The Last Will and Testament of:

J. E. Lipford

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that I wish my wife, Mary Lipford, to have all my real estate and personal property at my death.
9/11/1934.

J. E. Lipford (signed)

North Carolina
Cleveland County.

This is to certify that the above and attached is a true and correct copy of the Last Will and Testament of J. E. Lipford and the probate thereof, said Will and Probate are recorded in Book of Wills No. 5 at pages 577-578 in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Cleveland County North Carolina. This the 24th day of November, 1941.

Donie Logan
Deputy Clerk Superior Court

State of North Carolina
County of Cleveland.

Mary C. Lipford, being duly sworn, says that she is the widow of J. E. Lipford, deceased, and that the paper writing attached hereto, purporting to be the last will and testament of J. E. Lipford, deceased, was found among his valuable papers and effects after his death.

E. A. Houser, Jr. Clerk of the Superior Court for Cleveland County.

North Carolina
Cleveland County.

J. B. Thomason, J. D. Plunk, and J. R. Davis, after being duly sworn, each says for himself that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of J. E. Lipford, deceased, having often seen him write and verily believe that the name of the said J. E. Lipford subscribed to the will attached hereto and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said J. E. Lipford, and that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said J. E. Lipford.

In The Superior Court
Before The Clerk

Probate of Holograph Will

A paper writing, without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of J. E. Lipford, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open court by Mary C. Lipford, his widow; and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Mary C. Lipford, that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said J. E. Lipford, after his death.

And it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to-wit, J. B. Thomason, J. D. Plunk, and J. R. Davis, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said J. E. Lipford, having often seen him write, and verily believe that the name of the said J. E. Lipford subscribed to the said will and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said J. E. Lipford, and it is further proved by the evidence of the three last mentioned witnesses that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said J. E. Lipford.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said J. E. Lipford and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed.

Ralph Wharton Fuller

In the Name of God, Amen:

I, Ralph Wharton Fuller, of Abbeville of Abbeville County, State of So. Car. ---, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and desiring to make such disposition of my worldly estate as I deem best, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils whatever by me made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as conveniently may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Carrie Easton Fuller, all of my property of whatever nature and kind, and wheresoever situate, both real and personal, for and during her natural life, giving my said beloved wife authority to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any or all of my said property, real and personal, if such be deemed necessary by her to do so to use the proceeds therefrom for her proper support and comfort.

Third: And, at the death of my said beloved wife, should there be a residue of my said property, real or personal, I will, devise and bequeath it to Connie Maxwell Orphanage, the Baptist Orphanage of South Carolina, and/or its successor or successors, in fee simple absolute.

I nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Carrie Easton Fuller, to be the executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, giving her full power and authority to make and deliver bills of sale, conveyances, titles, deeds, etc., if such be necessary to carry into full force and effect this my last will and testament, with the Superintendent of the Connie Maxwell Orphanage to be her successor in office if necessary.

The Last Will and Testament of:

362-9180

J. R. Dunn Sr.

In the name of God, Amen:

I, J. R. Dunn, Sr. of Donalds, in the State and County aforesaid, being of sound mind and understanding and disposing memory, do make and declare the following to be my last will and Testament.

1st I will my wife, Jennie Ruth Dunn, the home place, in the town of Donalds, S.C. containing 1/2 acre more or less with all buildings thereon during her life. After said home place to go to my son Charles Henry Dunn, ^{if living,} in trust, his guardian to see that he does not dispose of said home during his life. In the event of Charles Henry Dunn's death before the death of Mrs. Jennie Ruth Dunn, then the home place is to be divided among the remaining children. I value the home place at $1,200.00. It is my desire that the sum of twelve hundred dollars be deducted from Charles Henry Dunn's part of my estate that all my heirs receive equal division of my estate.

2nd I desire that from the remaining assets of my estate, all my just debts be paid.

3rd I will that all my remaining property, after the above disposition of my home place is made, and all my debts paid, that the remaining property, either be equally divided among my wife Jennie Ruth Dunn, my daughter Margaret Dunn, my sons, J. R. Dunn Jr., Charles Henry Dunn and William Acker Dunn, or if my Executor thinks best to sell the property, to do so, and equally divide among the above mentioned heirs.

