(Last Will & Testament of Mrs. Elizabeth Irwin dec'd)

The State of South Carolina
Abbeville District

In the name of God. Amen!

I, Elizabeth Irwin of the aforesaid State and District being advanced in years, and infirm in body—although in the possession of my mental faculties, and taking into consideration that I have not long to live, do now declare the following to be my last will and testament respecting my worldly affairs.

First I desire and direct that all my just debts, and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as practicable, and that a plain marble slab be erected to mark the spot where my remains may be buried.

Second To my faithful and affectionate negro servant Kizzy, I bequeath the sum of One hundred dollars. I allow this money to remain in the hands of my executor, hereinafter named, and to be given by him to the said Kizzy, in such parcels as he may think judicious and proper. And should she die before the whole is exhausted—then and that case the balance to be paid in equal portions to her children, or expended in such a manner as he, my executor, may think most for their benefit.

Third. I bequeath to Samuel Irwin, and Robert Irwin, children of James Irwin, the sum of One hundred dollars—that is Fifty dollars to each one. And to James, John, and Willie Irwin, other children of the said James Irwin, I leave and bequeath the sum of twenty dollars to each, making to the three the sum of Sixty dollars.

Fourth I bequeath to Ellen Taylor, the wife of William Taylor of Anderson District the sum of One hundred dollars. This money is to be for the sole and separate use of the said Ellen, notwithstanding her coverture and my executor may apply it for her benefit, as he may think most proper.

Fifth To my sister-in-law Jane, the widow of my deceased brother John Donald, I leave and bequeath the sum of Fifty dollars, as a small token or memento of her kindness and attention to me.

- Sixth I bequeath to my niece Anna H. Hill, and to her children the sum of Two hundred and fifty dollars - this sum is to be equally divided amongst them all (mother and children) each to receive a proportionate part.
- Seventh The wearing apparel which I may have at the time of my death I also give to my negro servant Kizzy, and as I feel great concern for the welfare of her and her children, I enjoin it on my executor to sell them to no person to whom they are unwilling to go. He (my executor) may sell them privately, and no person (or persons) has any right to complain of his conduct in this respect; as I am satisfied he will do what is right and humane in the matter. My chief object is to endeavor to secure for Kizzy and her children, a good home and a kind and humane master.
- Eighth The residue of my estate, after deducting the aforesaid legacies and all other expenses, and my debts &c, I direct to be equally divided and distributed as follows - that is to say - to my sister Anna Taggart now living in the state of Ohio, and to her daughter Betsy, wife of James Irvin, now living in the state of Illinois, and to her son William Hawthorn now living in Ohio, and to her son Thomas Hawthorn now living in the said State of Ohio, each to receive an equal share; and should any of the children of my said sister Anna (whose names are written immediately above) be dead - but leaving children, I direct that the sum to which the parent would have been entitled shall be equally divided amongst the surviving children of such deceased parent.
- Ninth I nominate and appoint my friend Doctor J. J. Wardlaw of Abbeville C.H. the executor of this my last Will and Testament - believing that he will be kind enough to take upon himself the trouble of its execution.

Witness my hand & seal this 30th November 1858.

all articles of great or small value which I may have at any time given heretofore to my son James T Smith are considered by me as nothing more than the just rewards of his uniform and unfailling kindness and attention to me and are not to be regarded in any manner soever as advancement but as free will gifts.

Item It is my will and desire that all the residue of my property
