Message from our President

Greetings and may 2012 bring you a year of peace and joy. Honor given to our parents and ancestors continues with the proper care and respect for their gravesites. I have seen many graves neglected, abandoned, and vandalized. The Sons of Confederate Veterans, Sharpshooters Camp, are cleaning cemeteries, repairing headstones, and placing Southern Crosses on Confederate graves. In the last two years they have worked in 105 cemeteries. You can buy a Cross from the Camp to mark your ancestor. Call Michael Graham, 864 269 000.

Kind and gentle days.

Harley Feltman

2012 Programs

Monday March 5 - Darlene Dowdy will present a program entitled, "Importance of Civil War History to Family Historians". Members of the Civil War Round Tree were present, some in period clothing.

Monday April 2 - Eric Emerson, SC Archives – Speaker. Subject to be Announced

Monday May 7 –Speaker will be Bill Willard, who will be speaking on "Tales From Titanic". Mr. Willard has spent 30 years researching this. He has met with survivors, and their descendants. He has designed an underwater submersible with a camera to aid in this research. He is a math teacher at Seneca. His mother is a member at Old Pendleton District and so I am sure we will have a great attendance. He promises to keep the meeting to an hour.

June 4, 2012 Our chapter will hold a covered dish supper at the Big Creek Baptist Church in Williamston, SC. Rev. Mitch Gambrell will talk to us about the history of the church.

Confederate Soldiers Buried at Roberts Presbyterian Church, Anderson SC

Roberts Presbyterian Church was organized in 1789 and sometimes called Simpson's Meetinghouse. This church is one of Anderson County's oldest Presbyterian churches. The Reverend John Simpson was the first minister and the Reverend David Humphreys served there for 39 years until his death in 1969. Both men are buried in the church cemetery. The present sanctuary was built in 1937, and located on Hwy 187.

My husband and I inventoried our cemetery and have identified the following list of Confederate Soldiers buried at Roberts.....Shirley Holmquist

MEET CARL ELLISON, CHAPLAIN OF THE Anderson County Genealogy Chapter

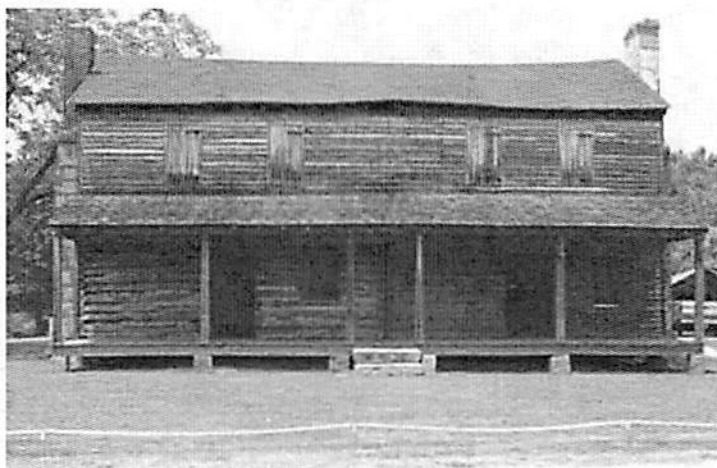

Carl Grayson Ellison, retired Baptist Minister, a genealogy researcher for over 50 years, and author is the backbone of our Research Center. Many years ago when Dr. Ellison was researching his family's roots, he had to do it the old fashioned way- driving to all the courthouses in the state, and typing his hand written notes on a typewriter after he returned home. When he traveled, he carried his children with him and his daughter, Diane Martin, has fond memories of these adventures. At the age of 88, he now spends his time as a Sunday Class Teacher at the Retirement Center where he resides while serving on that Center's Board as a representative for the residents. He has a two bedroom apartment and one of the bedrooms is set up with computers, printers, scanners, cameras, and shelves of genealogy books. He is working constantly on preserving the history of Anderson County along with the surrounding counties as well as the family histories of this area into searchable PDF files.

He gladly shares these searchable files with our Research Room to be used by visitors, chapter researchers, and the chapter members who assist with queries. His preservation of this material will be useful for many years to come.

It is indeed my pleasure to work with Carl and to be able to call him my mentor and my friend.

