The Last Will and Testament of:

Ernest W. Hagan

I, Ernest W. Hagan of Due West, County of Abbeville, State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and desiring to make such disposition of my worldly estate as I deem best, Do hereby make, Publish and Declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils whatever by me made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as conveniently may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.

Second: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Addie Ellis Hagan, all of my personal property of whatsoever nature and kind, including monies and choses in action, for and during her natural life or widowhood, hereby authorizing her to make any disposition of said property as she may deem wise for the best interest of herself and our children. I her, at her death I will and direct that whatever personally remains in my estate be sold and the proceeds therefrom be equally divided among my children, Haxey J. Hagan, Agnes S. Hagan, Dorothy R. Hagan, Eva H. Staudemire and Inez C. Hagan, or their bodily heirs per stirpes, share and share alike, the child or children of a deceased child or children to take the part or parts that the parent or parents would have taken if living. Should my said wife see fit to remarry I will and direct that all personal property in my estate at that time be sold, after due appraisal, and that the proceeds therefrom be divided as follows: one-third to my beloved wife and the remaining two-thirds to be divided between my said children as indicated above.

Third: I will and devise to my beloved wife, Addie Ellis Hagan, for and during her natural life or widowhood, all of my real estate of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situate for her comfortable maintenance and support and for the maintenance and support of any of our children that may remain in our home; and at her death, I will and devise the said realty to my children or their lawful heirs per stripes, share and share alike, the child or children of a deceased child or children to take the part or parts that the parent or parents would have taken if living, in fee simple absolute. Should my beloved wife see fit to remark, I will and direct that my realty be sold and the proceeds therefrom be divided as follows: one third to my beloved wife and the remaining two thirds to be divided between my said children, as indicated above.

Fourth: I will and direct that my estate, personally and realty, be charged to the extent of completing the education of my youngest daughter, Frances E. Hagan, she being the only child whose education has not been completed.

Fifth: My estate has benefited and may further benefit from personal funds of my beloved wife. I will and direct that she in any and all cases be fully protected to the extent of such funds that she may have advanced or may advance into my estate.

Sixth: It is my desire that my beloved wife, Addie Ellis Hagan, serve as executrix to this my last Will and Testament for and during her natural life or widowhood. At her death I will and direct that my son, Harry J. Hagan, assume her duties as Executor to finish carrying into full force and effect this my last Will and Testament, hereby placing upon him all power and authority here below given to my beloved wife. In case my beloved wife see fit to remarry I direct my son, Harry J. Hagan, to assume duties as Co. Executor along with my beloved wife, hereby giving him all power and authority herebelow given her.

I nominate and appoint my beloved wife, Addie Ellen Hagan, to be the executrix of this my Last Will and Testament hereby giving her authority to sell at public or private sale or otherwise dispose of any of my property, personal or real, as she deems best to fulfill the terms of this my last will and Testament, giving her power to make good and sufficient titles or other conveyances of any sales that she may make.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my Last Will and Testament at Due West, South Carolina this 15th day of November in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty five.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Jessie D. Kennedy

I, Jessie D. Kennedy, being of sound mind, do make and declare the following to be my last will and testament, to wit:

1st: About three years ago I was offered $6,000. for my home place which consists of dwelling house, out buildings and 13 acres of land, and I consider it worth that amount at the present time. However James Todd has borne all expense of the upkeep of the place, for the past eighteen years. For that reason I feel that I only have one half interest in the place.

2nd: Some years ago I deeded the little tract of land at Coblesbury to Julia K. Moseley, and which she afterwards sold for $1000.00 I deeded her this land in lieu of her interest in the home place.

3rd: I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucille K. Todd my one half interest in my home place which I consider worth $3,000.00. Now, this is more than the sale price which Julia K. Moseley received for her land but I consider she should have this advantage, because of the care and responsibility she has had, and will have of me.

5th: I give and bequeath to Cliborne L. Moseley the sum of $1,000.00.

6th: I give and bequeath to James K. Todd the sum of $1,000.00.

7th: I give and bequeath to Margaret Moseley Dent the sum of $500.00.

8th: I give and bequeath to Archie Kennedy Moseley the sum of $500.00.

9th: I give and bequeath to Marion Mastigee Moseley the sum of $500.00.

10th: I give and bequeath to Jean Kennedy Todd the sum of $500.00.

11th: All the rest and residue of my estate that may remain after the foregoing bequests are paid, I give and bequeath to my daughters, Lucille K. Todd and Julia K. Moseley, to be divided equally between them, share and share alike.

13th: I hope to have enough money now invested to take care of my drs. bill and funeral expenses.

14th: I appoint C. L. Moseley and J. K. Todd executors of this my last will, without bond.
