THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE.

The Last Will and Testament of:

F. H. Leaks.

I, F. H. Leaks, formerly of Due West, in the County and State aforesaid, but now of Goldville, in the County of Laurens, in the State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, but mindful of the uncertainty of life and desiring to make disposition of my property in the event of death do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all will and dispositions of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

1. I direct that all of my just debts, funeral expenses, and expenses of my last illness be paid by my Executor hereinafter named as soon after my death as may be practicable.

2. I will, devise and bequeath to my three children, Fannie Leaks Williford, Frank Leaks and Annie Leaks Cooper, each, the sum of fifty ($50.00) dollars, the child, or children, of any deceased child to take the part the parent would have taken if living.

3. I have neither seen nor heard of my said son, Frank Leaks, for quite a number of years and I am not sure whether he is now living or not. However, should either he nor any of his children be heard from within two years from the date of my death I direct that the sum of money willed to him be equally divided between my two surviving children, the said Fannie Leaks Williford, and the said Annie Leaks Cooper. In the meantime I direct my Executor, should my said son or any of his children appear to claim the money willed to my said son by the time my Executor is ready to wind up my estate, that said sum of money be deposited in the name of my Estate at interest in some good bank and to remain there for two years following the date of my death and at the end of that time if not claimed by my son or his children, if any, that the same be turned over to my two surviving children in equal portions.

4. I hereby will and direct my Executor hereinafter named to turn over to the Trustees of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Due West, South Carolina, the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) dollars, the income from which shall be used by said Church in covering the plot in the cemetery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Due West, South Carolina, where I and the members of my family are buried in good shape.

5. All the balance and the residue of my property of every nature and kind of which I may die seized and possessed, I will, devise and bequeath to my niece, Mrs. Lizzie Craft, and her daughter, Miss Sadie Allaway of Goldville in Laurens County, South Carolina.

6. For the past thirty years I have lived alone in the town of Due West, in the County and State aforesaid, and until my health gave away, worked as a printer in the office of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian, but for the past eight months being unable to any longer earn a livelihood by my usual work, and being unable to administer to my physical needs and it not being convenient for either of my said children to give me a home with them I have been forced to accept the invitation of my said niece, Mrs. Lizzie Craft and my grand niece, Sadie Allaway, to make my home with them as I had no other place to go.

For the past six months they have given me a home and have administered to all my needs and comforts and assure me that it will be their pleasure to continue to administer unto me for the balance of my life. I feel, therefore, that they should receive the major portion of my estate to help compensate them for my board and care-keep during the declining years of my life. I make this statement in explanation of the fact that I am not making in affection for my children but that I should compensate those who have and expressed the willingness to continue to go to the expense of board and administering unto me during the balance of my life.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint P. B. Cook, Will of Due West, Abbeville County, South Carolina, as sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 8th day of October, 1932. F. H. Leaks (Seal)

Recorded May 23, 1934

Signed, sealed, published & declared by F. H. Leaks in the County of Laurens, South Carolina, and in his last will and testament in the presence of 1. Elizabeth Hannon & Fannie Williford, both of Goldville in the County of Laurens, South Carolina, and in the presence of said witnesses signed on marked on standing witnesses.

I, F. Y. Pussley, of New Heath, County, and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and sensible of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and cancelling any and all other testamentary dispositions by me heretofore made.

Art. I I direct the payment out of my estate by my Executor hereinafter named of all of my just and legal debts, funeral expenses and the cost of a suitable tombstone to mark my grave, as soon after my death as is practicable.

Art. II I hereby give and bequeath to Rev. S. T. Reid, now residing at Tampa, Fla., fifty volumes from my personal library and I also give and bequeath to Rev. James P. Pussley, who now resides at New Heath, fifty volumes from my personal library. I direct that the choice of volumes be made by the above named beneficiaries.

Art. III I hereby give and bequeath all of my household and kitchen furniture, pictures, automobiles, books (except those bequeathed in Article II, above) and such like personal effects to my beloved wife, Mrs. M. Belle Pussley to be hers absolutely and forever.

Art. IV I hereby give and bequeath unto my adopted son, Paul B. Pussley, the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars in Cash, the same to be paid to him as soon after my death as is practicable. I feel that during my lifetime my said adopted son has received the proper amount of my estate and this is my reason for making this bequest in so small an amount.

