Happy Holidays

The Christmas Dinner meeting, Monday, December 6, 2004, will be at the Anderson County Library, 300 McDuffie St., first floor, at 7:00 PM. Reservations are required. Please telephone Ron Kay (864-225-8540) no later than midnight, November 29, 2004, to make reservations. We must know one week ahead for the Redwood Catering Co. to prepare an abundant menu like we had last year. We will be eating at 7:00, so, come early to socialize and to pay Ron by cash or check at the door. Checks should be made to Anderson County Chapter, SCGS for the $10.00 amount. This includes tax and gratuity.

The menu will be the same as last year: fried Chicken breast, baked Turkey slices, Macaroni and cheese pie, Dressing and gravy, Sweet potato soufflé, rolls and butter, sweet pickles, cranberry sauce, Italian Crème cake, Peach cobbler, coffee, tea, or bottled water. If you want other non-alcoholic beverages, please bring your own bottle.

Nominations for 2005 officers will be presented by the committee at the dinner meeting.

Newsletters Needed

Ron Kay has been gathering back issues of the Anderson Record to send to The Allen County Library, Fort Wayne, Indiana. He has copied most all the issues but a few named below.

1991	Issue 2
1993	Issues 2, 3, 4
1994	Issue 1
1995	Issue 2

Please look around the house and see if you can find any page of the missing issues.

Membership Dues REQUESTED NOW

This is time of year, all chapters of the State Genealogical Society ask for its members to pay their membership dues. Our memberships run from January 1 to December 31. Usually when people ask to join after September, they are paying for the next year. In 2005 year, your dues will increase because of The South Carolina Genealogy Society has raised their dues. Memberships are $15 for individual, $20 for family, and $10.00 for associate. Please fill out sheet enclosed and send dues NOW. Associates should provide the original chapter and membership number. Please, include e-mail address and family surnames on the membership form.

Genealogy Society Minutes - October 4

The Anderson County Chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society met at the South Carolina room of the Anderson County Library on October 4, with 37 members and guests present. Doris McKinley's daughter, Gale McKinley Dillon, and her grandson, Brandon Downs, were introduced.

It was announced that Dr. Carl Ellison has moved back to the area and is living at 1545 Middleton Road, Williamston, SC 29697 (ph. 847-7224)

The treasurer, Ron Kay, reported a balance of $14,458.13. Dues start January 1. Ron moved that dues be increased to $15 for regular members, $20 for a family, and $10 for associates. Ed Hillhouse seconded, and the motion was approved.

The board met last week to discuss programs for the rest of the year. Suggestions were: Rich Otter, on His oral history of Anderson County; The Calhoun Mansion, Joey Preston, on his genealogical research, A speaker from the Edgefield Library, Linda Cushing, on diaries and letters, Beaverdam Baptist Church or Pendleton Methodist, the Writer's Guild, and the County Museum.

Carolyn Duncan reported that Doris McKinley had had surgery.

Linda Cushing reported that pages were missing from reprints of Mrs. Vandiver's book. The problem has been corrected. Anyone missing the two pages were to contact Linda.

The board recommended that the cemetery at Pendleton First Baptist be read on the first Saturday in November, if weather permits.

A nominating committee will be appointed next month.

On November 3, the Fred and Ed session at the County Museum will focus on our genealogy chapter. Members are encouraged to attend.

Chaplain Lamar Gamble presented a devotional.

Librarian Laura Holden then told us about new acquisitions to the South Carolina Room. There were books on linages, wars, Huguenots and many more she presented. Members enjoyed looking through these books after Miss Holden's presentation.

The meeting was adjourned. Respectfully submitted, Jean Martin, Recording Secretary

Genealogy Society Minutes, November 1, 2004

The Anderson County Chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society met at 7:00 p.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints on November 1, with 29 members and guests present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Juanita Garrison. Visitors Wayne and Shirley Galloway and Don Hendrix were introduced. The chapter has seven new members.

