 my will is that my estate shall be appraised by three disinterested men, and I give and bequeath to her an equal share with a child, and this share to be given in property

The remainder of my estate (after the share of my wife in case of her again marrying is struck off) I desire and direct shall be kept together and managed for the general benefit of my children, and as they respectively come of age, or marry, I direct that each one shall receive his or her respective share at valuation, and in property - so as a sale will not necessarily have to be made to ascertain such share.
