V.
 I, Emma C. Latimer, of the City of Abbeville, in the county of Abbeville, State of South Carolina, do make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills or instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore by me made.

Item 1. I will and direct my executrix hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses and to have erected a suitable monument to mark my last resting place. The expenses of the same to be paid out of the first moneys coming into her hands as executrix, and payment to be made as soon after my death as may be practicable.

Item 2: After making the payments authorized in paragraph one hereof, I will and direct that my said executrix shall pay over to my beloved sister Mrs. Ella Latimer, and my niece, Maggie Latimer, the sum of of Three Thousand Dollars to be divided equally between them, and also that my said executrix shall also turn over my said sister and said niece all liberty bonds and war saving stamps of which I may be possessed of at the time of my death, to be divided equally between them, and whic shall be their property absolutely and forever.

Item 3: I will and direct that my said executrix shall pay over to my beloved sisters, Mrs. M. M. Dorsey, Gainesville, Ga. and Mrs. M. C. Thornton, Atlanta, Ga. all the balance of my estate after making the payments hereinbefore authorized and directed, to be divided equally between them. The portion paid to my said sister, Mrs. Dorsey, shall be hers during her natural life only and after her death shall go in equal parts to my nices, Mamie McGaughey, Julia Hockaday, Leone Barrett and Louise Turner. The portion paid to my said sister, Mrs. Thornton, shall be hers duing her natural life only and after her death shall go in equal parts to my said sister, Mrs. Ella Latimer, and niece, Maggie Latimer.

Item 4: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my niece, Miss Maggie Latimer, of Abbeville, South Carolina, Executrix of this my last will and testament.

I feel that it but just that I should explain that the fact that the major portion of my estate is given to my sister, Mrs. Ella Latimer and niece, Maggie Latimer, is not evidence that I bear greater love and affection for one sister than another, but is done in order to compensate my said sister and said niece for their kind and loving care and attention to me during my long and serious illness.

In the name of God-Amen:

I, Enoch Baskin Smith, of the County of Abbeville, in the State of South Carolina, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make, ordain, publish and declare my last will and testament as follows, to wit;

First-I will and direct that all my just debts and my funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death, and that a suitable tombstone or monument be erected to mark my last resting place. I have a membership in the Union burial aid society, and it is expected that this furnish a sufficient amount to provide for my burial expenses, the expenses of my last illness, and for my tombstone or monument. I wish such funds as may come from the Society or any other benevolent order to which I may belong at the time of my death, be first applied to this purpose. If any other fund is necessary to defray the expenses of my last illness, my burial expenses, and the expense of such tombstone or monument, and to pay my debts, then I desire that such sum or sums to be paid out of any cash on hand at my death, or the proceeds of the sale of crops or other personalities, as may be necessary.

Second-I will and direct that my eight (8) acre tract of land, bought of R.W.Clinkscales, Jobie Hutchinson, and others, be sold by my executors, and the proceeds of sale be used for the purpose of paying the legacies hereinafter directed to be paid to my sons, Clifton Smith and William Carroll Smith. If the proceeds of said sale should be insufficient to pay said sums, then I direct that they be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of such personal property as may be necessary for that purpose.

Third-I will and bequeath to my son Clifton Smith the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, and to my son William Carroll Smith, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to be paid to them as soon as practicable after my death out of the proceeds of the sale hereinbefore provided for; applying first the proceeds of the sale of said eight acre tract of land thereto, and thereafter using any cash on hand or proceeds of sale of personal property to be sold for that purpose until said sum is made up, and provided for.

Fourth- In providing for the payment of debts, legacies and cost of administration, I desire that there shall first be used of my personal property any cash on hand at my death, next the proceeds of sales of crops on hand, and that if any further amount is necessary, it shall be raised by the sale of the personality not herein specifically bequeathed, using such of the personal property contained in the residuary clause of this will as may be spared for that purpose.

Fifth- I will and bequeath to my daughters, Larceny and Leo Ella my Cabinet Organ, and one bedstead, one feather bed and sufficient for same, to be selected for them by my wife.

Sixth- I will to my daughters, Lizzie and Lila, one feather bed, one bedstead, and bed clothing sufficient for same, to be selected for them by my wife.

Seventh- I will and bequeath to my wife, Parry Smith, and to my two children, Robert Smith and Rose Smith, two of my best mules and two of my best cows, to be chosen by them for that purpose, and to be held for the joint use of the three of them for and during the natural life or widowhood of my wife, and at the death or remarriage of my wife, to go to the said Robert Smith and Rose Smith and to be theirs absolutely.