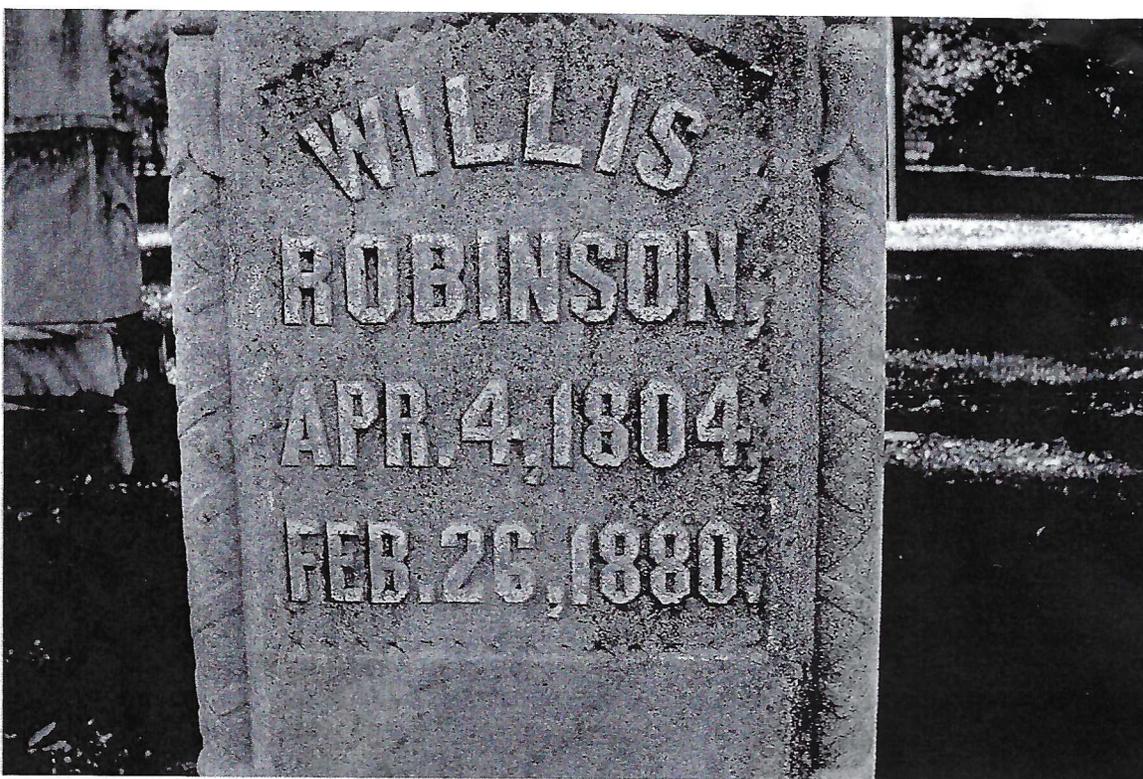

John Allen Morris is putting the recent deaths on a CD. On Saturday, members of the group are to read the cemetery at Pendleton First Baptist church. The group will meet at 12:30 p.m. They are asked to bring pencils, pads, and flour or chalk.

Copies of the McDougald's Funeral Home records are still available and for sale. "Fred and Ed" sessions will be held at the County Museum on the first and third Wednesdays of each month from 1-3 p.m. On November 17, our genealogy group will be featured.

The nominating committee, composed of Ron Kay, chairman, David Beville, Jane Kowalski, Ed Hillhouse, Gene Schneider, Ruth Thompson and Carolyn Duncan, will report at the December meeting. It will be held at the County Library on December 6 at 6:30 p.m. The meal will be catered ($10 each) and we will eat at 7:00 p.m.

Juanita introduced the speaker, Rich Otter, local attorney, who is compiling his second book of oral history about people in Anderson County. His first book, which benefits the County Library, has sold 806 copies. He regaled the group with excerpts from the new volume, including stories about Harry Osteen, Dr. Jimmy Young, Jimmy Stathakis, Lillian Latham, Bobbie Hopkins, Viola Thompson Griffin, Roy Ethridge, Sr., and Bill Epstein.

The meeting was adjourned. Respectfully submitted Jean Martin, Recording Secretary

Saturday, November 6, 2004, ten of the members gathered to read and photograph the First Baptist Church of Pendleton, on 351 S. Broad Street. The weather was perfect for the job at hand. Juanita Garrison brought stakes and string in order to mark off grids. Two members worked together to write down tombstone inscriptions and to take pictures. Many of the older markers were hard to read but shaving cream or chalk were the remedies. We worked steady until about 3:00 PM after meeting there at 12:30 PM. It was a fine group effort. Those who worked were Frances Clark, Carolyn Burton, Eugene Schneider, Linda Cushing, Sue and Fred Brewer, Jean Hoag, Shirley and Wayne Gallaway, and Juanita Garrison.

Continuation of the Magee Family: by Linda Cheek

In Volume 17 Issues 1 & 2, the descendants of Unknown Magree from Pendleton District were noted. This is a continuation of the Fifth Generation of that family. Linda Cheek donated this work for publication. She does not research for people but if there are mistakes she would like to hear from you.
