that year he married Miss Drucilla Adams--born in Elbert County in 1844--by whom he had seven children: Frank, Lucy, John, Diodema, Francis J., Drucilla, and Mollie. The mother of these died in 1867; and in 1888 he contracted a third marriage with Miss Kate Little--born in LaGrange, Georgia, in 1862--daughter of Dr. Sydney and Elizabeth (Tatum) Little. Dr. Little was born in Putnam County and located and practiced medicine in Troup County, Georgia many years, and died in LaGrange. By this last marriage Mr. Gaines has had four children born to him: Marion L., Christine, Sydney D., and Seth M. Mr. Gaines is a member of the masonic fraternity.

Interview with Aunt Mollie and Aunt Drucy in 1959 or 1960

Lawrence, Frank, Lucy, John born at old Uncle Isham Gaines place ("Biny" lives there now). Didama, Jane, Drucy and Mollie born at the old Jones Gaines place (John Warren place); moved to the old Gary place (present Aunt Drucy place) when Aunt Mollie was 2 (New Year's day 1882); Grandma died when Aunt Mollie was 7--1886? (year of Charleston earthquake --year West chimney was built--Papa hauled the stone in ax wagon from a creek near Rock Branch) Grandpa married Miss Kate Little about 2 years later. She was teaching at Cross Roads (now Nuberg). They lived at the present Aunt Drucy's place. Marion, Christine, Sydney, Seth born there. Grandpa died in December 1896 at the homeplace age 59. Had a stroke and died in two hours. Miss Kate moved immediately to Hartwell and Edith was born there in February. Grandpa was buried in the Elberton cemetery. Miss Kate moved to Elberton in about 6 months and lived there thereafter.

Interview with Aunts Drucy Gaines and Mollie Gaines Brown at their home 7-1-61.

They said Uncle Jones was a gunsmith in the Civil War and that he served with Uncle Lindsay and grandpa (Marion). They were in the Battle of Atlanta and they saw Atlanta burned. They think Uncle Lindsay was a Major, Grandpa Gaines was a Lt., Uncle Jones a gunsmith--that grandpa said Uncle Jones stood out above the rest of the company being so tall (6'4").

They further state that grandpa Marion lived for a time after the war in the house now owned and inhabited by Albina Gaines Stratton; that Frank, Lucy, and John (papa) were born there; that grandpa bought and operated (by a miller, old man Jim Hinton) a water powered mill on Flockens Creek nearby; that he later bought the present Jesse Harper place from Uncle Jones and moved there; that Didama, Jane, Drucy, and Mollie were born there; that he set up a water powered mill and gin on the Little Coldwater water course on this property (which Papa later bought and where I was born); after selling this property he (grandpa) bought the present Drucy Gaines property, then known as the John Gary place where a mill was always in operation (this mill originally built by Josephus Maxwell during the Civil War and possibly for the Garys). Grandpa added a saw mill, gin and syrup mill. He and Uncle Lawrence built the overshot water wheel. He lived in the present Drucy Gaines house. They think a Stowers built the house, later owned by Gary, later Grandpa, later Uncle Lawrence, next Aunt Drucy).

They say Grandpa Frank gave Aunt Albina a gold watch and black silk dress not to marry Dr. Wash Sewell, but she finally married him anyway. They later moved to Key West, Fla., then to Kissimmee; Dr. Wash Sewell died possibly in Kissimmee; later they think Aunt Albina moved to Miami with John who became a wealthy and influential man in Miami. He was one of Flagler's foremen and bought up property on his advice. Had a shoe store with his brother for years. At one time was mayor of Miami.

1-20-66: Mr. Gaines, I received letter about the Gaines family I am descendent off the Gaines family my mother was Elizabeth Corry Sarah Gaines Corry Daughter she married Andrew Tucker they had 10 children 4 of them are living myself 3 brothers, 1 sister. 113 High Street
Greenwood, S. C.

I. A. 2. h. 11 Somewhere I have gotten the information that Bob Corry or his father was an immigrant from Ireland; that he was a surveyor. Aunt Mollie writes as of Wed. Oct. 27, 1965: "Yes, Aunt Sara was Father's next to youngest sister. She probably died rather young. She was talented in music. We remember Uncle Bob Corry (was pronounced "Curry" in those days). Uncle Bob wore long hair.

I. A. 2. h. 11 We know nothing of his parents. They were good livers, I suppose. His sister married Mr. Aus Chapman, forefather of Har'well Chapman. Uncle Bob inherited slaves; Mrs. Chapman inherited the plantation, I have heard. Of course, when they were freed it left him poor.

I think there was one daughter named Lizzie; we know little about her; Fannie married Hilliard Ward; they had several children; Pierce Gaines' first wife was one. Emma stayed here one summer.... She married Lee Wansley from near Ruckersville. Mrs. Ernest Harper is a descendant of Aus Chapman..... We do not know where they are buried. The son John moved to Texas. Drucy saw them once while in Texas."

