Being of Sound and disposing mind and memory and understanding, being mindful of the uncertainties of life and the certainty of death, I hereby make and declare this as my last will and testament:

Whereas under the will of my mother, Nannah P. Haddon, she gave me certain property described in said will, and provided therein that if I should die leaving no lawful issue, that then said property should go to my father, R. M. Haddon, in case he survived me, and whereas since that time I have married W. E.
Hill, and desire to provide for him in case I should die leaving no children and whereas my father, R. M. Haddon, has expressed his willingness for me to make provision for my said husband, now therefore, I will and bequeath to my beloved husband as follows:

At my death I will and direct that all the debt owing by the firm of R. M. Haddon and Company (which said firm is composed of R. M. Haddon and myself) be first paid by the firm, each partner paying one-half thereof.

And after the payment of the said debt of said firm that may be owing at my death, then I will and bequeath to my beloved husband, W. E. Hill, my entire interest in said mercantile business, to be his absolute property;

Also a mortgage which I had in my own name and right on W. J. McDougal, for about four hundred dollars.

I nominate and appoint my husband, W. E. Hill to be the sole executor of this my will.

I do witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th day of June 1908,

Isabel Haddon Hill

I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise, bequeath, and dispose thereof in the manner following, to wit

I My will is that all my just debts shall, by my executors hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient.

II That there be no division of my real estate until my youngest son, George shall come of age (21 yrs). until George shall come of age, all my real estate shall be in the control my wife Elizabeth Foster and my son Lucius C Foster;

III I will and bequeath all my real estate, being 347 acres more or less, as follows: To my grand sons Leatham and Eugene Jackson their mother's share of land between them, and the remainder 329 acres more or less to be equally divided among my wife Elizabeth Foster and each of my children now living - Mary Harris, William Foster, R E Foster, Edward Foster, Olivia Crawford, Lucius Foster, Thomas Foster, Maria Foster, Patsy Foster, Norman Foster and George Foster to them and their heirs and assigns forever,

IV I will that there be no sale of land without the consent of my wife Elizabeth and all my children living.

V I will that my wife Elizabeth Foster shall have her portion of land containing my house house and that my son Norman and George Foster shall have their portions adjacent to my wife's portion and that my other children and two grand sons herein named shall have their lots or portions cut off so as to be advantageous and convenient to each - each getting some woodland, stream and as soon as possible

VI I will that my son Norman Foster shall take care of my wife Elizabeth Foster, his mother, during her natural life and at her death her portion of land shall go to him, providing he takes care of his mother, or to whomsoever takes care of her,

VII I will that until my son George Foster shall come of age, all rent or money coming from ^{any} lands about the living expenses of my wife Elizabeth Foster and the children who may live with her, shall be paid to my estate; and all money that I shall leave at my death shall be divided, at the time herein named as follows: To my three sons, Lucius, Thomas, and P. E. Foster, (3) one third of an equal share as they received an education at my expense and to each of my grand sons Colborn and Eugene Jackson, their mother share between them and the remainder to be equally divided among my wife and the rest of the children herein named,

VIII I will that all my stock, cattle, buggies and wagons and household goods shall be in charge of and for the use my wife till the final division herein named and then sold and added to my estate, until the final division, my wife Elizabeth may see any of the stock or cattle that she may not need and use the money for her own purposes; And lastly, I do nominate and appoint my sons Lucius and P. E. Foster, to be the executors of this my last Will and Testament, In testimony whereof I the said Frank Jerome Foster, here to this, my last Will and Testament, contained on one sheet of legal cap paper, subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 12th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seven,

last will and Testament:

I will and devise my home place containing Two hundred and forty five acres, more or less, lying on the South East Side of the main road leading from Abbeville to Lowndersville, and bounded by the lands of C. M. Clinkscales, Lamar Clinkscales and my Kaupfer tract of land on Jordan Creek, also twenty (20) Acres off my Kaupfer tract, adjoining some place on the South West and my N. Myerand tract containing twenty (20) Seven acres on Side of Lowndersville road opposite my Amelias house, to my son Chas M. Clinkscales during the term of his natural life, and at his death to revert to my estate and then be sold and proceeds equally divided among my Sons J. Quetta Clinkscales, B. L. Clinkscales, and Lamar Clinkscales, and the Children of my deceased daughter Ann Bromley and the Children of my deceased daughter Cornelia Bell and my daughter in law Alice Pruitt Clinkscales. if she is living at the death of her husband Chas M.
Clinkscales, to take per Stirpes and not per Capite, it being my intention to give my daughter in law an equal share out of this devise with my own Children,

I will and devise my Kaupfer place containing One hundred and sixty acres, lying on Jordan Creek, less the twenty acres divided in the first clause of this will to be cut off to my son J. Quetta Clinkscales,

I will and devise my Huchaba place containing Two hundred and twenty acres, more or less,

71
lying on the road to Lawndersville and including the farm and $\frac{3}{4}$ acres on which the buildings are to my sons B. L. Chickseale and Lamas Chickseale. Each one half, which said land I intend to divide myself and assign each one his portion which he is to receive under this will;

V I direct my executor hereinafter named to see my tract of land known as the Geo. F. Chickseale tract containing seventy acres, more or less, adjoining my home place, 'Max Below' and C. M. Chickseale, my said executor giving my son Chas M. Chickseale the right to buy said land at not less than twenty dollars per acre, and divide the proceeds of said tract of land equally between the children of my deceased daughter, Ann Brownlee to wit: Gertrude Brownlee, John Brownlee, Lewis Brownlee, Ethel deceased daughter, Cornelia Bell to wit: Ira Bell, Lewis Bell, Daisy Bell, Earl Bell, Junior Bell and Birdy Bell and Melie Bell, each child of my said deceased daughter to have an equal amount;

VI I further direct and require that each of my sons, J. Fuller Chickseale, B. L. Chickseale, Lamas Chickseale and Chas M. Chickseale, pay to my executor within six months after my death, the sum of two hundred dollars, which amount of Eight hundred dollars, is to be equally divided among my said grand children named in the preceding clause of this will;

VII I will and bequest to my daughter in law, Melie Pruitt Chickseale, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and to Melie Wilson, her adopted daughter, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid out of any money I may have on hand at my death, or out of the proceeds of my personal property, which I direct my executor to sell as soon after my death as practicable;

VIII My said executor is directed to pay all my just debt out of the proceeds of sale of my personal property, and any money I may have on hand at my death, and to fix up my grave according to the plans which I intend to leave for that purpose;
