

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Georgia Gordon Miller

I, Georgia Gordon Miller, of Charleston South Carolina, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by me theretofore made.

I desire my just debts paid.

I give, devise, and bequest all my estate, real, personal, and mixed, & wheresoever situate, unto my son Gordon Miller and my daughter Marguerite C. Miller, in equal shares.

I request that my said son and daughter will make provision for the support of my brother J. Evans Gordon and my sister-in-law Mary C. Miller.

I appoint my said son, and daughter executor and executrix of my will & hereby give to them, or either that may qualify, & to the survivor, full power & authority to sell all or any part of my estate, real or personal, at public or private sale, and upon such terms as they may deem best, for the purpose of paying debts, legacies, for purposes of division & distribution or for any other administrative purpose.

Witness my hand and seal this 21st day of July, 1931.

Georgia Gordon Miller (L.S.)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named testatrix, Georgia Gordon Miller, as and for her last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who, in her presence, and at her request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto set our hands as witnesses to the due execution thereof.

John W. Abercrombie

I, John W. Abercrombie, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament.

I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Nannie Dora Abercrombie, during her natural life, all of my real estate and all of my personal property including money, notes, mortgages, live stock and personal property of every description. It is my will and desire that my wife have absolute control of all my property during her life, and that out of the income therefrom she shall keep in good repair and condition all buildings and improvements on the land owned by me; and if it becomes necessary for her support and maintenance, she is hereby given the right and empowered to sell and dispose of same without applying to the Courts and without advertisement, at private or public sale, and without obtaining permission and consent of my Executors hereinafter named. The above legacy to my wife is in lieu of dower.

II. After the death of my wife, Nannie Dora Abercrombie, I give, devise and bequeath to James Elmer Abercrombie, my grandson, during his life, my storeroom and lot on East Green Street, in the Town of Hotchkiss Park, South Carolina.

III. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest of my property, both real and personal and mixed, to the following persons and in the following proportions:

To Raymond Abercrombie, one third;
To Eugene Abercrombie; one third;
To John Abercrombie; one third;

IV. If any one of my sons should die leaving issue then it is my will and desire that the issue of such deceased son shall take his share of the property herein willed and devised to him.

V. After the death of my wife, I give to my Executors full power to sell, dispose of, and convey any of my real estate and any of my personal property, with or without advertisement, at private or public sale, just as my Executors deem best.

VI. I nominate and appoint my sons, Raymond Abercrombie and John Abercrombie, Executors of this my last will and testament.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Annie Liddell Florence

I, Annie Liddell Florence, a widow, a resident of Lowndesville, S.C., of sound mind and disposing memory and more than twenty-one years of age, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament; hereby expressly revoking all other Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

I.

I direct that all my just debts, including expenses of my last illness, be paid out of my estate by my executrix hereinafter named as soon after my death as may be practicable.

II.

I give and bequeath all corporate stock of El Paso Natural Gas Company and of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, of which I may be possessed, to the three living children of Thomas C. Liddell, Jr. and wife Agnes Liddell,

Viz

A daughter, Joyce Mae, born April 24, 1925

A daughter, Patsy Ann, born December 19, 1928; and

A son, Thomas Sanford, born July 7, 1943

equally and share and share alike, or to the survivors or survivor thereof should one or more of them predecease me, such children being my grandchildren and grandnephews. I direct, insofar as I am legally able to do so, that their mother, Agnes Liddell, qualify as guardian of the estate of said children and as such receive said stock from my executrix, and further that all dividends and income from said stock or from other assets into which the stock may be converted and/or so much of each child's interest in the principal as may be authorized by proper order of court shall be used by such guardian for the support, maintenance and education of such children so long as they are minors, it being my intention that, as and when each of such children shall become of lawful age or shall marry, his or her then remaining interest in said corporate stocks or the respective ward's estate shall be turned over and delivered to him or her by said guardian. Neither the respective companies issuing said stocks nor the registries nor transfer agents thereof shall ever be required to look to the application of any dividends or other proceeds paid or distributed to said guardian but her receipt therefor or endorsement of dividend checks shall be full acquittance; likewise, a certified copy of this will shall be full authority to them and each of them for the transfer of such stock to said guardian.

III.

All of the rest and residue of my property and estate, real personal, and mixed, including cash and my jewelry and personal effects, I give and bequeath to my sister, Kate Liddell Baskin of Anderson, South Carolina, should she survive me to take hereunder, but should she not survive to take hereunder then I give, bequeath and devise all of said rest and residue of my estate to the three children of my said sister, viz: Sara Baskin Burgess, wife of Al Burgess, Catherine Baskin Avery, wife of Philip Avery, and Thomas Baskin Jr., share and share alike; provided further that should any of said children of my said sister not survive to take hereunder but should leave surviving children of his or her body, then the share and interest which such deceased child would have taken had he or she survived shall pass, per stirpes, to and vest in the surviving child or children of such deceased child, share and share alike.

