Last will and Testament of J. H. Ashley ^{and}

In the name of God Amen!

I John H. Ashley of the County of Abbeville State of South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind & memory, but feeble in body, do make publish and declare the following to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking any former will heretofore by me made.

(1) I direct my Executrix hereinafter named to pay all of my just and legal debts as soon after my decease as practicable.

(2) I will and bequeath all of my estate both real and personal, to my beloved wife, for and during her natural life or widowhood, to be kept as a home for her and her children.

(3) Should my wife remarry then in that event it is my will that she shall have a Child, portion of my estate.

(4) Upon the death of my wife, I will and direct that my estate be sold and the proceeds equally divided among my children share and share alike, the Child or Children of a deceased Child to take among them the share which the parent would be entitled if living — Provided the death of my wife does not occur before my youngest Child becomes of the age of twelve years. — If such should be the case, then it is my will, and I so direct, that there be no sale or division of my estate until my said youngest Child attains the age of twelve years.

(5) Should there be any articles of personal property not needed by my wife in conducting the farm or that could be dispensed with without inconvenience to her, authority is hereby given to my Executrix to sell the same and the proceeds used in the maintenance and support of herself and children or for the payment of any indebtedness of my estate.

(6) I have a policy of insurance on my life which was taken out for the benefit of my wife Evelyn V. Ashby and of course the amount received on it will be subject entirely to her control, but feeling assured that her maternal instincts and her love and affection for our children will prompt her to use it, not alone for her own benefit but as well for that of our children. I would suggest that she give, by way of advancement to each of our children as they arrive at the age of twenty one years or more, as much as two hundred or two hundred and fifty dollars, taking their receipts respectively, for the amount so advanced.

I nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife Evelyn V. Ashby sole executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto sign my name and affix my seal this 10th day of May 1906.

Signed, sealed, published and declared, by the testator in our presence as and for his last will and testament and we in his presence and in the presence of each other, and at his request, have signed our names as witnesses to the same.

I John A Harris, of Abbeville, in the County and State aforesaid, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and Testament First, I direct my executors hereinafter named, as soon after my death as possible to pay all just debts out of moneys left by me at my death, and if there be not sufficient money therefor, I direct them to sell such stocks and bonds as they think best for the purpose of raising money to pay such debts,

Second, I will, devise and bequest to my beloved wife Anne Douglas Harris my house and lot in the City of Abbeville, where I now reside, for the term of her natural life, to be kept by her during such period as a home for herself and ^{my} minor and unmarried children, At her death I hereby direct my Executors to sell and dispose of the said house and lot at public or private sale as to them seems best and to divide the proceeds of sale between my children then living, the child or children of a predeceased child to take also under such division the share his, her or their parent would have taken if living

Third - All the rest and residue of my estate, real personal and mixed, I direct my Executors to keep and hold for the benefit of my wife and children, the said Executors to collect the rents, profits income and revenue from the same as it comes due, and to divide the same equally each year, between my wife and my children, the wife taking a child's share, and the child or children of a deceased child, or a child who dies prior to the date of final division to take a parent's share thereof, and so to collect the rents profits, and receive and so to divide the same until my youngest child becomes of age, when all of my property devised by this clause, shall be sold by my executors or otherwise disposed of and the proceeds divided equally between my wife and children, the child or children of any deceased child to take the parent's share - it being my intention hereby to give to my wife a share equal to the share given to each child. Provided that prior to the final division hereunder, my executors may pay to any of my children who have reached their majority one half as much as such child would take in the final division of my estate, charging such child in the final division and in the division of rents etc, with the amount so advanced.

Fourth, I hereby appoint my wife Annie Crocker Harris and my friend Jesse Ellis executors and executor of this my last will and testament, giving to them full power to do all and every act necessary to carry this will into effect, including the execution of all proper conveyances, and giving them further full power, when to the interest of my estate, to change any and all investments in securities, stocks, bonds or other personal property.

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal, this January 27th AD 1907
