Memory and understanding, do hereby make public and declare the following as and for my last will and Testament:

1st I will that all my just debts, except the mortgage hereinafter referred to, be paid by my executor from a sale of my personal estate.
2nd Having already provided for my daughter, Ellen McIlwaine, by giving her an education to an extent equal to what I can do for my other Children herein mentioned, I make no further disposition of my property in her favor.

3rd I will and bequeath to my Grand-daughter, Mamie Westfield, daughter of my deceased son Robert, the sum of five hundred dollars to be paid her by my Executors, Wm. C. Westfield, Jamie Morrow and Mamie Milford as hereinafter directed.

4th I will devise and bequeath to my son Wm. C.
Westfield my home place in Long Canal Township, in said State and County, containing

One hundred two and seven tenths acres, more or less, known as the Cunningham Place, upon the following Conditions, to wit: That he do pay off within twelve months from my death a mortgage given by me to Jno. R. Lornax, and now outstanding against a portion of my other lands; and upon the further condition that he do within a like period pay to my Grand-daughter Mamie, daughter of my son Robert, one third of the sum bequeathed to her by the clause of this will.

5th I will, devise and bequeath to my daughter Jamie Morrow and Mamie Milford my other plantation in said Long Canal Township in said State and County, to be divided between them as follows: - That on line between said lands and lands of Pierce Brown, midway between the Corner in the Abbeville road and the Corner in the Greenwood road, and run a line thence North-easterly so as to divide the said tract into two equal portions - the whole tract containing two hundred and eighteen acres and eighteen poles - The portion Northern portion to be the share of Mammie Milford and the Southern portion the share of Jamin Murren; provided however that this devise is made upon the express condition that each of my Daughters will pay to my Grand-daughter Mammie, daughter of my son Robert, one third of the annuity devised and bequest to her by the third clause of this will. the said sum to be paid within twelve months after my death

6th The real residue and remainder of my estate of every nature and kind, I direct, sell, and after the payment of debts as directed in the 4th clause hereof, the balance I will and bequest to my children, even as hereafter, Jamin Murren and Mammie Milford 7th Should any of the three said children, even as Jamin or Mammie, fail to pay the sum directed by this will within the time directed hereby, his or her portion of the lands willed, shall be sold by my executors for the payment of said sum or sums, the balance to be paid to him or her whose portion is so due. Lastly, I do hereby appoint my son-in-law N. P. Milford Executor of this my last will and testament, giving him full power to make all necessary conveyances and to do any and every other act necessary to carry this will into effect. I witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed

I, James C. Klugh, do make this my last will and testament,

I give, devise and bequeath all my property and estate of every kind, including any insurance on my life, to my beloved wife, Caroline Bradley Klugh, with full power to sell and dispose of any part or all of it in her judgment and discretion and to make good title to the same, for the payment of my debts or re-investment or other purpose, in trust to pay and discharge all my indebtedness and to hold the residue for herself and our children, she may keep the estate together as long as she may see fit for the support of herself and our children, and may if she thinks proper, give of to each child as he or she comes of age or marries such part as she may deem equitable and just to other children, If it can be managed I desire our younger children to have as good educational advantages as the older ones and money expended for this purpose or for their support is not to be charged against their share in the distribution of the estate,

I appoint my wife, Caroline Bradley Klugh and my eldest son, William Bradley Klugh, the executors of this my will,

In case of the death of my said wife before the trusts herein declared are performed I desire that said trusts devolve upon my said son, William B. Klugh and that he have the same powers and discretion in reference thereto as are above conferred upon my wife,

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth (20) of October, 1910.

In the name of God Amen.

I, M. N. Wilson of the County and State above written, being of Sound Mind, Memory and understanding, do make, declare and publish this my last will and Testament, expressly revoking all former Wills by me made.

- 1- I direct that all my just debts be paid
2. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife all of my household and Kitchen furniture and the sum of Five Hundred dollars, to her absolutely and forever.
3. I give, devise and bequeath to my said beloved wife, the residue of my estate, real and personal during her Natural life she to enjoy the rents, profits &c, arising therefrom as ^{she} see fit. If however, my wife should wish to sell my Home Place in the City of Abbeville, I hereby confer upon her, together with my executor, the power and Authority to sell and dispose of the same, on condition that the proceeds thereof shall be immediately invested in Real Estate, the title to said real estate to be in my executor for my estate,
4. Upon the death of my wife I direct my executor hereinafter named to convert my entire estate, except the bequest contained in the second paragraph hereof into Cash; and I hereby confer upon him the power and Authority to sell my land after advertising the same for twenty one days in some News paper published in the County, and to execute deeds therefor to the purchaser or purchasers,
- 5 From the proceeds of my estate so converted into Cash, I give and bequeath to my nephew Wade H. Douglas, the sum of One thousand dollars, on the following terms, to wit; I direct, that my executor, in whom I have unbounded Confidence, shall act as Trustee for my nephew, and invest the said One thousand dollars in some safe investments paying to

Said Wade H. Douglas, Annually the sum of Twenty dollars of the interest of said sum; if for any reason my said Executor should wish to be rid of this charge and responsibility, then in that event, he shall turn over the One thousand dollars to the Judge of Probate of this County who is by virtue of his office Public Guardian, and who, together with his successors in office, shall pay said Wade H. Douglas, Annually such interest as the law prescribes, 6 After the payment of the W. H. Douglas legacy, I direct that the residue of my estate be divided into thirteen equal shares, And I give and bequeath unto George C. Douglas, One share, unto H. A. Douglas, one share, unto Susan L. Craus, one share, unto Mary L. Douglas, one share, unto Estelle Nutto, one share, unto Elizabeth E. Wilson, One share, unto Nancy E. Syfau, one share, unto Louisa R. Cox, One share, unto Thomas W. Miller, one share, unto Leroy J. Miller, one share, unto N. Leroy Miller, one share, unto the children of my nephew R. C.
Wilson (Courtney and Lois) one share, unto the children of my niece Nancy E. Syfau living at the death of my wife, And Leroy H. Cox, one share, to them and their heirs forever, except as to the interest of Nancy E. Syfau's children in the one share, which interest I direct to be held by my Executor until these said Syfau children shall respectfully attain the age of twenty one year of age; And I also direct that my Executor hold the interests of the R. C. Wilson children until they shall respectfully marry or the attain the age of twenty five years, In any of my nephews or nieces should die before the testator or his said wife, then the child or children of such nephew or niece shall take the share of his father or mother; and in case the nephew or niece dying as stated should not leave any bodily heirs or bodily heir, then the share or shares of such shall be divided equally between my nephews and nieces