4th It is my will that in case of my death, that J. R. Dunn Jr. and W. A. Dunn my sons, liquidate my mercantile business in the town of Donalds, S.C. as they see fit. Said proceeds of the business to be divided as my property, namely among my wife and children, equally.

5th I hereby appoint Mrs. Jennie Ruth Dunn executrix of this my last will and testament, J. R. Dunn, Jr. and W. A. Dunn as her advisors.

6th I hereby appoint Mrs. Jennie Ruth Dunn, as Guardian for my son Charles Henry Dunn, J. R. Dunn Jr., and William Acker Dunn, as her advisors, and in case of her death they to act jointly as Guardians of Charles Henry Dunn.

7th I will that my three store buildings in the town of Donalds, S.C. shall be deeded to my sons J. R. Dunn, Jr. and William Acker Dunn, they to assume the indebtedness of five hundred ($500.00) upon these buildings. I will this that they may be compensated for their services in managing my estate.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Reuben Archie (R.A.) Keaton

I, Reuben Archie (R.A.) Keaton, of Antreville community, Abbeville County, State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and desiring to make such disposition of my worldly estate as I deem best, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils whatever by me made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as convenient may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same, including the proper marking of my grave.

Second: I will and direct that all of my immediate personal effects be adequately appraised in the regular manner, and that these articles be equitably distributed by my Executor, hereinafter named, among my children hereinafter named, share and share alike, the child or children of any deceased child or children to take the part or parts that would have gone to their parent or parents, had such been living.

Third: I will and direct that all of my other personal property and all of my real estate be sold at public sale by my Executor in the usual manner or custom of such sales, and the proceeds arising therefrom be equally divided between my beloved children, namely: Mrs. Sara H. Jones, Mrs. Helen H. Cheatham, Leon Keaton, Mottie T. Keaton, Mrs. Winton H. Derrick, Archie H. Keaton, Fay Keaton and Letton Carlisle Keaton, share and share alike, the child or children of any deceased child or children to take the part or parts that would have gone to their parent or parents, had such been living.

Fourth: Should my Executor think best, I hereby authorize him to make equitable distribution among my children, as set out above, all of the household goods and household effects after due appraisal of these articles. I mention this for the reason that I feel that my children may wish these items divided among themselves rather than to have them sold at public auction; and if such is their desire, I hereby authorize my Executor to make such a division after these articles have been duly appraised.

Fifth: In the sale of any personal property that is to be sold, I will and direct that such sale be made in or about my homeplace, and I will and direct that my real estate be sold at public auction before the Abbeville County Court House door, after being duly advertised, and the proceeds deriving therefrom be divided as above stated. In making the above sales, I hereby authorize my Executor, hereinafter named, to give good and sufficient bills of sale, titles, deeds, etc. as may be necessary to carry out the terms of this my last will and Testament.

Sixth: I will and direct that all notes, mortgages, securities, etc. be converted into cash, and the proceeds arising therefrom be divided by my Executor as set out above.

Seventh: In the sale of my real estate, I suggest that the homeplace be cut up into several tracts, if this is deemed advisable by my Executor, as I believe that in this manner the said real estate can be sold to best advantage to all concerned.

I nominate and appoint my son, Archie H. Keaton, to be the executor of this my last will and Testament hereby giving him full power and authority to carry this my last will and Testament into full force and effect.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my last will and Testament at Abbeville, South Carolina, this 3rd day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty.

The Last Will and Testament of:

I, Mrs. Nannie Barrett Wood of Abbeville, South Carolina, do make, ordain, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament hereby revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

1. I will and direct that all just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my decease and such payment shall be made from money I have on deposit in the bank of Abbeville, South Carolina.

2. I will and bequeath to my daughter, Maude Olivia Wood, all the money that remains in my account in the Bank of Abbeville after all of the aforesaid expenses and debts have been paid, such money to be paid unto her by my executors at the rate of $50.00 per month.

3. I will and bequeath to my daughter, Maude Olivia Wood, all the furniture and room furnishings in the room which I occupy in my home in Abbeville and I will and bequeath to my said daughter all of my clothing.