Eighth- I will and direct that all my mules and cattle not hereinbefore bequeathed shall be sold by my executors, and the proceeds of sale equally divided between all of my children, share and share alike.

Ninth- All the rest and residue of my personal property of whatever kind and description, I will and bequeath to my wife, Parry Smith, and to my children, Robert and Rose Smith, for and during the term of the natural life or widowhood of my said wife, and at her death to go to my said two children Robert Twelfth- I will and devise to my children, Enoch Smith and Helen Smith, my tract of land containing thirty eight acres, more or less, known as tract No.4 adjoining tract No.1 of my lands, J.W.Clinkscales, Press Temple, and J.R.Foster, and more fully described by plat made by W.L.Mitchell, surveyor, dated Aug.25th, 1917; to have and to hold said tract of land unto said children and their heirs and assigns forever.

Thirteenth- I will and devise unto my wife, Parrie Smith, and my children, Robert Smith and Rose Smith, my home tract of land known as Tract No.1, containing fifty-five and 1/4 acres, more or less, adjoining lands of J.C. and W.F.McAdams, Tracts Nos.2,3 and 4 of my own lands, and lands of Mr. Foster, and more fully described by plat made by W.L.Mitchell, surveyor, dated Aug. 25th, 1917; To have and to hold said tract of land unto my said wife and children for their joint use and benefit during the life or widowhood of my wife, and at her death or marriage to my children, Robert Smith and Rose Smith, and their heirs and assigns, forever.

Fourteen- I will and direct that the provisions hereinbefore made for my wife shall be in lieu of dower, and of all other interest in my estate. I heretofore taken out in her behalf a policy of insurance in the sum of one thousand dollars, in the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, which is made payable to her, and which she will get, and which I desire to have in addition to the bequests and devise hereinbefore set out.

Fifteenth- If at my death I should be possessed of any other real estate or property, or interest in any other real estate or property not hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, and not embraced under the specific or general clause of the will set out, then I will and direct that such property shall be sold by my executors and the proceeds of sale equally divided among all my children, share and share alike.

Sixteenth- In the event that one or more of my children predeceased me, leaving a child or children, I will and direct that such child or children shall take the share to which the parent would have been entitled to if living, if any one or more should predecease me without leaving child or children, then I will and direct that the share provided for such child or children so predeceasing me shall be distributed among the brothers and sisters of the deceased one, share and share alike, the child or children of any predeceased brother or sister to take among them the share to which the parent would have been entitled to if living.

Seventeenth- I nominate, constitute and appoint my two sons, Henry Kyle Smith and Clifton Smith, to be the executors of this will, with full power to compromise and settle claims for or against my estate, and with power to sell and dispose of any property that may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this will. They may sell such property at private sale, in open market, provided they obtain a price therefor that is satisfactory to themselves and wife; otherwise, they must sell at public sale.

Eighteenth- It is my desire that my family shall continue to live together in harmony, and they shall live moral and upright lives, and that they may make useful and industrious citizens. I especially urge that they shall not engage in any litigation or contention about my estate.

In the name of God-Amen:

I, Enoch Baskin Smith, of the County of Abbeville, in the State of South Carolina, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make, ordain, publish and declare the following as a first codicil to my last will and testament, duly executed by me on the 25th of September, 1917-to wit;

1- I desire to and do hereby change Paragraph "Third" of said last will and testament by omitting therefrom the name of Clifton Smith and inserting in lieu thereof the name of Enoch Smith, so that said Paragraph when so amended and changed shall read as follows-to wit: THIRD: I will and bequeath to my son Enoch Smith the sum of two hundred dollars and to my son William Carroll Smith the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid to them as soon as practicable after my decease out of the proceeds of the sale hereinbefore provided for: applying first the proceeds of the sale of said 8 acres tract of land thereto, and thereafter using any cash on hand or proceeds of sale of personal property to be sold for that purpose until the said sum is made up, and provided for.

