In the Matter of the } The State of South Carolina will of Sarah Pace } Abbeville District deceased } In the Common Pleas.

Be it remembered that on the first Monday of March in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty six at Abbeville Court House in the District and State aforesaid comes Thomas Eakin claiming to be Executor, the Appellant before the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of said State, and gives the said Court hue to understand and be informed that Whereas an effort was made to prove the Contents of the will of Mrs Sarah Pace deceased which will was in existence after her death but not produced on account of its loss or destruction the paper purporting to contain the contents of the will of the said Sarah Pace deceased was required by John Davis and wife, one of the Heirs at law of the said Sarah Pace deceased, to be proved in solemn form of Law in the Court of Ordinary of the said District, and Whereas upon the said trial in the said Court of Ordinary, which was held on the fourth day of September A D 1855. several grounds of exception were taken and filed assailing the validity of said paper and its contents as the legal and valid last will and testament of Sarah Pace deceased. And whereas also upon the hearing, William Hill Esq. Judge of the Court of Ordinary for said District pronounced against the said will and decided in the following words viz "On hearing the evidence in this case, I am not satisfied that any bequest has been definitely and positively established; and therefore decree accordingly" and refused therefore to admit the paper purporting to contain the contents of the will of Mrs Sarah Pace deceased to probate in solemn form of Law, from this decree of the Ordinary pronounce g against the validity of the paper purporting to contain the contents of Mrs Pace's will propounded for probate as the last will, in substance of the said Sarah Pace deceased and refusing to admit the same to probate in solemn form the said Thomas Eakin, claiming to be Executor appeals, gave the notice required by law, and file<sup>d</sup> the following grounds of appeal to wit - In the matter of Mrs Sarah Pace's will. Thomas Eakin claiming to be the Executor of the will of Mrs Sarah Pace, which was in existence after her death but has been lost or destroyed proounds the last will and testament of Mrs Sarah Pace as follows. First Thomas Eakin named as Executor, Second Negro Charles and his family. Sinah Ann and Sarah and all their increase were left to Mrs Louisa Braggs absolutely free from the control of her husband and to her sole and separate use. Third Negroes Hector and Ada and Franky and their increase were given to Lucinda Jane Cannon grand-daughter of Mrs Sarah Pace, and a gray Pony and two mules Kit and Sal and Brack, all the property given to Lucinda Cannon was to remain in the possession of Mrs Louisa Braggs until Lucinda come of age or married. Fourth the stock of cattle and hogs were divided equally between Lucinda Cannon and Mrs Braggs and the other Mules besides Kit and Sal were given to Mrs Braggs. Fifth the Land and plantation tools and Household and Kitchens furniture and all other personal property of testatrix was given to Mrs Braggs during her life to her sole and separate use and at her death without leaving children to Lucinda Jane Cannon and if Lucinda should die without leaving any children then the plantation if it ever should go to her with her whole legacy of personal property to go to the children of Richard Pace deceased &c. And the said paper having been refused probate as containing the contents of the will of Mrs Sarah Pace deceased, the said Thomas Eakin claiming to be Executor appeals from said decision upon the ground that the said contents were proved and should have been admitted to probate by the Ordinary. It is therefore suggested to your Honors on the grounds set forth and herewith filed that the aforesaid decree of the Ordinary pronouncing against the validity of the said paper is erroneous and against law, and that the paper proounded as containing the contents of Mrs Pace's will as aforesaid before the Ordinary and by him pronounced against is in law and fact the true last will and Testament of Sarah Pace deceased and ought to be declared to be her last will and testament and probated as such.

McGowan & Perris
For T. Eakin, Claiming to be Executor.

And the said John Davis and wife and others, the Cavaliers and rest of kin of Sarah Pace deceased by their Attorney-Wilson, Lomax & Hadden come and affirm that the aforesaid decree of the Ordinary pronouncing against the validity of the said paper is correct and according to law, and that the paper proclaimed as containing the contents of Mrs Sarah Pace's will as aforesaid before the Ordinary and by him pronounced a will is not in law and in fact the true last will and testament of Sarah Pace deceased, and ought not to be declared to be her last will and testament and admitted to probate as such and this the Cavaliers pray may be enquired of by the County Wilson, Lomax & Hadden

And the plaintiff Thomas Eakin doth the like McGowan & Period.