4. I will, devise and bequeath unto my son David Maurice Wood, Jr. and my daughter Maude Olivia Wood, and my son George Barrett Wood, share and share alike, all of my property, tangible, intangible or whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, of which I may die seized, possessed or to which I may be entitled to at my decease.

It is my wish that my daughter, Maude Olivia Wood, shall have the use of my home in Abbeville, South Carolina, until she secures a position. This is simply an expression of desire or wish and is not binding upon the beneficiaries of this will unless it is agreeable to them.

5. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint, my son, David Maurice Wood, Jr., and Thomas Sherard, of Abbeville, South Carolina, as executors of this my last will and testament and direct that they shall not be required to give bond for the faithful performance of their duties as such executors. The said executors shall have full power to sell or mortgage any property belonging to my estate in any manner and upon such terms as they deem advisable and the said executors shall have full power to settle and compromise claims for and against my estate.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this 25th day of July, 1942.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Harriet Young

I, Harriet Young, of Due West, in said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and desiring to make disposition of my property in case of death, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my last Will and Testament.

Item I. I direct my executrix hereinafter named as soon after my death as possible to pay all my just debts.

Item II. I will and devise to my daughter Lillie Dodson my house and lot in Due West township, in said State and County, containing one-half acre, more or less and bounded by lands of R. S. Galloway, Angelina Washington, William Washington and estate lands of Dr. J. S. Moffatt, being the same conveyed to me by the executrix and executor of the estate of Dr. J. S. Moffatt by deed dated August 14th, 1923, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Court for said State and County in Book 45 at page 29.

Item III. I will and bequeath to my said daughter Lillie Dodson my household and kitchen furniture of every kind, and all my personal property.

Item IV. I make no disposition of my property in favor of my other children for the reason that I have otherwise provided for them, and for the further reason that I desire all my property above described to go to my daughter Lillie Dodson on account of services and kindness rendered and shown me in my lifetime.

Item V. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said daughter Lillie Dodson sole executrix of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, this 29th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-four and in the one hundred and forty-eighth year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.

Robert Milton Stevenson

I, Robert Milton Stevenson, of Due West in the said state and county, being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, but somewhat advanced in years and desiring to make disposition of my property at my death, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following to be and for my last will and testament, to wit:

Item one. I will and direct that my Executors hereinafter named, as soon after my death as practicable pay all my just debts, including the expenses of my last illness and my funeral expenses, and that they do erect at my last resting place a suitable marker in my family plot in the cemetery at Due West, S.C.

Item two. I will and bequeath to my three children, Robert Mason Stevenson, Ralph Eskine Stevenson, and Laurence Browner Stevenson, each the sum of Ten Dollars. I make no further bequest or devise in their favor at their request and for the reason that my said three children are well provided for in life and desire my estate to go to their other brothers and sisters.

Item 3. I will and bequeath to my son William Martin Stevenson my sermons together with the books in my library.

Item 4. I will and devise to my daughter Mary Stevenson Butts, the house and lot, and the furniture and furnishings therein belonging to me in the town of Due West where I now reside, and said lot containing Seventy six one hundredths of an acre and bounded by lands of E. L. Reid, W. W. Edwards, and Cedar Street.

Item 5. I will and devise to my son, William Martin Stevenson my Cowan Place, containing sixty one and one fourth acres more or less, and lying about one mile Southeast of Due West, adjoining lands of J. S. Ellis, R. S. Ellis and others.

Item 6. I will and devise to my son, Calvin Grier Stevenson, my tract of land known as the Todd Place, lying on the Due West - Donalds road, adjoining lands of C. B. Leonard, except Haddon Place and others, containing sixty acres more or less, during his lifetime; said tract at the death of Calvin Grier Stevenson to revert to his brother, William Martin Stevenson, and his sister, Mrs Mary Stevenson Butts, or to their legal heirs. It is understood that it is a condition of this bequest that no mortgage will be placed on said tract, nor will it be sold or given away or otherwise disposed of without first having consulted with and obtained the approval of his brothers, Robert Mason