Carolyn Duncan, Archivist for the Anderson County Genealogy Chapter.

Obediah and Jennie Shirley Home

Bagwell Rd., Honea Path, SC

The home was completed in 1830. The house enclosed and expanded an existing log cabin originally built on the site. The structure features partial log construction, large stone chimneys, a latch string door and period hardware. This house is less than a mile from where I now live. I toured the house not too long ago. But what I remember most about this house is visiting my Great-Grandmother Betty Poore Vaughn when she lived in this house sometime in the late 1950's! Below is my Poore family line.

1. George Poore abt 1725 -? Married unknown
2. William Poor 1751 – 1820 married Mary Molly Gresham 1755 – 1838. He came from Virginia about 1880 and settled in Anderson County.
3. Samuel Sr Poore 1787 – 1842 married Nancy Mary Phillips 1793 - 1879
4. Samuel Jr Poore 1820 – 1896 married Rachel Poor 1820 – 1885
5. Francis Marion Sr Poore 1843 – 1884 married Sarah F "Sally" Lawless /Lollis 1845 –1930
6. Betty Poore 1875 – 1966, married John Wallace Vaughn 1873 – 1938
7. Charlie Alford Vaughn 1892 – 1948, married Louisa "Lula" "Lou" Lollis 1893 – 1966
8. Clara Vaughn 1927 – 2006, married Louie Paul Hart 1921 –
9. Shelby Jean Hart 1946 - married Dennis " Dick" William Lollis 1945 – 1987

In this picture is my Granny Betty Poore Vaughn: my Dad, Louie Hart and me, Shelby Hart Lollis about 1957!

Ten of My Favorite Internet Sites

Shelby Hart Lollis

I love the internet and my computer when it comes to doing genealogy. I do not think I would have stuck with doing research the old way- filling in family forms and trying to keep them together. I would not like going through hundreds of forms trying to find Great Uncle Will! I spend hours searching the internet, digging the dead! Since most of my family is from the Anderson, Abbeville and Greenville area I do not have to go great distances to research. I have found many useful facts from these sites. Still, there is a time when you still have to get in the car and go track down that elusive piece of the puzzle! But, you can still use the internet to "google" a map.

1. Ancestry.com - The data site with the most data. This is a fee-based site but worth the investment if you have plenty of time to do research.
  2. FamilySearch - This site has plenty of free data which makes it very popular.
  3. Rootsweb.com - More free data, and a with free server space, this is a great place for hobbyist genealogists to publish their work.
  4. [Cyndi's List](http://Cyndi's List) - A large site with more than 292140 links and growing! It is still genealogy's largest website supermarket.
  5. [U.S. GenWeb](http://U.S. GenWeb) - A vast network of data and information for research in virtually every county
  6. [Heritage Quest Online](http://Heritage Quest Online) - Census images and indexes, along with images of 25,000 books are at this subscription site primarily available through many local libraries. It is available at the Anderson Library.
  7. Genealogy.com - They may only be number two in genealogical subscriptions, but it's still data, and that's what genealogists want. This fee-based site has important data, most of which is not available at other sites.
  8. Google - An expansive Internet search engine, it is rapidly becoming a favorite of genealogists.
  9. rootsweb.ancestry.com/~scandrsn/ross.html - ANDERSON COUNTY SC BOOK-OF-THE-DEAD TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS by Ross M. Smith. This is usually my first stop!
  10. Findagrave.com - 74 Million grave records- all free!

Did you know: Our new location for meetings is Senior Solutions, located near the Social Security Office in Market Place Cinema Senior Center. We are so lucky to have our meetings in their large meeting room, well lit parking, and the services offered to their members is great! We don't automatically become members, but it is a great value, just listen... They have expanded the Fitness Center, additional SilverSneakers classes have been added, oodles of computer classes, yoga, golf, Tai Chi Chih, Various dancing and art classes, beading, Rummy, Pinochle. OOH, Bingo !!! You have got to attend a club meeting and pick up a Calendar. I just have to mention the Blue Ridge Scenic Railway trip in April. Can't list the whole calendar here due to space but contact them at 864-225-3370 or www.upstateseniors.org for their schedule. I am going to join right away. Carol P.