We find that Sarah Pace died leaving in full force and effect her last will and testament which was duly executed and published and was in existence after her death of which we find that Thomas Eakin was Executor we find that said will has been lost or destroyed since the death of the Testator. We find also that the following were the contents of said will namely First that the negroes Charles and his family Sinaik Stan and all their increase including another child then living name unknown were left to Louisa Braggs absolutely free from the control of her husband and to her sole and separate use Secondly that the negroes Hector Adaline and Frankie together with their increase were given to Lucinda Jane Cannon a grand-daughter of the Testator and also a Gray Pony, two mules Kit and Sal and the Barouk and further that all the property given to Lucinda Jane Cannon was to remain in the possession of Mr.
Braggs until Lucinda came of age or married. Third we find that the stock of cattle and hogs were to be divided equally between Lucinda Jane Cannon and Mrs. K. Braggs. Fourth we find that the land was given to Mrs Louisa Braggs during her life to her sole and separate use.

- 1st I desire all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid as soon as practicable after my death.
- 2nd I will and bequeath to my wife, Ursula Davis, the whole of my estate, both real & personal, during her life time or widowhood.
- 3rd At the death or marriage of my said wife, Ursula, I desire all my property both real and personal to be sold by my Executor, on such terms as they may deem advisable; and the proceeds to be divided equally between my sons and daughters then living, and my grand-daughter, Lucinda Tucker, each accounting, by bringing into hotch pot the advancements made by me to them in my life time, so that each child may be equal, estimating the advancements already made or to be made. If any of my sons or daughters be dead, leaving a child or children living, such child or children to receive the share that the parent if living would have been entitled to.
- 4th The share of my grand daughter, Lucinda Tucker, (after accounting for an advancement of six hundred and twenty-seven (627) dollars,) I bequeath to Edward Davis, John Davis and Winston H. fourthly above willed to Lucinda Tucker.

6th My daughter Mandeline, now the wife of Elias Ray, was formerly the wife of one Theodore Baker, by whom she had two children, to wit, John T. Baker, and Theodore Baker, minors, now living. The share of the said Mandeline Ray, (she accounting for all advancements made to her) I will debts, contracts or control of her present or any future husshare be divided into two equal parts, one of which parts I will to her two above named children by her first husband, if living, share and share alike, & in case of the death of both or either of them before the period of distribution, I will their half to their children per stirpes then living; and in case of the death of one of them before the period of distribution, without leaving issue living, I will the whole half to the other, or if dead, to any children he may have left then living; or if both shall have died before the period of distribution, without leaving issue living, the said half is to revert to my estate and go to my sons and daughters then living share and share the share of the parent. But if she should die without leaving issue then living by the said Elias Ray himself, or if then dead, to his heirs at law.

7. The advancements to each of my children which are to be brought into hotchpot and accounted for, will

(The Last Will of Edward Tilman dec'd)

The State of South Carolina }

Abbeville District } In the name of God Amen! -

I Edward Tilman, farmer, being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding, but weak in body, do make and ordain this my last will and testament; herself revoking all other wills by me made. -

Item 1<sup>d</sup> I desire all my just debts to be paid, and after the payment of my debts I wish my property to be disposed of as follows. -

Second. I will and devise unto my dearly beloved wife Katty for and during her natural life the tract of land on which I reside containing about nine hundred acres; and after her decease it is my will that the same be sold by my executors and the money arising from the sale thereof to be equally divided between my three daughters Ivy wife of Mr. A. Wardlaw, Katty C. Tilman, and Sarah J. Tilman share and share alike, the same to the sole and separate use of each, and subject to the same limitations as hereinafter provided in regard to the negroes given to them. -

Third. I give and bequeath also, to my wife Katty to her and her heirs forever, the following negroes and other property, David and his wife Letty, Charles and his wife Amabel Thom and his wife Polly, Squire, Henry, Fanny, Molley, Amelia, Eliza, Martha and Frances, together with all my household and kitchen furniture, Horses, Cattle and Stock of every kind and plantation tools, all of which she may dispose of as she pleases. - This provision is in lieu and bar of dower.

