The Last Will and Testament of:

J. P. Pratt

Know all men, that I, J. P. Pratt, being of sound mind do make this my last will and testament

1st After all my just debts are paid I will and bequeath to my wife Gussie Armstrong Pratt all my property (Both real & personal) to have during her lifetime.

2nd It is my desire that my estate shall be held in trust, by my wife, Gussie Armstrong Pratt, and in the event the income from said Estate is not sufficient to keep her and my children Mahel Pratt, Ruth Pratt, Eva Pratt, S. J. Pratt and Rachel Pratt in comfort, then she - Gussie Armstrong Pratt shall have the right to dispose of whatever tract that seems best to her, that she and the above named children may be kept in comfort.

3rd. After the death of my wife Gussie Armstrong Pratt and all of her just debts are paid I desire that my estate if any be left be equally divided between my children, Mahel Pratt, Ruth Pratt, Eva Pratt, S. J. Pratt & Rachel Pratt, provided there are no minor children at the time of my wife's death.

If there be minor children I desire that all minor children be given an equal amount, the older children have received for an education and living expenses until they are 21 years old. And then all share alike. I hereby appoint my wife - Gussie Armstrong Pratt sole admx of my estate without bond.

Sealed and signed in the presence of

J. P. Pratt

J. H. Brooks

J. W. Watt

J. R. Eldred

4-7-47

It is my desire that if at my death any of my children owe my estate anything they are to account for it before sharing in said estate

 Mundy, Marion Raymond Mundy, Albert Carroll
 Mundy, Joannie Wildes Mundy, & Sapha
 Blanche Mundy, or their bodily heirs per stirpes, share & share alike. Should my said wife see fit to remarry,
 I will & direct that all my personal property in my estate at that time be sold by my Executors, after due appraisal, and that the proceeds therefrom be equally divided between my beloved wife & my said children, or their bodily heirs per stirpes, share & share alike.

Third: I will and devise to my beloved wife, Sula Blanche Mundy, for and during her natural life or widowhood, all of my real estate of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situate for her comfortable maintenance & support and for the maintenance, education & support of my minor children; and at her death I will and devise the said realty to my children

The Last Will and Testament of:

E. L. Reid

I, E. L. Reid of County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and sensible of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and declare this to be my last will and Testament, and do hereby revoke and cancel all other testamentary dispositions heretofore made by me.

Article I - I direct the payment out of my estate by my executor or executors herein after named of all my just and legal debts, and my general expenses - including outlay for tombstone of moderate cost as soon after my death as may be practicable.

I bequeath Five hundred ($500.00) Dollars to my grandson and namesake, Edward Leonidas Reid II (Teddy), to be held in trust by his father for this grandson's education or benefit. This bequest is to be paid as soon as practicable after death of my wife.

Also, I bequeath my gold watch, which was a gift from my father, to my son, Abraham Reid. It would be gratifying to have this watch pass from him to his oldest son, so that it may remain in the family.

Article II - All the residue of my property or estate of whatever nature I bequeath to my beloved wife, Virginia They Reid. In case my wife should be deceased prior to my death, then in that case I direct that my estate be divided equally - share and share alike - among my three children, Mrs. Virginia Reid Johnston, Mrs. Isabel Reid Hunter and C. Abraham Reid. In the event of the death of anyone of the above children before he or she receives his or her distribution in full his or her share shall go to the child or children of the deceased, if there be such child or children, otherwise to the next blood-kin of the deceased - a child or children in all cases representing the parent.

In making distribution of my estate as provided for above my executor may make distribution in kind or partly in kind and partly in cash. In case it is deemed wise to make distribution in cash, a reasonable time should be allowed within which to convert any property into cash.

Article III - I hereby appoint my wife, Virginia They Reid executrix of this my last will and testament, giving her full authority to sell and transfer any portion of my estate for the purpose of administration or distribution of same.

In the event of her decease prior to my death, I hereby appoint the following as my executors: Mrs. Virginia Reid Johnston, Mrs. Isabel Reid Hunter and C. Abraham Reid. In the case of the death of any one of the above co-executors or in case any one of them should fail to qualify, the other shall not be disqualified thereby.

Witness my hand and seal this <sup>30th</sup> day of Dec., 1962
