I, Ella E. Reese, hereby make, declare and publish the following as my last will and testament,

-I-

I direct that as soon after my death as possible all my just debts be paid by my executors hereinafter named out of any money I may leave

-II-

I give, devise and bequest to my beloved husband, H. E. Reese, all of my property of every nature and kind, both real and personal to be held by him for and during the term of his natural life,

-III-

After the death of my said husband I will and direct that all of my property, except that hereinafter mentioned, be sold by my remaining executor and the proceeds equally divided among my children, the child or children of any deceased child of mine to take his or her part,

-IV-

It is my will and I so direct that the house in which I now live on Upper Main Street in the City of Abbeville, South Carolina, bounded by M. Harry Wilson and others be not sold for division upon the death of my said husband to whom I give a life estate, but after the death of my said husband the said house and lot to remain the property of my estate for the use and benefit of any of my children who may choose to - reside there until my youngest child, Louise DeBault Reed shall have attained the age of twenty one years, after which I direct that my Executors sell said house and lot and divide the proceeds from said sale in the manner set out in the third paragraph of this will.

Abbeville County } I know all men that I Sarah C. Lelinkscales of the State and County of aforesaid, being in rather ill health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and published this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made: As to my worldly estate, and all the property, real, personal or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death, I desire, bequeath, and dispose thereof in the following manner, to wit:

First I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my executors hereinafter named be paid out of my estate, as soon after my death as shall by them be found convenient, Second, I will that all my personal property, of every description of which I shall die seized and possessed, be divided among my heirs as nearly equally as possible, except as is otherwise ordered below in another clause.

Third I will to Etta Simpson, who is now living with me, an old suit of furniture, consisting of one wardrobe, one bureau, one wash stand, one bedstead and bedding, Fourth, If I should contract or incur any debt or debts and leave the same unpaid, or if any property should be encumbered in any manner at my death, I will that my heirs shall pay the same, each paying proportionally according to his or her interest in my estate. And if I should leave any money on hand, I will that the same be equally divided among my heirs, Fifth As to my real estate, known as the Broadford land, situated in the State and County of aforesaid, on Little River, Shanklin Creek and Penny Creek, which I have had surveyed and divided into four tracts, as follows: The Homestead, or tract No. 1, containing three hundred and eighty three (383) acres, more or less, adjoining lands of John T Lelinkscales, Ephraim Power, tract No 2 of this estate, Nicholas Benson, James Stark, and George A. Wilson, on the opposite side of Little River; Tract No 3, containing three hundred and eighty (382) two acres, more or less, adjoining Tract No 1. Ephraim Power. Tract No 3. And Nicholas Reuser. with Shaukin creek running through the Western portion of it, Tract No 3. Containing three hundred and sixty six and one half (366 1/2) acres, more or less, adjoining tract No 2 Ephraim Power, Rosenberg & Vesauka, estate of A. J. Lelutskales, deced. Tract No 4. And Nicholas Reuser, Shaukin creek running through it, Tract 4, Containing three hundred and sixty nine and one half (369 1/2) acres, more or less, adjoining tract No 3, estate of A. J. Lelutskales, deced., Wm. Lelutskales, Mr. St. Reuser, and Nicholas Reuser, being bounded on the west by Shaukin creek, All of the above tracts are more fully described by plats made by Wm. L. Mitchell, Surveyor, and bearing date April 15th A.D. 1896. Reference being had thereto will more fully appear.

Seventh: I will and bequeath to my son James F. Lelutskales, Tract No 1 above described, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, and all emoluments, issues, incomes and profits, from and after my decease, for the benefit and behoof of him and his heirs forever.

Eighth: I will and bequeath to my son John T. Lelutskales, Tract No 1 above described, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, and all emoluments, issues, incomes, and profits, from and after my decease, for the benefit and behoof of him and his heirs forever; contrary, I will that two (2) of the Cabins, or tenant houses on tract No 1, be moved off and placed on tract No 2.

Ninth: I will and bequeath to my Grand daughter Florence E. Sullivan, Tract No 3, as described above, with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, and all emoluments, issues, incomes, and profits, from and after my decease, for her benefit and behoof during her lifetime, And I will that she shall have the right, privilege and power of herself to dispose of the same in any manner common in this State, by will, conveyance or otherwise, and such transaction shall be good and effectual to all

I George A Richardson of the County of Abbeville in the State of South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and judgement, do make public and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me heretofore made, 1st It is my will and I do direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses to be paid out of what moneys may be realized by my Executor from debts due me, and from the sale of such personal property that can be best spared by my wife and children, If this be insufficient for that purpose, and becomes necessary, I authorize and empower my Executor to sell the small tract of land containing some fifty acres, more or less, and known as the Danion place.