Fourth. To my daughter Ivy Wardlaw I have previously given the following named negroes - which gift is hereby confermed and approved - viz Amy, Mariah and William, and by Aaron. -

Fifth. To my son Horatio Tilman I have previously given negroes Sam, Wash, Beatie and her four children Scott, Butter, Lyman and Otto. - A half section of land in the state of Mississippi, two mules a wagon and outfit, expenses paid to Mississippi, this with his college expenses, his expenses to Mexico and other small advances made are, I think his equal share of my estate; nevertheless as I own a quarter section of land in Chickasaw County Mississippi I now devise and bequeath the same to (my)

Sixth. my son Hiraud his heirs and assigns forever. -

I give and bequeath to my daughter Kitty C. the following negroes Clarissa and her children Rachel Julia Ward and Lewis, Leah and Esaw together with all their future issue and Clark and et al. -

Seventh. I give and bequeath to my daughter Sally S. the following negroes Vinny and her children Ella Maria and Piggy, woman Sarah, by Isaac, girl Ann and boy Abraham, together with the future increase of the females. The division to take place when ever a majority of the legatees think best. I appoint my dearly beloved wife Kitty testamentary Guardian of my daughter Sally S. -

Eighth. It is my will and desire that all the rest and residue of my estate, not hereinbefore disposed of, be sold by my Executors, and the proceeds of said sale be equally divided between my three daughters aforesaid share and share alike. The same to the sole and separate use of each, and subject to the same limitations as is hereinafter provided in reference to the negroes given to them. -

Ninth. Each of my children aforesaid except Sally S. had under the will of their uncle Hiraud Filmore a small interest which some years ago came into my hands and has been used in common with my property. They are also entitled to a distributive share of the negro Squine, who belonged to my deceased son Edward. - These interests including the services of girl Caroline belonging to my daughter Kitty have been considered in making this will, and the provision herein made for each of my children is in payment of said claims as well as on account of the love and affection I bear them. The acceptance of the bequests and devises of this will is to bar forever the said claims of my children against my estate. -

Tenth. It is my earnest desire to secure to my unmarried daughters Kitty C. and Sally S. the property and money given to them by this will, free from the control and not subject to the misfortunes of their future husbands. - I therefore declare that the property, including the money which shall be due from the sale of property (to be reinvested) which is given to them respectively by this will, is given to each of them for life only, to their sole separate and exclusive use respectively not subject in any way to the debts, contracts or engagements of their future husband, - and upon the death of either of them, the share of the one so dying to be equally divided between the children which she may leave living at the time of her death discharged of all trust - including the children of any pre-deceased child, the children representing the parent and taking among them the share which the parent, if living, would have taken.

But if either of my said last named daughters should die without leaving child or grand-child living at her death, then the property and its income which such child received under this my will to go to such person or persons as she may bequeath the same to by her will regularly executed, notwithstanding her consort if she be a married woman at the time of her death. -

Should either of my said daughters think of matrimony I desire that this provision of my will be communicated to the intended husband, and if he makes objection to it, I would advise my dear daughter to reject him, as I solemnly believe no honorable man, actuated by proper motives would object to a certain provision for his wife and children, which would place them in some measure beyond the reach of the casualties of life. -

Eleventh. I hereby appoint my beloved wife Kitty Tilman - my son Hiram Tilman, my son in law W A Wardlaw and my daughter Kitty C. Tilman Executors and Executrix of this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty-fifth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty five. -

Last Will and Testament of John B. Bull, dec'd

In the name of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Friend of sinners: in the name of God the Father Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

I, John B. Bull, of the State of South Carolina, and District of Abbeville; considering the shortness and extreme uncertainty of this present mortal life, and the certainty of Death; do hereby make this my last will and testament, being the first and only one which I have made, bearing date this 8th day April, A.D. 1843.

