I, Dottie Elizabeth Chiles, of the Town of Due West, of Abbeville County, State of South Carolina, at present in the enjoyment of a sound mind and memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of life, do make and declare this to be my last will and Testament.

(1) I give, will, and bequeath to my son, Henry Chiles, my house; and I give, will, and bequeath to him as much of the lot on which my house now stands as will, when surveyed, amount to one half acre, providing him outlet to the road in front of my house and at least twenty feet on each side of said house, the lot to run backwards from house until such line is reached as will make one half acre in lot.

(2) The remaining portion of my real property, that is, the balance of my lot in the Town of Due West I wish to go to my children R. C. Chiles, John Anderson Chiles, Nathan Weston Chiles, Howard Franklin Chiles, Jon Sen Chiles, Jessie Moffatt Chiles, and Henry Chiles, and to my daughter-in-law, Gertrude Chiles - these eight to have share and share alike.

(3) I will my knives, forks, spoons, sugar dish, spoon holder, pickle dish, bed in front room, organ, oil stove, and bed and furniture in "living room" to my son Henry Chiles.

(4) I will to my daughter-in-law, Sadie, my coffee pot.

(5) I bequeath to Gertrude Chiles my cream pitcher.

(6) I will to R. C. Chiles, my gold set.

(7) I will to all persons named in section 2, share and share alike, any proceeds from Christian Union Society.

(8) I will my bed and furniture in the "boy's room" to my grandson, Archer Chiles.

In Testimony whereof I have set my hand and seal.

Last Will and Testament

of
James Cobb Tribble

335-8508

State of South Carolina
County of Abbeville

I, James Cobb Tribble, of Due West, County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and sensible of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and cancelling any and all other testamentary dispositions by me heretofore made.

Art. I. I direct the payment out of my estate by my Executor hereinafter named of all my just and legal debts, funeral expenses and the cost of a suitable tombstone to mark my grave as soon as ^{after my death} is practicable.

Art. II. I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter, Mrs. Christene Tribble Bradley, the following property to be hers absolutely and forever:

All of my household furniture and personal effects, which are to be found at the time of my death in my dining room, kitchen, down stairs hall way and sitting room, including pictures, rugs and all other furniture or personal effects found in these rooms, with the exception of the piano hereinafter disposed of in Article V; also my milk cow or cows which I may own at the time of my death; also all my furniture and bedding upstairs.

Also to my aforesaid daughter, Mrs. Christene Tribble Bradley, I give and devise my home place on N. Main St., in the town of Due West, S. C., containing one acre more or less, being a part of what is known as the "Hood Place" and being more particularly described as follows: Bounded on the East by J. Condee Tribble, Jr., on the North by a portion of the Hood Place, on the West by lands of J. C. Tribble, known as the Henry Lot, on the South by N. Main St. and extending back from N. Main St. between the lots of J. Condee Tribble, Jr., and what is known as the Henry Lot to the rear corner of the lot owned by J. Condee Tribble, Jr., the rear boundary of this lot herein devised is to be a line beginning at the rear corner of the J. C. Tribble, Jr. lot and running thence in a westerly direction parallel with N. Main St. to a point in the line which divides this lot from the aforesaid ^{lot} lot.

daughter, also I hereby devise to my aforesaid daughter, Mrs. Christene Tribble Bradley two acres of land to be carved out of the aforesaid Henry Lot and bounded as follows: On the East by lands of J. C. Tribble, known as the Hood Place, on the South by N. Main Street, on the West by lands of S. A. Fowler, on the Hadron Place, on the North by lands of J. C. Tribble, known as the Henry Place. The northerly boundary of this two acres lot is to be a line parallel with N. Main Street and at such a distance from N. Main Street as to make the area of this lot two acres.

Art. III. I hereby give and bequeath to my son, J. Condee Tribble, Jr.;

all furniture including pictures, rugs, and such like household effects to be found in my bed room at the time of my death in my home on N. Main St., including mattresses, springs and bedding; also all furniture belonging to me which may be found in the said J. Condee Tribble's home at the time of my death; also two sorrell mules named "Jane" and "Bess", one two horse wagon and harness, one reaper, one mower and all other farm tools, implements and machinery, also all feedstuffs including corn, hay, grain, etc., to be found in my barns at the time of my death.

I, Daniel Baker Collier, of said State and County considering the uncertainty of life, but being at this time of a sound and disposing mind and memory, and desirous of disposing of all my property, both personal and real, to take effect after my death. First, I will that all my debts be settled in full by my Executor hereinafter mentioned. It is my further will that my daughter, Emily Virginia Collier, shall have individually on account of her care and attention to me during my health and indisposition, a lot in the suburb of the City of Atherille, State aforesaid, containing one acre, more or less, and bounded by lands of Hammond Baker, Sam Baker and others. It is my further will that my son Sam Collier shall have all books I have, or may hereafter accumulate. It is my further will that the residue of all my property both personal and real shall be equally divided between all my children. I herewith appoint my daughter, Emily Virginia Collier to be the Executor of this my last Will and Testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 27th day of Oct., 1928.

Signed and witnessed as the last Will of Daniel Baker Collier, who in our presence, and the presence of each other have subscribed his and our names as witnesses hereto.
