Last will and Testament of Wierison W. Westfield

I, Wierison W. Westfield, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and desiring to make disposition of my property by will in case of death, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and Testament, to wit:-

Item 1. I will and direct that my executor, hereinafter named, as soon after my death as possible shall pay and settle all my just debts and funeral expenses, and that he erect a suitable tombstone over my grave - the tombstone and funeral expenses not to cost over two hundred dollars.

Item 2. Should I die in the middle of the year or before the crops are gathered, I will and direct that my executor shall take charge of my farm and complete the crops and farming operations, and to that end he will fulfill and carry out all contracts existing between me and my laborers, tenants, and croppers, paying over and delivering to each of them their share of all said crops or the proceeds thereof.

Item 3. I direct that the moneys arising from the sale of all crops of cotton and cotton seed either on hand or being grown, after the payment of debts, shall be applied by my executor in the payment of any mortgage or lien which may be existing against my land, or any of it, and that the balance, if any, shall be paid in equal shares to my nephew and niece, E. Clifton Morrow and Kathleen Morrow, children of my sister Janie W. Morrow. Should either predecease me, his or her share shall go to his or her child or children, if any; if none, the whole to go to the survivor, or his or her children.

Item 4. I will, devise and bequeath all the real estate of which I die seized and possessed, to my said nephew and niece, E. Clifton Morrow and Kathleen Morrow, the child or children of either, in case of the death of the parent before me, to take the parent's share, and if there be no child or children, the whole to go to and become the property of the survivor of me, or his or her children as the case may be.

Item 5. I will that all my live stock, including mules, cows, hogs, my farming machinery and tools, all farming supplies and all crops of corn, oats, hay and other crops, except cotton and cotton seed already disposed of, shall be sold by my executor and turned into cash, the proceeds of sale, after deducting his

As to my worldly estate, of which I may die seized and possessed, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my decease, I will and bequeath in the following manner, to wit:

First:

I will that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as early after my decease by my executor hereinafter named, as will be found convenient by.

Second:

I will to my daughter, Miss May Blackwell, my home tract, except about fifty-seven acres, be it more or less, beyond the creek, beginning at an old corner at the south, being the C. D. Kennedy corner, and running in a northerly direction to an old corner on the opposite side of the tract. The said fifty-seven acres will be on the west of this line.

I also reserve or except one acre of the land lying on the east side of the Blue West and Donalds road. The land intended to be willed here will be about one hundred and thirteen (113) acres, more or less. The same to be hers, her heirs and assigns forever.

The above is subject to the value which the appraisers herein below mentioned, may set on said tract.

Third:

As I have advanced to certain of my children certain amounts of money, as follows, to wit:

To D. J. Blackwell, eleven hundred dollars.

To W. P. Blackwell, fifteen hundred dollars.

To H. S. Blackwell, twenty-five hundred dollars.

To D. J. Blackwell, twelve hundred dollars.

To Mrs. Lida B. Lottin, six hundred and twenty-two dollars.

To Mrs. J. A. Davis, one thousand and fifty dollars.

To Mrs. Fannie B. Clark, one hundred dollars.

The above amounts to be taken into consideration at the final settlement of my estate. The same to be reckoned without any charge for interest on the same.

Fourth:

I will that the Probate Judge of said County, appoint three disinterested citizens to appraise the various tracts of land which I have heretofore conveyed to my children, and set a value on the same, not taking into consideration the buildings which the owners thereof have placed on said tracts.

Fifth:

The small lot of two acres near my home is not a portion of the home tract and is not intended to go to my daughter May.

Sixth:

All property not otherwise herein willed, I will that it be shared in by all of my children equally.

Seventh:

In case that any of my children die, leaving issue of the body, I will that the said issue inherit the portion which the deceased parent or parents would have inherited had he, she or they been living.

Eighth:

I will that my daughter, May, get all of my household goods of every description including the kitchen furniture and cooking utensils.

Ninth:

In case I should convey any lands to any of my children, hereafter, I will that the same be appraised as in the case of other lands which I have heretofore conveyed to them.