2nd The residue and remainder of my estate after the payment of my debts, of every kind and description, I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Maggie Richardson for the support and maintenance of herself and such of our children as may remain with her, for and during her natural life, with full power and authority to manage and control the same as she may deem best for the interest of herself and my said children,

3rd At the death of my said wife it is my will and I do direct that my entire estate, remaining at that time, be sold and equally divided among my children as follows - viz. Jane Jones wife of J. R. Jones, William Robert Richardson, Daniel Mister Richardson, Walter Yates Richardson, Fella Belle Richardson and George Calyer Richardson

Shall and shall alike, 4th If at any time prior to the death of my said wife, she may think best or so desire, there may be a division of my estate among my wife and children in the proportion fixed by law in the case of intestate property or my wife may take such portion, less than that to which she would be entitled under the Law, as she may elect,

5th I nominate constitute and appoint my wife

I, B. J. Martin of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind, but mindful of death, desiring to make disposition of my estate in case of death, do make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament:

1. I will and devise to my three daughters, Fannie A. Martin, V. Ella Martin, and Emma Martin, my tract of land designated as Home place, containing one hundred and seven (107) acres, more or less, composed of the following parcels to wit: About forty two and  $\frac{3}{4}$  acres of the original Home tract of myself, about twenty one and  $\frac{1}{4}$  acres of the Hughes tract, and the Filmer tract containing twenty five acres, more or less, and the eighteen (18) acres, which is a portion of the one hundred and thirty one (131) acres left by Daniel Martin, decd., for his widow for life, the tract hereby devised being bounded as a whole by lands of Addison Martin, M. J. Ashley, A. B. Martin, Mrs. Polly ~~Martin~~ Riston, tracts nos 3 and 7 herein of myself - the same to be represented and governed by a plat thereof to be made by W. L. Mitchell, Surveyor from notes of survey made by him July 7, 1909.

2. I will and devise to my son Milton J. Martin tract no 2 of my lands, containing fifty three acres, more or less, composed of portions of three or more different tracts: to wit: About twenty one and  $\frac{1}{4}$  acres of the western portion of my original home place, about twenty nine and  $\frac{1}{4}$  acres of the northern portion of the Hughes tract, which embraces a portion of the gin lot, and about two and  $\frac{1}{2}$  acres of the Sarah J. Martin or Raborn tract - the tract hereby devised being bounded as a whole, by balance of the said Raborn tract, by lands of Addison Martin, by tracts nos 1 and 3 herein and by lands of Mrs. M. E. Shirley - the same to be represented and governed by a plat thereof to be made by W. L. Mitchell, Surveyor from notes of a survey made by him July 7, 1909.

3, I will and devise to my daughter Nannie O Davis, tract No 3 of my lands, containing Sixty five and  $\frac{1}{4}$  acres, more or less, being the Southern portion of the Hughes tract, which embraced all of the first lot, lying on the South Side of the branch, the said branch being the line between tract No 2, and this tract, from the home tract down to the lower end, when said branch issues out of my lands, except that this tract is bounded by the School lot, lying on same side of the branch as the tract described above, i.e. and South Side, the Commencement and end of this tract are to be represented and ground by a plat to be made by W. L. Mitchell, Surveyor, from notes of a Survey made by him July 7, 1909.

4th I will and devise to my son, Hugh J. Martin the balance of the Sarah J Martin or Robson tract, after deducting the two and  $\frac{1}{2}$  acres as a part of tract No 2 herein described, the said tract as herein described containing ninety one and  $\frac{1}{2}$  acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of Mrs Margaret Shirley, Big Hogskin Creek, and tract No 2 herein, this devise is however upon the express condition that my said son do, within twelve months from my death, pay to my three unmarried daughters mentioned in first paragraph hereof the sum of two hundred dollars (\$200) to <sup>be equally</sup> ~~equally~~ divided between them, the further sum of one hundred (\$100) dollars to my son Milton J Martin, and the further sum of one hundred (\$100) dollars to my daughter Nannie O Davis - said sums being hereby made a lien and charge upon said lands - such payments I deem necessary in order to equalize the devise herein,

5th I will and bequeath to my three unmarried daughters, mentioned in first paragraph hereof my organ and to each of them I will and bequeath a bedstead and bedding sufficient therefor, I likewise will and bequeath to my son Hugh J, a bed and sufficient bedding therefor,

6 I will and direct That all the balance, real or residue of my property, real, personal and mixed, be sold by my executors, after due advertisement, at

Fifth: Having Confirmed in the Judgment of my Executors hereinafter named, I hereby authorized and empower them, if at any time before my youngest child becomes of age they should be able to sell the Adams Place for what they might consider a fair price to sell the same and re-invest the proceeds in another tract of land, not so rolling and therefore less liable to wash away - but providing an opportunity to so reinvest the proceeds, that they loaned the same at interest secured by mortgage on unencumbered real estate,

Sixth: I hereby direct my Executors to loan out, on good real estate mortgage, whatever money may be on hand at the time of my death or that may come into their hands from the sale of such articles of personal property as may not be deemed necessary for the use of my children on the home place, or from rents or other sources over and above what may be required for the support of my children,

Seventh: If any of my children should marry or leave the home stead and set up for him or herself, my Executors are hereby directed to advance to such one or ones out of any moneys in their hands belonging to my estate, an amount equal to, approximately, the interest of such one in my personal estate, taking receipts for the same, which shall be accounted as an advance in the final settlement of my estate. The same may be done in the case of any of my children when reaching the age of twenty one, whether such one be married or leave the place or not,