Art. V All of the rest, residue or remainder of my estate, real, personal, and mixed, of whatever nature and wheresoever situate, to which I am entitled at the time of my death, either in law or in equity, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mrs. M. Belle Pussley, for and during the term of her natural life, however, my said wife, during the life tenancy hereinabove given her, shall not be confined to the income from this my residuary estate, but she may in her sole discretion use any part of, up to and including the whole thereof, at such time or times and in such amount or amounts as she may deem wise; and I hereby give to her full power and authority, to mortgage, lease, sell or convey any or all of this my residuary estate as she may elect, and to make, execute and deliver good and sufficient title or other instrument effecting the same, and none of the provisions of this will shall be construed as a bar or any of my estate which might prohibit my said wife from exercising full power and authority over this property. Whatever balance might remain of this residuary fund at the death of my said wife over and above the amount she shall have elected to use shall be disposed of according to Articles VI and VII below.

Art. VI For the love and affection which I have for J. Allen Smith, 3rd and Belle Pussley Smith, son and daughter, respectively, of Mr. and Mrs. Max Smith of Abbeville, S.C., it is my wish and the wish of my aforesaid wife that these two children, J. Allen Smith, 3rd and Belle Pussley Smith, receive a college education, and that the costs of their college education, be guaranteed, under certain conditions hereinafter stated, by my estate. It is, therefore, my purpose, concurred in by my said wife, to see that these said children are given a four year academic course in our Church College, during my lifetime, if they shall have reached that age during my lifetime; or that, if they shall have reached that age during the lifetime of my aforesaid wife, she provide for their education out of the life estate hereinabove given her. However, it may be that neither my said wife nor myself shall live to see their education completed, and in that event, I hereby direct that at the death of my said wife, a certain trust fund be raised from the balance of my residuary estate, created in Article V, above, and paid to the Central Union Bank of South Carolina, Rock Hill, S.C., in trust for the education of these said children, the amount of said fund and the terms and conditions of the trust to be as follows: The amount of the fund shall be such a sum as will pay Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars per year per child for each year that said children or either of them shall lack of having completed their four year academic college course. If, in the discretion of the Trustee (The Central Union Bank of South Carolina), said parents are unable to pay all or any part of the costs of said college education, then the Trustee shall take from the said trust fund above created, a sufficient amount to supplement such amount, if any, as is available by said parents, up to and including the said sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars per year per child for each year that said child or children shall attend college. The payments, if such payments are required on account of the financial ability of said parents, shall be made in annual or semi-annual installments and payments shall be made by the Trustee to the college in which they shall be in attendance. Payments from this educational fund are further conditioned upon said children attending Burke College or whatever institution may be the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church's College at that time.

The Trustee shall invest said fund in such securities or investments as it may deem to be to the best interest of said trust.

Should either or both of the aforesaid children not avail themselves of a full four-year college course, or should there for any reason remain a balance of this fund when, in the discretion of the Trustee, the same is no longer needed, I direct that such balance or over-plus, together with all accrued income, be paid by my said Trustee to F. C. Brier and Dr. H. L. Presely to be used by them for the purposes as hereinafter designated in Article VII.

Art. VII After the death of my aforesaid wife, Mrs. M. Belle Presely, and the educational fund created in Article II above, shall have been paid to the Trustee, I direct that whatever balance remains of my residuary estate created in Article II above, be paid over to Dr. H. L. Presely of Due West, S.C., and F. C. Brier of Rock Hill, S.C., or the survivor, and used by them within a period of five years for the purpose of providing some permanent plant or equipment for the Department of the Seminary of Burke College. I am not able to foresee at this time just what definite or specific improvement should be made to the Department of the Seminary at that distant time, nor do I know what amount will be available under the terms of this will; however, I have made known, in a general way my wishes and ideas to Dr. Presely, and Mr. Brier, and, so far as the bequest in this will is concerned, the said Dr. Presely, and Mr. Brier, shall use this bequest and the reversions from Article II, above, as in their discretion would best serve the interests of said Theological Seminary, and, having explicit confidence in their integrity, I direct that no bond be required of them for the faithful performance of their trust.

Art. VIII I hereby name, constitute, constitute and appoint the Central Union Bank of South Carolina, Rock Hill, S.C., as executor of this my last will and testament and should said Bank merge with or be succeeded by another corporation, either before this will takes effect or during the incumbency of said Bank as executor or Trustee, the new corporation shall thereupon become the executor or Trustee if such new corporation shall have trust powers.
