

Emma H. Frasier

In the name of God, amen.

I, Emma H. Frasier of Abbeville County, State of South Carolina, do make, ordain, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament.

Item I. I commit my soul to the gracious God who gave it, and direct that my body be decently interred according to the rites of my Church, and that a suitable monument be erected to mark my grave, and that all expense incurred therefor be paid out of my estate.

Item II. I will and direct that my executrix hereinafter named shall pay all of my just debts with the first money coming in to her hands.

Item III. I will, devise and bequeath all of my property, both real and personal, to my husband, Robert H. Frasier, with power to sell and dispose of the same as he may deem best for his own interest and that of his children. At his death any remainder to go to my daughter, Martha F. Williams, one share, and to my grandchildren, Thomas L. Frasier, and Wynnie A. Frasier, the other share. In the event my daughter, Martha, dies without having heirs before her father, her share to go to all of my children, share and share alike.

Item IV. I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my daughter, Martha F. Williams, as executrix of this my last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this 19th day of June, A. D. 1952.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Emma H. Frasier as and for her last will and testament in the presence of us, who in her presence, and of each other, at her request have subscribed our names as witnesses.

Knowing as I do, that everyone must die sooner or later, I freely and voluntarily make this my Will and Testament.

First: That my burial expenses and such and every debt that I shall owe be paid in full and that all accounts I may hold be collected.
Second: I request that my wife Maggie Cole Kay, erect at my grave within one year after I am dead, a plain, solid and substantial monument and that she put a curb around the plot containing my grave.

Third: I will and bequeath to my wife Maggie Kay all the property both real and personal that I may possess at the time of my death, my wife may live. If there should be child born by our marriage, then at the death of my wife, all that may remain of my property is to be sold or equally divided among my children as they may see fit to do.

It is my request that my home remain in my family if possible. If there should be no children by our marriage, then at the death of my wife, Maggie Kay, all remaining property is to be sold and equally divided between my people and her people, one half going to the next of kin of the two families.

If there should be children and my wife should marry a second time, then at her ^{second} marriage, her rights to all property and effects including cash or insurance shall cease on that day, and the property shall then go to my children. She shall at such a second marriage receive $100.00 One hundred dollars as her final share of my estate. The said property is then to be all sold by my children or their guardians and the money equally divided between my children and placed in the Bank of Home Path at interest and be paid out to them by said bank as they may become of age. Children may use any interest that may accumulate in helping them get through school. Should my wife marry a second time, and I should have no children, then all that remains of my property at her second marriage is to be sold and equally divided between herself and my next of kin. She to receive one half and my people one half. It is my will that my wife keep my home as a homestead for herself and any children that may be as long as she may live, unless she shall marry a second time, then it is to be sold and divided as set forth above. Any and all my remaining property both real and personal may be sold by her at my death if she decides except my home place, that shall not be sold except she marry again.

I give: All my insurance that I may leave shall go to my wife at my death except as in clause four, with the exception of two hundred dollars ($200.00). Upon collecting same she shall deposit $200.00 in the Bank of Home Oath and interest to be held by said bank until her death then the said amount and interest shall be used by the bank to erect a monument at her grave. This amount cannot be divided or drawn by any one in any case except for this one purpose. I so this in order that her grave shall not fail to be marked. It is my request that our bodies be buried side by side.

I give: I name my wife Maggie Cole Kay as my executrix. Should she marry again, then the Bank of Home Oath shall become my executor and the guardian of any children I may have.

Lawrie Wilson Brown

I, Lawrie Wilson Brown, of the City of Abbeville, County of Abbeville, and State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make, publish and declare this instrument to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills or codicils by me heretofore made.

Item I: I direct that my body be interred in a concrete vault, similar to the one in which Annie Mary was buried, in my cemetery plot in the City of Gainesville and State of Florida.

Item II: I direct that all my just debts, together with my funeral expenses, be paid as soon after my death as practicable.

Item III: I give and devise to my beloved wife, Maggie E. Brown, Lots Numbers 1, 2 and 3, and Lot Number 4, and Lot Number 4 of the Brown Sub-Division in the City of Abbeville, South Carolina, as shown on a plat recorded in the Office of the Probate Judge of Abbeville County, South Carolina, upon which is located my home dwelling and two (2) duplex houses, to have and to hold the same for the term of her natural life, and upon her death, I give and devise the same to my four (4) children, Reverend S. E. Brown, Marguerite B. Smith, L. W. Brown, Jr., and Harriet E. Sims, to have and to hold the same in fee simple. In the event either of my said children should precede me in death, leaving surviving a natural child or children, such natural child or children shall receive the share of my estate herein devised to such parent.

Item IV: All the rest and residue of my property, both real and personal, which I now have or may hereafter acquire, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my said four (4) children, named in Item three above, to have and to hold the same in fee simple, a natural child or children of a deceased child or children to take the share which its or their parent or parents would have taken if living.

Item V: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my daughter, Marguerite B. Smith,