And now I do by this my writing, chearfully will, that after my decease, my physicians account shall be paid by my executors herein after named. Also my funeral expenses. —

Item 1st. I do hereby chearfully give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved and honored wife, Mrs Sarah Bull, in consideration of her untiring, gentle Christian, dutiful attention to me, her unworthy husband, the following property. Viz. All the lands which I at present own, lying on the South and West sides of Little River Which are comprised in the following four sepearate plats. —

The land on which my dear, respected and lamented Mother resided. Said Land was purchased from Mr James McCarter, by my dear and greatly lamented Brother Gen<sup>e</sup>- William A. Bull. And by him, was after our dear Mothers decease, kindly given to me, on the 21st of February 1833, on which day he settled with me. This tract formerly belonged to the heirs of Mr William Clark Sen<sup>r</sup>. and contained by the old survey 275 acres. But by a later survey it has been found to contain 320 acres.
This plat was made by Peter B. Rogers Esq. — Adjoining to this tract on the south and west side, lies the small square tract of land which I purchased from John Scott Esq. containing 100. acres more or less. — Immediately between these two tracts lies a very small piece of land containing 1 $\frac{1}{4}$  acre of ground only. Which I purchased this present year, (1842.) from Mrs Eleanor Scott. It was surveyed, measured, and the plat made by Mr <sup>the</sup> Kinney D. S. — On the East side lies the fourth piece, a small tract of land which I purchased from Mr.

William Clark just which belonged to the heirs of Mr. Alexander Clark. I have not had convenient opportunity to have this tract re-surveyed. It was said to contain 150 acres more or less. A very small portion of it lying on the North and East side of Little River, being inconveniently situated. I have disposed of to —

Item 2<sup>o</sup> To my dear and respected wife, I also hereby give, my good and aged servant Doritha (Doll) and all her children, and grand children, all her descendants who are in my possession on either plantation, and on both plantations. Including the husbands of her daughters — Pompey the husband of Nelly. I make this kind and earnest request, that during the term of her natural life, Doll be treated with all that humanity, moderation and kindness which her advanced age and her faithful services call for. — Also to my dear wife I hereby cheerfully give all the servants on my farm at Little River their names as follows. Venus. Sam: Andrew with his wife Henry and their children Hinaw and Sarah. Cumbo. Stella, Statia. Grace. Prince. Sylva, Jacob, and his wife Peggy. Jim and Scipio are Doll's children and included in her family.

Item 3<sup>o</sup> To my dear and respected wife I also hereby cheerfully give all the stock on my farm at Little River, horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. Also all the buildings and conveniences. All the plantation tools. All the household furniture, which I own on both plantations. — And as a most particular mark of my affectionate respect and love, I hereby give to my dear wife, the large Edition of Scott's Commentary of the Holy Bible; which were given to me by my dear Mother at her death. Also all my religious books. — I hereby kindly and earnestly request of my dear wife, that whatever articles of jewelry, whether of gold or silver, which may be found in our house at the time of my decease, may be faithfully collected, and committed to the care of some trusty, pious agent. And that said Agent by and with the advice and consent of my dear wife, do without delay sell all such articles, and give the proceeds to the American Tract Society through their Treasurer. — The nature of this writing is such, that I wish it distinctly understood, and settled firmly, and known in Law, that the property which I have given to my dear wife, I do, hereby, so secure unto her, that no or persons whatever, under any circumstances whatever, shall be able to deprive her of any part of it.

during the period of her natural life. And at her death that it shall be her privilege to dispose of it as she may in her judgement and conscience think best.

of the Estate of my respected and greatly lamented Brother, Genl. William A. Bull<sup>and</sup> I do hereby will and earnestly request, that my executors herein after named, shall after my decease, make the following disposal viz: - Should my decease occur before the close of this present year (1843.) I request that the plantation with its necessary concerns, the field Labours, horses, mules, oxen and plantation tools may quietly remain together under the charge of my overseer, until the close of the year. That my family be permitted to reside where they are until the end of the year. That all the business may be permitted to proceed as usual during the year. That the remainder of the crop of cotton of the year 1842. may be made ready and sent through the agency of Mr. Gollothon Walker of Hamburg, to the care of Mess<sup>s</sup>. Mathews & Bonneau of Charles tow<sup>n</sup> So. Ca. and requested to be sold by them as soon as shall be convenient. That they may forthwith, be honestly paid in full for any and for all advances of money, which they may have been so kind as to make for me. That Mr. Gollothon Walker be authorized to draw on them likewise, for as much money as shall be sufficient, honestly and fairly, to pay every debt which I may justly owe in Hamburg and Augusta Ga - Whatever money may remain after paying these, I request may be devoted to paying my other debts in the County so far as it will extend. My note given to Alex<sup>r</sup>. Houston Esq. I request may be paid among the very first, with all the interest due. That every other reasonable and just demand may be fully and honestly satisfied. That my overseer's wages may be paid. And all just accounts properly attested may be paid.

