residents of the State of Georgia or the State of South Carolina, I incorporate the same terms and provisions in this Codicil to my will, so that the necessity of proving the execution of the former Codicil may be dispensed with, Item 5. Except as herein modified, my original will and former Codicil thereto are hereby ratified, republished and confirmed in every respect.

In the Name of God Amen,
 I, Lawrence C. Robinson of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, although in ill health, do make, Ordain, Publish and declare my last will and testament, as follows, hereby revoking all former wills, to wit:

First I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executor, and also the expense of erecting a suitable monument to mark my last resting place, as soon as practicable after my decease.

Second, All the rest and residue of my property, real, personal and mixed, I will, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Lucie Norris Robinson for and during the term of her natural life. I further will and direct that my said wife shall have the right and power at any time after my death to have all my lands divided into two tracts of equal or approximately equal acreage, so as to leave each tract in compact and symmetrical shape, and that she shall have the power and privilege of choosing at once whichever of said tracts she may desire and of taking possession of, and conveying said tract as her own, as and when such division and allotment has been made, I further will and declare that it is my will and desire that she shall in such event choose that tract which shall include my dwelling house and improvements adjacent thereto, as her half in fee of my real estate, though said tract may be more valuable than the other, in the event however, of such division and allotment, the acceptance by my wife of said tract shall be in full of her interest in my real estate, and the remainder thereof shall be distributed among my other devisees as hereinafter directed,

Third, I further will and direct that during the life time of my wife she as executrix shall have the right to sell and convey any of my property, real or personal, as may be deemed advisable for a change investment, or for the purpose of restocking or keeping up the premises, I direct, however, that all permanent reinvestments be made only in safe income bearing properties.

Fourth - At the death of my wife, I will and direct that all my property, real and personal, be sold or converted into cash, and that out of the proceeds thereof there be first set apart and paid over to the deacons of Little River Baptist Church the sum of fifty dollars to be held by them and their successors in office as a trust fund to be invested as a loan or in some income bearing security, and the annual income arising therefrom to be used and expended in keeping up and improving the cemetery at said church. - After payment of said trust fund, I will and direct that the entire sum remaining be divided into two parts, as follows: - If my wife Lucia Norris Robinson, shall then have elected to divide and take her allotment of my real estate as provided in the second paragraph of this will, then I will and direct that such allotment be confirmed and if she shall not then have conveyed said land or elected to her, then I will and direct that the same together with one half the net proceeds arising out of all my personal property shall go in fee simple to such person or persons and in such manner and in such proportions and upon such terms and conditions as she may by her last will and testament duly executed

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It felt like a warm blanket after a long flight.
 The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were chirping happily. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of relief.
 The landscape was beautiful, with rolling hills and a clear blue sky. I had never seen anything like this before. The people were friendly and welcoming.
 I had heard that the weather was great, but I didn't realize how perfect it was.
 The food was delicious, and the service was excellent. I had a great time and I was glad to be here. The trip was a success, and I was happy to be back home.

In the Name of God - Amen;

Be it remembered that I, Leabell O Austin, of Due West, Abbeville County, South Carolina, being of Sound and disposing mind and considering the uncertainty of human life and wishing to make certain disposition of all my earthly effects, other than would be made by operation of law, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament. I

Commit my body to the Mother Earth and my spirit to God who gave it - I give, devise and bequeath all my Estate and property, Real and Personal, whatever it be at the time of my demise in possession, Reversion or Remainder, as follows, to wit:

I desire that my body be fitted and decently buried beside that of my Mother, in Due West Cemetery, and that all my funeral expenses be paid.

I direct that the executor, hereinafter nominated of this my will, shall see that all my just and lawful debts are paid without unnecessary delay and that a neat tombstone be erected over my grave.

All the rest and residue of my Estate, I dispose of in three (3) equal parts as follows: -
First - I give and bequeath unto my dear little grand-son, Walter Erskine Austin, of Volusia County, Florida, and to his issue, One equal third part to be realized from my Estate as hereinafter provided, and if he should die without issue before attaining the age of Twenty one years, then his said part to go to my Son Foster O Austin & his issue, but if he should be dead without issue, then to go in Remainder to the Board of Trustees of Erskine Theological Seminary at Due West, S.C. Second - I give and bequeath unto my Son, Foster Calhoun Austin of Volusia County, Florida, and to his issue, One equal third part, to be realized as hereinafter provided, and if he should die and leave

My living issue, then in remainder to the Board of Trustees of Eskin Theological Seminary at Due West, S.C.

Third - I give and bequeath unto the Board of Trustees of Eskin Theological Seminary, at Due West, S.C. one third equal third part, to be realized as hereafter provided, from I appoint my said Foster L. Austin to be trustee of the estate hereafter bequeathed unto my little grand son, Walter Eskin Austin, with full power to take the same from any State unto any State & invest & manage said estate as he best saw fit for the benefit of said Child, I nominate & appoint my son Foster L. Austin, of Volusia County, Florida, to be executor of this my last will and testament, reposing full confidence in him to execute the same, and I hereby empower him and direct that he sell all my effects and property, real & personal, both in South Carolina and in Florida, or elsewhere to the best advantage at public or private sale as in his discretion he may choose, as soon and at such time or times as in his judgment he can advantageously do so and that he divide and pay over the net proceeds, should & shall alike, pursuant to the provisions of this my will, It is my will and I hereby direct that said executor shall have full power to sell any or all of my real estate both in South Carolina and in Florida at public or at private sale as he may wish, and at such time or times as he may choose, without the order or intervention of any Court or Courts of either State, and that he make, sign, execute and deliver deeds to the same in his name as executor of this my last will, In witness whereof I have signed and sealed and published & declared this instrument as my last will, at Due West Abbeville

I, William R. McAdams, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing Mind and Memory, do hereby make, ordain, declare and publish my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say;

I I will and direct that all my just debts be paid, II I will and bequeath to my daughter, Annie Marie, my parlor organ. I hereby direct, that my executor herein after named cause the said organ to be appraised by disinterested men.

III I will and bequeath to my daughter, Willie Beulah, a sum of money equal to the value of the said organ as fixed by the appraisement hereinbefore directed,

IV I will and bequeath to my nephew, Eugene Ecken McAdams, my double barreled breechloading shot gun,

V I will and bequeath to my nephew, Jesse R. McAdams, my Silver Watch,

VI The rest and residue of my property, real & personal, both what I now have and what I may hereafter acquire, of every kind and description, I will, devise, and bequeath to my said two daughters, Annie Marie & Willie Beulah, in equal shares, and if either of my said daughters should die before I do and leave a child or children, such child or children shall take their mother's share then mother would have taken if living at the time of my death;

VII I hereby direct my executors herein after named to divide equally the property hereby willed to my said two daughters, and I hereby confer upon my said executors full power and authority to do whatever is necessary to be done to accomplish that object,

VIII I have ^{to my wife Jennie E. McAdams} not given anything by this will and I do not want her to have one cent's worth of my property, for the reason that she has willfully and deliberately and without any provocation, Cause or excuse abandoned and deserted me, and has since about June 15th, 1898, been living in Audum County and has refused to come back although I have twice written to her and urged her to come back.

17. I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my brother John Bert McAdams and my cousin, J. McGowan McAdams the executors of this my last will and testament and charge them faithfully to execute the same.

Witness my hand and seal this fifteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight and in the one hundred and twenty third year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America, Signed, Sealed, declared and published by the Testator as his last will & testament, in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto.