IV.

I name, constitute and appoint my sister, Kate Liddell Baskin, sole executrix of my estate, and direct that no bond or other security be required of her and that no proceedings be had up on my estate in the Probate Court, Chancery Court, or any other Court save the probating this will and the filing of an inventory and list of claims. If my said sister, Kate Liddell Baskin, should not survive me or for any reason should fail or refuse to qualify as executrix, then I name, constitute and appoint her son, my nephew, Thomas Baskin, Jr. independent executor of this my will and estate, with like powers, immunities and privileges as above provided for my said sister, Kate Liddell Baskin.

Richmond County

I, Charles H. Harris, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, make, publish and declare this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made;

All my just debts to be promptly paid

(2) I nominate, constitute and appoint my son Leroy Harris and The National Exchange Bank of Augusta, Georgia, as my Executors. I relieve them from giving bond. In the distribution of my estate, or the settlement thereof, and where necessary therefor, I empower said Executors, or whichever of them may qualify or survive, to sell any part of my estate at public or private sale, without advertisement or order of any Court.

(3) I give, devise and bequeath to my sister-in-law Mrs. L. M. Bennett of Norfolk, Virginia, the sum of one thousand dollars in cash.

(4) I give, devise and bequeath in fee simple house and lot #1548 Broad Street, Augusta, Georgia, to my brother John Harris. In addition thereto I direct my Executors to pay out of my estate the sum of twenty dollars per month to my said brother John during his life time.

(5) All the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, and wheresoever located, and of whatsoever consisting, I wish and direct that the same be equally divided between my seven children now in life and a grand-son John Harris Jr. who is the son of my deceased son John Harris.

The share given to my son Charles Harris Jr. is to be held and retained by my Executors and out of such share he is to paid monthly the sum of thirty five dollars per month until such share is exhausted. In the event of extraordinary emergencies, such as sickness or hospitalization, said Executors are empowered without let or approval of any Court, to encroach further upon the corpus of his share.

(6) In the event of either of such legates dying before me leaving children then his or her share shall go to his or her children. In the event either of such legates dying before me leaving no issue, then his or her share shall go to his or her surviving brothers or sisters.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this June 12, 1943.

I, Mrs. Anna T. Bowie of the County of Abbeville, State of South Carolina, wife of A.C. Bowie, being of sound and disposing mind and realizing the certainty of death, do make this my last Will and Testament.

First: I direct my Executors hereinafter named to pay all my just debts.

Second: I bequeath to my husband, A.C. Bowie, all personal property of every kind and nature, which I may be seized at the time of my death, to be disposed of as he sees fit.

Third: I devise all Real property which I may be seized at the time of my death to my husband, A.C. Bowie, for and during his life time, and after the death of my husband, A.C. Bowie, said Real property is to be divided equally among my children, namely: Allie B. Beauford, E. Boddy Bowie, W. Clifton Bowie, Allen B. Bowie, Lillian A. James, Olin Bowie and Howard Bowie, share and share alike, except as to W. Clifton Bowie. Said W. Clifton Bowie having been advanced Five Hundred and Seventy Five ($575.00) Dollars, he is to refund this amount out of his share of the real estate before he can participate in the division of the real property.

Should any of my said children predecease me or my husband, A.C. Bowie, his, her or their children shall take the share of their deceased parent.

I nominate my daughter, Mrs. Allie Beauford and my son, Olin Bowie, Executor and Executor of this my last Will and Testament, they to act without being required to give bond.

Item 2. I direct that my debts and funeral expenses be paid out of cash on hand, insurance money and the sale of such liquid assets as may be necessary and as my executor may deem expedient, full authority being hereby vested in him to convert the same into cash, in his absolute discretion.

Item 3. I make the following specific bequests:

(a) To my cousin J. L. Perrin of Abbeville the silver pitcher marked "Perrin", bequeathed to me by my mother;

(b) To my cousin Thomas Cathran Perrin of Bishopville, the silver pitcher presented to me as speaker of the House of Representatives;

(c) To my friend John W. Lipscomb the gold cuff buttons with the figure of a flying bird upon them.

Item 4. On March 18, 1929, I invested $4,477.50 in corporate securities for Kitty J. Perrin. I direct my executor to take the stock off her hands and pay her the above amount with interest at 7 per cent from March 18, 1929 less such dividends of cash or stock which she may have realized upon. My intention is to indemnify her from all loss on account of said investment.

Item 5. What may then remain of my estate, I direct shall be divided
