OPEN LETTER TO KEEPERS OF THE GENEALOGICAL FLAME

January 1, 2000

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to announce that the Confederate history project has been expanded to include soldiers who served from the Anderson District of South Carolina. This enlargement of the scope of my research enterprise will allow coverage of all the geographic area within the westernmost tip of the state, which presently includes the counties of Anderson, Oconee and Pickens (the Old Pendleton District). This research undertaking has also been given a new title, CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS OF SOUTH CAROLINA'S GOLDEN CORNER: ANDERSON AND PICKENS DISTRICTS, 1861-65.

Eventually, I hope to be able to disseminate preliminary lists of Anderson District's Confederate soldiers—just as the names of troops from Pickens District are currently being published in the OPD Newsletter. If you know of men who served in the Confederate States Army from Anderson District, I hope that you will let me know about them and share with this project whatever biographical information you might have concerning those soldiers.

Thus far, information has been collected about more than 3,000 Confederate soldiers from Pickens District (present-day Oconee and Pickens counties). But searches are still ongoing for additional data pertaining to some of those men. With the addition of soldiers from Anderson District, the total number of subjects in this project might very well ultimately exceed 5,000 men, all of whom served as Confederate soldiers from the Golden Corner of South Carolina.

In order to prepare biographical sketches of soldiers, the following facts are needed about each of them: complete name; birth and death dates; place of burial; names and dates of parents; name(s) and dates of wife/wives; names and dates of all offspring, as well as those of their spouses; date and place of entry into military service; name of the military unit(s) in which service was performed; any promotions and wounds received while in service; date and place of discharge from service; and any additional facts that ought to be included in the soldier's biographical sketch.

I realize, of course, that few readers of this letter are likely to have all of the above-listed needed data about any individual soldier. But whatever relevant information readers might have—and are willing to share—will certainly be welcomed and appreciated.

My sincere gratitude is expressed to the hundreds of members of OPDSCGS and other helpful persons who have already provided useful information. I am sure that many Confederate ancestors would be quite proud of their descendants and relatives who have helped to preserve family history and heritage. We should all bear in mind that love of their homeland guided and sustained most Confederate troops during their desperate defense of the South. My project is designed to honor those brave men who served from our area and to keep their military duty in remembrance. Please help me if you are able. Thank you very much.

Kindest personal regards,

Charles Busha

DEATH OF MANSON JOLLY

The news will be received with regret by the many friends of this bold and daring Confederate soldier. We learn that a private letter has been received, stating that Manson Jolly was drowned on the 8th of July near his home in Texas. He was building a residence on the opposite side of the creek from where he lived, and had crossed over on horseback several times during the day. The stream was greatly swollen, and in attempting to cross for the third or fourth time, he was carried with his horse down the creek, and in the struggle which ensued both were drowned. Mr. Jolly had been married about one year, and leaves a young wife, the daughter of a former citizen of Anderson.

The thrilling exploits and adventures of Manson Jolly in this section of the country, immediately after the war closed, are fresh in the recollection of all. His name was a terror for a long time to the garrison of United States soldiers, especially the volunteer white and colored regiments stationed at this place. When the regular troops arrived, he removed to Texas, where he has since been leading a quiet and peaceful life.

Preston Lewis Adams (1825-1906) enlisted in Co. F, 24th S. C. Infantry Battalion in 1862 and was discharged at Murphysboro, N. C. in 1865. On 14 Sept 1870 he married Sarah Ann Prince.

R. Mc. Cunningham, a member of Co. F, 24th South Carolina Infantry Battalion, C.S.A., was killed in the Battle of Chickamauga, GA.

J. A. McAlister, a private in Co. F, 24th South Carolina Infantry Battalion, died of disease in the spring of 1864.

James Blanchett served in Co. I, 14th S. C. Volunteers; he attended the company's first reunion which was held 2 Sep 1896 at the home of J. B. Moseley in Lowndesville, South Carolina.

Oliver "Duck" Bolt (1847-1922) was a native of Laurens County, S.C. and a son of Asa Bolt (1808-1876) and Hannah A. Bolt. He enlisted in the Confederate States Army at the age of seventeen years in 1864.