Letter from Adlai Stowers 3 Nov 1965
 "Bob (Corry) son of John Corry m. Sarah Gaines dau of Francis and Didama Gaines. Their children were (1) Fannie, who m. Hilliard Ward (2) Elizabeth m. Andrew Tucker and (3) Emma m. Lee Wansley and (4) a son, John, went West. (My belief is that Sara was buried in the Talliferro Gaines burial ground)."

He stated that Peter Rucker, one of his ancestors, married a Gaines and that he was killed in War.
- I. A. 6. Their daughter married Henry Partain, whose daughter married a Thomason, and these were his parents--
- I. A. 6. now probably in his 80's told me recently that Peter Rucker, his ancestor m. Polly Gaines; that
- I. A. 6. he went off to War and never came back (must have been Mexican or Indian); their daughter Elizabeth Rucker m. Henry Partain, whose daughter, Sally Partain m. Tom Thomason, this latter couple being his parents)

- Aunts Drucy and Mollie say the Partains came down from "Old Aunt Polly Gaines" dau of Taliaferro, who m. (Peter) Rucker. This is in agreement with Ira Thomason's beliefs, but in disagreement with Fury Partain. Possibly Peter Rucker m. 1st Polly Gaines, 2nd Polly Haley. (Later 1-2-66: I have just talked with Fury Partain by telephone and found the discrepancy: He was talking about his mother's (Rucker) side, not his father's, about which he knows little, so I believe now we have cleared up the confusion; that Polly Gaines did marry Peter Rucker and that possibly another Peter Rucker m. Polly Haley)(later generation). I now believe that Willis and Polly Gaines are correctly placed as children of Taliaferro Gaines.
- Old notes found in my files--undated--probably in the 1950's. "Polly Gaines m. Peter Rucker"
- "Martha Rucker m. Lindsay Partain" "Martha's sister Elizabeth m. Henry Partain" (brother of Martin?) John Rucker m. Lucy Hailey Martha Rucker who m. Lindsay Partain was the daughter of John Rucker

Doctor Thomas R. Gaines
Anderson, S. C.

Dear Tom:

Your letter for information on the McMullan family received, I know very little about my family this is about all the information that I have as follows; John McMullan born in Ireland in 1740 came to Virginia in 1760 was a soldier in war of 1776 moved to Georgia in 1797 Died in 1817 buried near the Jno G. Richardson homeplace.

After coming to Elbert Co. he married Elizabeth Stowers who was his second wife. They had several children, will only name two, Thomas and Lewis. Thomas had two sons Seaborn and John F by Sallie (Sarah) Gaines. John F married his first cousin who was my grandfathers twin sister to them were born the following Geo Washington, Thomas L, Elizabeth and Martha Jane.

Lewis McMullan was my great grandfather, he also married a Stowers to them were born my grandfather and his twin sister Joicy.

Grandfathers Name Geo Washington (WASH). My grandfather married Agatha Gaines they had four children after her death he married Millie Skelton to them were born five children my mother Nettie McMullan being the youngest.

The Thomas McM that married Sallie Gaines lived with his son John F McM on the farm I owned before Lake Hartwell covered it the old house was about 200 yards from my present home. The McMullans have every one named John, Tom, Lewis, Geo Washington. They all come from the same family. This is a rambling letter and hope there is something that will help. If you really want to see a family tree record come over sometimes to John F. McMullan at the T. L. McM homeplace they have it all. Dr. Eugens Vickery of New Orleans is one of our members.

I. A. 11. d. Born Wesley C. Sincerely yours,

I. A. 12. e. Mac Oglesby

P. S. Am sorry that I am unable to give dates talked to Mr. and Mrs. John F. McMullan today and said tell you to come over anytime for any information or records that would be glad to show and tell all they know about the family history.

Mac

(Miss Mary Riley states that the 1850 Census of Sumter Co., Ala. lists James Barden Gaines 37 b. Ga., Frances (his wife) 27, Ledora 12, Emily 10, Thomas 7, Franklin 5, John 1--His correct age would have been 27 instead of 37. Ledora must have been born when the parents were only 15! From this we would infer that he went first to Sumter Co., Ala., later on to Mississippi.)

After the death of his first wife he came back to Elbert Co., Ga. and married (2) Elizabeth Adams, 1839-1909 (tomb in Coldwater Church Cemetery), only dau of Hiram Gaines Adams and Polly Nelms Adams by whom he had 2 daughters Lizzie and Sallie whom I visited years ago at their home near Coldwater Church. In the Taliaferro Gaines Bible the listings there according to Frank W. Fortson do not mention James Barden Gaines nor Sara Gaines both of whom are mentioned as children of Taliaferro Gaines in Miss Riley's records (p. 5. Robert Taliaferro Gaines). However, Adlai Stowers had told me that James and Sara were children of Taliaferro and I think Miss Mary got this information through me. I note on her records she has stated "some question about these" having reference to James Barden and Sara.
I think I shall hold I. A. 11 and I. A. 12 as unclassified until we find more information.
Later: I now believe that James Barden and Sarah were children of Taliaferro. TRG

GAINES FAMILY

Aunt Mollie Gaines Brown writes 8-31-65 "he was a son of Taliaferro." This has reference to James Barden. So this is where he belongs.