11- I desire to and do hereby change the provisions of Paragraph 10 by including in the devisees mentioned in said paragraph my son Clifton Smith, and also by including in said Paragraph the devise of a certain forty four acre tract of land purchased by me from J.W.Clinkscales and conveyed by deed dated December 19, 1917, recorded in Clerks office for Abbeville County in book 39 at page 93, so that said Paragraph when so altered and amended shall read as follows; to wit:"Tenth" I will and devise to my son, Henry Kyle Smith, and Clifton Smith, and to my daughters, Lizzie Smith and Lilla Smith, the follow two tracts of land; to wit: 1. My tract of land known as tract No.3 containing fifty six and 3/4 acres, more or less, adjoining lands of W.R. McAdams, J.W.Clinkscales, Mrs.G.E.Shirley, estate of Hugh Robinson, and others, and more fully described by a plat made by W.L.Mitchell, surveyor, dated April, 13th, 1903-2. Also a certain tract or parcel of land situate in Abbeville County State aforesaid, containing forty four acres, more or less, adjoining lands of A.F.Carwile, W.R.McAdams, J.W.Clinkscales and others, having such metes and bounds as is shown by plat of W.L.Mitchell, surveyor, dated March 9th, 1897, and being the same tract of land conveyed to me by J.W.Clinkscales by deed dated December 19th, 1917, recorded in Clerks office for Abbeville County in book 39-page 93: To have and to hold unto my said children, and their heirs and assigns, in fee simple.

111-I desire to and do hereby change Paragraph 12. of my said will by omitting therefrom the name of Enoch Smith so that the said paragraph, when so altered shall read as follows, to wit; 12th. I will and devise to my child, Helen Smith, my tract of land containing 38 acres, more or less, known as tract No.4 adjoining tract No.1 of my lands, J.W.Clinkscales, Press Temple, and Mr.Foster, and more fully described by plat made by W.L.Mitchell, surveyor, dated Aug.25. 1917: To have and to hold said tract of land unto said child, and her heirs and assigns, forever. I do hereby ratify and confirm all other provisions of my last will and testament with the exception of the changes herein made. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of Aug. 1919.

I, Philip Rosenberg, of Abbeville, in the County and State above written, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, but somewhat advanced in years, and my health being impaired, and desiring to make disposition of my property in case of death, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, to wit;

Item. I direct my said executors hereinafter named, as soon as practical after my death, to pay all of my just debts.

Item. I direct my said executors next after the payment of debts to pay from any moneys on hands, or the first moneys received by them, the sum of one thousand dollars to the Hebrew Orphans Home, of Atlants, in the State of Georgia, to be received and used by its managing officers in carrying out the charities in which it is engaged.

Item. After the payment of ^{my} debts, and the payment of the bequest next above provided, I will, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal, with-power and mixed, to my sons, Sol. H. Rosenberg, Albert H. Rosenberg and Authur P. Rosonberg, and their successors in office, in trust, for the following uses and purposes, to wit; In trust to invest and keep invested all of my moneys and income; to hold, manage and rent all of my property, real and personal, with power to said trustees to change any investment made by me in my lifetime, and with like power to sell any or all of my property, the proceeds to be invested in other property or securities to be selected and approved by said trustees, and so to sell, transfer, invest and reinvest, as often as may seem to the said trustees advisable, and thus to manage my said estate until the year 1940; and in trust, further, on January 1st. 1940, or as soon as convenient during that year, to seel and dispose of all of my estate and property, and to equally divide the proceeds thereof between my grand children living at that time, any one or more of my children however who may be living at that time, and who has no living issue, to take a share in such division equal to that of each grandchild; the trustees, to have the power in making such division to assign any of the trust property to any one or more or the beneficiaries in settlement of his or her equal share of the estate; and the trustees, during their trustship to have the power and right to advance to anyone or more of my grandchildren, or for his, her or their benefit, for the purpose of securing an education, such sum or sums of money as said trustees may think advisable, no grandchild, however, to receive for such purpose more than his or her share of the trust fund, and all sums so advanced to be accounted for in the final division thereof.

Item. In case of the death of either of the trustees named in the foregoing paragraph, I hereby appoint my daughter Mrs. Irene Levi ~~with the same powers~~ ^{as his successor,} and upon assuming said office she shall be vested with the same powers as are herein conferred on her predecessor, and shall perform the same offices.

Item. Lastly I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said sons, Sol. H. Rosenberg, Albert H. Rosenberg and Arthur P. Rosenberg, executors of this my last will and testament, with full power to do any and all acts necessary to carry this will into effect, including power to sell, transfer and convey any of my property, real or personal, for the payment of debts, if the same be necessary, and with the power to execute good and sufficient titles and conveyances in fee simple hereto.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It felt like a warm blanket. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were chirping. I took a deep breath and smiled. It was exactly what I needed. I had been so stressed lately, but now I felt like I was starting over. I was going to make the most of this trip.
 I was going to enjoy every moment. I was going to have fun. I was going to live.
