I, James H. Greene, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, but somewhat advanced in years and desiring to make disposition of my property in case of death, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my Last Will and Testament, to-wit:

Item I. I direct my executors to pay all my just debts.

Item II I will, devise and bequeath to my wife, Elvirah Talitha Greene, should she survive me, my plantation in said State and County, located at the eighth mile post on the road from Abbeville to Due West and all my household effects, to be held by her during the term of her natural life, and at her death or at my death, should she predecease me, I direct all such property to be sold by executors hereinafter named, and the proceeds of sale divided into seven shares, one of which shall be paid to each of my children and the other share to my grandson, Greene McLean.

Item III I direct that all my other property of every nature and kind be disposed of by executors hereinafter named and converted into cash from which all of my debts are to be paid. The remaining proceeds of sale and all moneys on hand and in bank at the time of my death, I direct to be divided into eight shares, one of which shall be paid to my wife, one share to each of my children and the other share to my grandson, Greese McLean. Should my wife not survive me, the share given to her is to be divided in equal shares amongst my other legatees.

Item IV. Should any of my children die during my lifetime, or during the lifetime of their mother, should she survive me, and before a final division of the estate, I direct that his or her share in any and all money, or proceeds of sale of my property, not already divided, shall go to his or her children. In case of the death of any child without leaving children, the share which would otherwise go to him or her, out of any part of my estate then remaining undivided, shall go to my surviving children, my grandson, Greese McLean, taking a share in such division equal to the share of each of my children, and the child or children of any predeceased child at that time taking in such division the share which the parent would have taken. Should my grandson, Greese McLean, die without issue in my lifetime, or in the lifetime of his grandmother, should she survive me, I direct that the share which would otherwise go to him out of any of my property or estate then remaining undivided shall go to my surviving children, the child or children of any predeceased child at that time to take in such division the parent's share.

Item V. I direct that any child which may be indebted to me at the time of my death shall in the final division of my estate account for any and all sums due to my estate.

Item VI. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my sons, Wm. P. Greese, G. B. Greese, and H. H.
