THOMAS WALTER THOMAS

In the name of God, amen, I Thomas Walter Thomas of Abbeville District South Carolina being of sound mind and at this time in tolerable health, but calling to mind the uncertainty of life, have determined to make this my last will and testament for the purpose of placing my property more particularly under the controul of my family after my death; I therefore hereby appoint my wife Elizabeth Hamilton Thomas my executrix and my son James Walter Thomas my executor, enjoining upon my son always to act in obedience to the wishes of his mother, to treat the Negroes with especial consideration and to be kind and attentive to his Brothers and Sisters without expecting to exert too much controul over them in his capacity of my executor. I particularly direct that no money belonging to my estate shall be loaned on private bonds, but shall in every instance from whatever source obtained be invested in Bank Stock as the safest investment. If the lands and Negroes cannot be managed to advantage I leave in the hands of my executor and executrix the power to sell and invest the money as above directed. They will also divide the property whenever it appears necessary to them, in any equitable manner they may choose to adopt, as equal portion to each, or they may keep it together as long as they think it can be done to advantage. The above directions relate to that part of my property consisting of lands and Negroes. I further direct that all the bank stock of which I die possessed shall be set apart, and the interest applied exclusively to the education of the children until they are all educated. It may then be divided equally. I give and bequeath to my wife the carriage and horses and my gold watch.

I give and bequeath to my son Robert Walter Thomas my gold sleeve buttons.

I write this myself without advice being convinced that my wishes will be carried into effect notwithstanding informalities.