- Aunt Mollie Brown says, also
- I. A. 12. f. Bessie Turner
- I. A. 12. g. Clara Turner

Aunts Drucy Gaines and Mollie Gaines Brown told me that Mrs. Beno McCurley was descended from Sara Gaines Turner and Martin Turner (TRG)

Miss Ruby Daniel writes as of 6 Oct 1965: "Martin Turner married twice, names of some of them (the children TRG) are or were Bessie, Clara, Aggie--Mrs. John Teasley--Levingston, Henry, Lou--m. a Doctor Winter and died in Winterville, Ga.; a dau m. John Craft; Sarah m. John Chapman; their son Gene m. Emma McMullan and probably lives in Anderson"

Letter from Aunt Mollie Gaines Brown dated 12 Aug 1965: "... I know we said 'Uncle Martin Turner'; Guess he must have married our grandfather's sister." This would place her here as a daughter of Taliaferro Gaines. So I believe we have her properly placed.

Later: Aunt Mollie Gaines Brown writes me there were at least 2 daughters Bessie Turner and Clara Turner.

The above furnished me through the kindness of Mrs. Mozelle B. Clark in the form of Verifax and Xerox I. C. copies from War of 1812 Dept in the National Archives, Washington, D. C. From this we gather that Richard Strother Gaines served in the War of 1812. We know already that his son Willis Ausborn Gaines died in the service of the Confederacy; a grandson James Earl Gaines, son of Willis Ausborn, was killed in battle in the service of the Confederacy; another grandson Wm. Beverly Gaines served in the Confederate Army; another grandson Taliaferro Lewis Gaines served in the Confederacy; another son James Bedford Gaines killed in battle while in service of Confederacy; another son John Livingston Gaines killed in battle serving Confederacy; another son Richard Alexander Gaines served in the Confederacy; another son Wm. Family gossip has it that Osborne was disinherited due to a family dispute over a religious matter and died a young man. My grandfather (Taliaferro Lewis Gaines) lived with his grandparents (Strother and Ann) unhappily, it seems, until he married my grandmother, Sarah Jane Brown b. 1847, dau of Mildred Strother Brown and Benj. Brown; and my father Benjamin Boykin Gaines recalled that his parents were cousins twice or three times removed. I have been unable to establish this with any certainty.....The fact that my own grandfather (Taliaferro Lewis Gaines) died in Huntsville, Texas 20 Oct 1920 was certainly not listed correctly in the information available to Dr. Gaines."

from Old Family Bible in possession of Robert Alexander Gaines, Elberton, R. 3)
Letter from Mrs. Ida Gaines Powell, Hartwell, Ga., R. F. D. dated Dec 17, 1965:
"...There was four boys and two girls in my father's (Cousin Wesley's) family.
Robert m. Mealie Craft and they had a boy named Robert and a girl named Lucy.
That seems like the one we always called Davie" This explains our dilemma. We have his listed as David instead of Robert Alexander his real name. So "Davie" must have been a nickname--TRG. Robert A. Gaines, Jr. wrote me that his father, "David" or Robert A., died before he was born. The dates confirm this. If the Cokesbury cemetery dates are correct, then he must have been only 20 years of age when he died, though Robert A., Jr. thought he was born in 1856.
Tombstone at Cokesbury "Melia C. Gaines 1869-1941." He had one brother, James who lived near Seacock, who was a farmer, but is now retired and in bad health. I don't remember who Davie's father was.

Doctor Thomas R. Gaines
Anderson, S. C.

Dear Tom:

Your letter for information on the McMullan family received, I know very little about my family this is about all the information that I have as follows; John McMullan born in Ireland in 1740 came to Virginia in 1760 was a soldier in war of 1776 moved to Georgia in 1797 died in 1817 buried near the Jno G. Richardson homeplace.

GAINES FAMILY

After coming to Elbert Co he married Elizabeth Stowers who was his second wife. They had several children, will only name two, Thomas and Lewis. Thomas had two sons Seaborn and John F by Sallie (Sarah) Gaines. John F married his first cousin who was my grandfathers twin sister to them were born the following Geo Washington, Thomas L, Elizabeth and Martha Jane.

Lewis McMullan was my great grandfather, he also married a Stowers to them were born my grandfather and his twin sister Joicy.

Grandfathers Name Geo Washington (WASH). My grandfather married Agatha Gaines they had four children after her death he married Millie Skelton to them were born five children my mother Nettie McMullan being the youngest.

The Thomas McM that married Sallie Gaines lived with his son John F McM on the farm I owned before Lake Hartwell covered it the old house was about 200 yards from my present home. The McMullans have every one named John, Tom, Lewis, Geo Washington. They all come from the same family. This is a rambling letter and hope there is something that will help. If you really want to see a family tree record come over sometimes to John F. McMullan at the T. L. McM homeplace they have it all. Dr. Eugene Vickery of New Orleans is one of our members.

Sincerely yours,

Mac Oglesby