Lastly, I nominate, appoint and constitute my three sons, executors of this my last will and testament, to wit: W. P. Blackwell, H. S. Blackwell and H. J. Blackwell, with this proviso, that in case the said H. J. Blackwell cannot serve as executor, that he suggest some person to be appointed by the Judge of Probate to serve as his substitute.

In testimony whereof, I, the said J. R. Blackwell, hereby subscribe my name and affix my seal to this my last will and testament, the 25th day of February, 1927.
J. R. Blackwell (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said J. R. Blackwell, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses hereto,

Last Will and Testament
Dr. J. J. Mc Cain

I, J. J. Mc Cain of Due West, County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and sensible of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and cancelling any and all other testamentary dispositions by me heretofore made.

Art. I. I direct the payment out of my estate by my Executor hereinafter named of all of my just and legal debts, funeral expenses and the cost of a suitable tombstone to mark my grave, as soon after my death as is practicable.

Art. II. I direct that certain of my personal effects as listed below be disposed of as follows, the disposition to be made as soon as convenient after my death:

To James Ross, my oldest son, my gold watch, the watch that regulated my recitations from the beginning of my teaching in Erskine College up to the present time.

To Paul, my second son, the ivory headed cane brought to me from Egypt by his classmate, Mr. T. J. Robinson. Also to Paul the old family Bible inherited from my father and recently rebound by Paul. To Paul also, since his children are fond of birds, all my books on birds.

To Charles, my youngest son, my field-glass, the source of so much information and pleasure to us all. To Charles also my Webster's New International Dictionary.

These things are given to my sons, not so much on account of their intrinsic value as on account of the personal association. To each and all of them I bequeath also anything in my life that may be of any help to them in the way of counsel, example, ideals, inspiration, or aims.

Art. III. I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Mrs. Lula Todd Mc Cain, to be absolutely hers, the house and lot belonging to me at the present time, together with all my books, pictures, clothing, household and kitchen furniture and such like personal effects, except those personal effects that are hereinabove disposed of in Article II. My preference about my books would be that they be not sold, but that after my wife selects any she wishes to keep, she let James Ross, Paul and Charles take any they may wish, and that she then give the others away. My large Greek Dictionary, my New Testament Greek

Last will and testament of J. S. M^c Cain — Concluded.

Dictionary, and my copy of the Septuagint Bible would be valuable to the college. Some of the books might be given to the school at Due West and some to friends. I am only suggesting that they not be sold; but the suggestions are not of binding force.

Art. II. All of the real, residue, or remainder of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, of whatever nature and wheresoever situate, to which I am entitled at the time of my death, either in law or in equity, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my aforesaid wife for and during the term of her natural life, subject to the terms, conditions, powers and agreements hereinafter set forth, to wit: I hereby authorize and empower my said wife, in her sole discretion, to mortgage, lease or sell any of the property comprising the estate hereinabove created in Article II, and to use the cash proceeds for such mortgage or sale, or such part thereof as she shall deem necessary to provide for her maintenance, care and support, and the maintenance, care and support of any of my children who may be dependent upon her; and I hereby give unto my said wife full power to make, execute and deliver good and sufficient titles or such other instruments as may be necessary.

Art. III. At the death of my aforesaid wife, I hereby give, devise, and bequeath the estate hereinabove created in Article II, or the balance thereof remaining, if part of the same has been disposed of according to the terms and conditions of Article II above, share and share alike to my children, James Ross M^c Cain, Paul P. M^c Cain and Charles L. M^c Cain, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, the same to be theirs absolutely and forever.

Art. IV. I hereby name, nominate, constitute, and appoint the Central Union Bank of South Carolina, as executor of this my last will and Testament, witness my hand and seal this day of _____ A.D., 1930.

The Last Will and Testament of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Haddon.

In the name of God, Amen!

I, Elizabeth A. Haddon being of sound mind and knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life, deem it proper and best to make and declare this instrument of writing to be my last Will and Testament.

1st. I direct my Executor to be hereinafter appointed to collect all money due me and to pay all my debts and funeral expenses.

2nd. I give to my sister Leila A. Caswile my house and lot in the Town of One West, S.C. together with all my household and kitchen furniture and everything else that may be found on the above mentioned lot.

