In the name of God, Amen.

I, Katie S. Grant Jenkins, do make, ordain, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore by me made.

Item 1. I commit my soul to the gracious God who gave it, and direct that my body be decently interred, and that a suitable monument be erected to my grave, and that all expenses incurred therefor be paid out of my estate.

Item 2. I will and direct that my Executor hereinafter named, shall pay all of my just debts with the first money coming into his hands.

Item 3. I will, devise and bequeath unto my beloved sister, Lula Smith, all of my household furniture, bed clothing, and personal effects.

Item 4. I will, devise and bequeath to my said sister, Lula Smith, one-half of all the rest and residue of my estate.

Item 5. Having been in the employ of the Morse family for more than fifteen years and having at all times received the most kind and considerate attention from the Misses Cara Morse, Orie Morse, and Mamie Morse, it is my desire to show my appreciation of this kindness and for this reason I will, devise and bequeath unto the said Misses Cara Morse, Orie Morse, and Mamie Morse the remaining one-half of my said estate to be divided amongst them, share and share alike.

Item 6. I will and direct that my Executor hereinafter named shall as soon after my death as is practicable sell all of my property, except that mentioned in Item No. 3 of every kind and description and to convert the same into cash and to use the proceeds therefrom in the manner above set forth.

- continued on page 552 -

Item VII. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint Joel S. Moore as Executor of this my last will and Testament.
 In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th Day of May, 1931.

I, Ellen Parker Norwood, of the State of South Carolina, County of Aiken, City of Aiken, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament.

First: I will and bequeath to my beloved nephew Edwin Parker, all of my property, consisting of stocks, bonds, and mortgages, and any real estate I may die possessed of, to use the interest from same during his life time, the principal to be divided at his death between his two children, Malvina Parker and William Parker, share and share alike.

Second: I direct that my nephew, Edwin Parker, shall use sufficient of the principal of above moneys to place a monument over my grave, and I desire that it shall be identical with that over the grave of my husband, and also that he use enough of the same money to put a cemetery fence around our plot at the cemetery.

Third: I leave to my niece, Eugenia Host, the silver belonging to me, which she now has in her home in Charleston, but if she dies without heirs, then this silver, at her death, shall go to Malvina Parker, and William Parker, to be divided equally between them. I wish to state that I am leaving no other portion of my estate to my niece, Eugenia Host, or to my sister, Martha Host, through no lack of affection for them, but because I know they are amply provided for.

Fourth: The balance of my silver now stored in the Farmers Bank of Aiken, I wish divided equally between Malvina Parker and William Parker.

Fifth: I direct that my nephew, Edwin Parker, invest one hundred dollars of the money of my estate, and use the interest from same to keep our plot at the cemetery in order.

personality or reality, for the purpose of paying my debts and making division of my property among my legatees, in the event that my legatees should not agree on a division of my property, or portions thereof, among themselves, which sale or sales may be made at either public or private sale, with or without advertisement, as in the judgment of the executors may seem best, and to do and perform every other matter and thing that may be necessary or desirable to do and perform in order to fully effectuate the purposes of my will.

Item III. I suggest that my children divide my personal effects among themselves, and that they show great consideration in making such division to my son, Rev. E. B. Kennedy, and to my daughter, Nellie K. Moore, both of whom have long lived with me.

Item IV. I commend to all of my children the care and comfort of my sister, Sommie, who has long made her home with me.

Item V. I hereby revoke any former wills by me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of February, 1925.

Signed, Sealed, published and declared as and for her last will and testament by the said Mrs. Margaret E. Kennedy who executed the same in our presence,

In Re: The Estate of Mrs. Margaret E. Kennedy, Deceased. { Renunciation of Appointment as Executor.

Whereas, Mrs. Margaret E. Kennedy, late of Due West in Atterlee County in the State of South Carolina, by her last will and testament constituted and appointed her four sons, namely, John C. Kennedy, of Troy, South Carolina, D. S. Kennedy of Moncks, South Carolina, E. B. Kennedy of Due West, South Carolina, and J. N. Kennedy of Mooreville North Carolina, as the executor thereof.

And, whereas, the said John C. Kennedy and E. B. Kennedy and J. N. Kennedy for good and sufficient reasons have decided not to accept the said appointment and not to qualify as executor of the said last will and testament and have decided to renounce the said appointment and to refuse to qualify as executor; now, therefore,

Know all Men by these Presents that we, John C. Kennedy, E. B. Kennedy, and J. N. Kennedy, do hereby renounce and refuse our appointments as executor of the last will and testament of the said Mrs. Margaret E. Kennedy and all our rights for and on account thereof renounce and refuse our rights to qualify as executor of the said will and testament.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our respective hands and seals this twenty-first day of May, 1934.