Visitor to our Research Room: cord@ohlenbusch.com July, 2011

Dear Carolyn,

My wife Elin and I would like to thank you and your team for all the help that we received from you last Tuesday morning. It really is nice to find such an enthusiastic group of genealogical researchers.

We spent the afternoon in Hartwell, GA to continue our search. We visited the court house and the historical center at the Chamber of Commerce but did not have much luck there. We did however notice that the name of Ankerich is common enough to have a road named after them.

I wonder when the first Ankerich arrived in that region. Could it have been the family that I am tracking? The father was Anton Ankiewicz (Ankerwitz, Ankerich), the mother maybe Marie. They had 12 children, of which the first 5 may be Adam, Julia, Antoinette, Costis, John. They came as indentured share croppers from Germany but are of Polish descent.

Of course, I am mainly interested in the daughter Julia since she married a John Ohlenbusch in Anderson SC on 27 Jan 1884. I also like to learn more about her two oldest children Henry, supposedly born in Hartwell, and Anna (Annie) born in Anderson.

I know that John, Julia, and Henry were buried in Chicago IL and I am in touch with some of their descendents there.

All the best, Cord Ohlenbusch

Our Newest Member:

Rosemary Anderson Green, 1677 Hunting Court, Rock Hill SC, 29730. Her sister is a club member, Wilhelmina Edwards Bourne, of Richmond VA. The surnames Rosemary is researching are as follows: Anderson, Scoggins, Edwards, Sassard, Roberson, and Bell.

I am currently trying to contact some of our past members to let them know about our new meeting place at Senior Solutions and to encourage them to come back and join us again! I feel that we are making great strides in our club. We are having such interesting and informative programs at our meetings! Our research room is booming! It seems we are adding more resources and materials weekly! Check it out if you have not been lately.

We also need to be adding to our membership. I feel that we have much to offer our fellow genealogists. Some of you have years of experience and knowledge that could help someone who is just starting on this journey "of digging the dead" we all have become addicted too!

I also need your help. If you know someone who is a past member or possible new member, please give me name and address and I will contact them.

I also would like to make an updated list of Family names each of you are researching. This could be of great use at the research room. Please list as many names as you wish and get them to me as soon as possible.

Subject: Website Research Query

I have been researching the Roper Family of Northwest South Carolina and for several years have been aware that two of the roper girls married McGill's. I have, however, just discovered that P.O. "Dock" McGill wrote a book, entitled "Gathering McGill's and Kinfolk" which may be able to give me additional information about one, or both, of these families. My problem is that I can not locate a copy and it occurred to me that since he lived in your area, if anyone had one, you would.

Since I live in Connecticut, if one is available, I would be glad to purchase, borrow or even make arrangements to have parts of it photocopied. I would sincerely appreciate any help that you could give me.

Thanks

Subject: Website Research Query: Roberta P. Wakefield

Roberta Pearl Wakefield was a nationally prominent genealogist from Anderson County who died in 1957. She lived part of her adult life in Washington, D.C., but she is buried in Anderson County, where she was born and reared and where her family resided. From 1945 through 1957 Miss Wakefield was editor of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly. She was the seventh editor, and the journal now is celebrating its one-hundredth volume. In a special issue commemorating this anniversary, we plan to include a photo essay on all the journal's editors. We have been unsuccessful, however, in locating a photo of Miss Wakefield. We've searched the NGS archives, examined her publications in libraries, and tried to trace her siblings' descendants. I'm writing to see if your society might have a file on her or her family that might include a picture of her. If not, could you possibly refer me to another organization or individual who might have her photograph? I would appreciate any suggestions. Many thanks. ---- Tom Jones [Thomas W. Jones, Ph.D., Co-editor, National Genealogical Society Quarterly]

Subject: Rev. James Hembree and Johnson Day

I am seeking info on the Johnson Day and Rev. James Hembree families. James Hembree resided in the area from 1790 until his death in 1849. Johnson Day, the son of Ballard Day, married in the area in 1805 and left there in about 1833. Do you have any vertical files on these two families or other information? Do you know of a contract researcher who can help me locate county records? Thanks. Tom McDonald 817 732 1347