3rd. I direct my Executor to see all other real estate or personal property that I may possess, to collect all monies, notes and accounts due me and to pay it out as follows:

1st. I give to my Brother Nicholas W. Kay, to my Sister Ida B. Chickales, to my Sister Rosa Kay and to my niece Annie Lee, to each of them the sum of two hundred dollars.

2nd. I give to the officers of Little River Baptist Church the sum of one hundred dollars the interest on which money they can use in the upkeep of the cemetery at that place.

3rd. I direct that my Executor shall pay to a committee of three men whom he may select and who are believed to be interested in the upkeep of Lindsay cemetery the sum of one hundred dollars - the interest to be used in cleaning and repairing said cemetery.

4th. I give and bequeath to Corine Maffress Orphanage the sum of one thousand dollars to be used by the Superintendent of that institution in caring for the orphan children at that institution.

5th. I direct that the remainder of my estate, if there shall be any, be equally divided between the Southern Baptist Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky, and the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

6th. I Resoly against Paxton B. Caswile, my Executor to carry into effect this my last will and Testament,

In witness, whereof, I hereby affix my name and seal

In the name of God, Amen!

I, J. Miller Ellis, of Due West, in the County and State aforesaid, do make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore by me made.

Item 1. I will, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Daisy Elizabeth Ellis, all that portion of my farm situate, lying and being on the East side of the public road leading from Due West to Martin's Mill, containing something like fifty (50) acres, more or less, and on which is situated the dwelling house in which I now live together with other out houses. I also will and bequeath unto my said wife the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars in cash.

Item 2. I will and direct that all the residue and remainder of property of which I may die seized and possessed, both real and personal, be sold by my Executors hereinafter named at such time or times as to them may seem advisable, either at public or private sale, and that out of the proceeds of such sale I direct that they first pay all my just debts and funeral expenses including a suitable monument to mark my last resting place; that they next pay to my said wife the Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars willed to her in paragraph one hereof, and that the balance of said proceeds of sale be equally divided between the children of my first marriage, to wit: Janie Ray Ellis, David Rice Ellis; Robert Milton Ellis; John Luther Ellis; Thomas Ebenezer Ellis and Dwight Dunn Ellis, share and share alike. The child or children of any deceased child to take the part the parent would have taken if living.

Item 3. It will be observed that I make no direct devise or bequest in this my will to my children of my last marriage, to wit, Mary Julia Ellis; Edwin Rose Ellis; Arthur Smith Ellis and Sara Elizabeth Ellis, but I wish it understood that the property willed to my said wife, Daisy Elizabeth Ellis, in paragraph one hereof is intended for the benefit of our said four children as well as for her own. I have carefully considered the matter from every angle and feel that I have made a fair and just disposition of my estate. I will and direct, however, that my said wife shall have the right to sell and dispose of any and all of the property willed to her as in her judgment may seem best and to use the proceeds of sale for the benefit of herself and our said children as to her may seem wise.

Item 4. I realize that should I die soon after the making of this my will, the property herein directed to be sold by my Executors probably could not be sold within the next few months to advantage. I will and direct, therefore, that said property be sold by said Executors at such time and in such manner as to them may seem best for all concerned, provided however that the sale shall not be postponed longer than three years from the date of my death.

Item 5. Should I die before the expiration of the present year, I will that the proceeds of sale of all crops now growing on any and all of my land be used in the payment of any debts I may owe at the time of my death, or should I die during any year hereafter after a crop has been planted it is my will that the crops of that year be used in the same manner.

Item 6. Should my said Executors decide to postpone the sale of land herein directed to be sold, it is my will that my Executors divide among my said children by my first marriage named herein beginning with the year following my death, the net proceeds of sale of such crops as may be raised on the land to be sold by them, after paying all expenses of raising and harvesting such crops.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife, Daisy Elizabeth Ellis, to be Executrix and Jas. R. Winn, of the Town of Due West, S.C. to be Executor of this my last will and testament, without bond.

In Witness Whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this 28th day of Aug, A.D. 1924.