Should the crop of 1842. fail to pay every thing, as it probably will. I hereby request the crop of 1843. ("If the Lord will") may be strictly devoted towards paying the remaining debts. To Oglethorpe University, by subscription I surely owe $300. I request that it may be fully paid as soon as possible. - That money may be furnished sufficient to pay the reasonable and necessary expences of James Morrow Jun<sup>r</sup> while finishing his Collegiate course. - That $340 (Three hundred and forty dollars,) may be handed to my dear wife. Money belonging to the Estate of Mr. David Morrow

Dec<sup>a</sup>. which I have held, and have endeavoured to improve.
The interest has been paid up to April 13rd 1843.

So soon as every just debt can be honestly paid, I hereby request that my executors, proceed without delay, to making correct, lawful and prudent arrangements for selling the whole Estate. That as much as can possibly be sold for cash, be thus disposed of. That the remainder be advertised in due and correct time, and the whole of it sold, on limited credit. My executors are hereby requested to require safe Bonds and good notes with approved securities. To use every prudent and lawful means to obtain as near the just value of the estate, as may in the nature of the case be practicable. If possible in attending to this business to avoid all litigation. Should any difficulty of any kind occur, that it be referred to the prudent judgement of three or five honest and disinterested citizens, who shall if necessary obtain legal counsel and decide to the best of their mature judgement. Should any doubt arise respecting the meaning and intention of this my last will, in any part or sentence thereof I hereby desire that the difficulty may thus be settled according to the plain import of the words used. —

As soon as the money can be collected, I do hereby request that the sum of £5,000. (Five thousand dollars) may be placed at Interest in the Bank of Charleston. Which sum, when thus placed, I do hereby, cheerfully give to James Morrow Junr. And do hereby so settle it, that no person or persons whatever under any circumstances or pretext whatever can deprive him of it during his natural life. That James Morrow Junr. himself shall not be allowed to touch or use or squander one cent of the principal. But only to draw and make use of the lawful interest annually as may seem to him best. So soon as the remainder can be collected, or as much as possible, I do hereby cheerfully request that my executors, immediately proceed to divide the money into four equal parts, and I hereby cheerfully bequeath one part to the American Bible Society, the second to the American Tract Society, the third part, to the Presbyterian Board of Publication, belonging to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. O. S. And the fourth part I hereby cheerfully give to the Theological Seminary, which is at present located at Columbia. So. Ca: and which is at present under the care of the Synod of South Carolina & Georgia. The said four equal sums of money, I hereby request may be given by my executors for the use and benefit of said above named Benevolent and Christian Institutions, through their respective Treasurers. And if, as is probably the case, through ignorance, I have failed to use such words as are customary in Law, I hereby plainly and positively desire, that may not prevent, the fulfillment and accomplishment of my wishes in the plain and obvious meaning and intent the words used. But that my executors take such prudent, timely, & peaceful measures as may be effectual to secure the lawful and entire accomplishment of every part of this instrument of writing in its plainest sense, however defective, in phraseology. — And that there may be no litigation or contention concerning my affairs after my decease, or even dissatisfaction in any way. — That my executors may be disposed, graciously directed and assisted by Spirit and Grace of God so as to deal justly, and properly and honestly dispose of my estate is my sincere and earnest desire. And that it may please the Lord in His great Mercy to sanctify and bless this poor offering in His Name given, so that some needy person may be assisted and some poor soul may be brought to Repentance and Faith in the Name of Jesus Christ Our Saviour, is the humble prayer of his unworthy servant. —

And now into the hands of my Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, I humbly commit my Spirit in Faith. Unto God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the only wise, living and true God, I humbly resign my Soul, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

I do hereby choose and appoint William P. Hobble, Paul Rogers, and Edmund C. Martin to be the Lawful Executors of this my last will and testament. Who are hereby solemnly requested faithfully to discharge their trust. — Again I repeat my injunction to avoid all Litigation. —

I do hereby declare & acknowledge this to be my last will and testament, in testimony whereof I do now solemnly affix my name in the presence of these three witnesses
