The Last Will and Testament of:

Annie M. Haddon

In the Name of God, Amen:-

I, Annie M. Haddon, of Abbeville County, State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills and Codicils by me made.

First: All property, both real, personal, and mixed, which I shall own at my death and all property over which I shall then have any power of appointment, I give, will, devise, and bequeath to my husband, Banner L. Haddon, if he shall survive me. If my said husband should predecease me, all property, both, real, personal, and mixed which I shall own at my death and all property over which I shall then have any power per stirpes to such of my children as shall survive me.

Second: I appoint my husband, Banner L. Haddon, to be the executor of this my Last Will and Testament. If he should fail to qualify or cease to act as such executor, I appoint my daughter, Frances Haddon Cash, and my son, David Leroy Haddon, executrix and executor in his place, and request that they not be required to give any bonds.

In witness whereof, I have signed my name at the foot and end of this my Last Will and Testament and affixed my seal this 6th day of April, 1959.

AS Annie M. Haddon (L.S.)

I, Nancy Johnson Massey, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made:

1. I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid by my Executor and Executrix hereinafter named.

2. I give and bequeath to my nieces, Mary, Mabel and Margie Johnson, or their survivors, my set of Haviland china, six silver tablespoons with initials "J. G. J."; my father's and mother's pictures and frames in my bedroom over the mantel, marble top table in the hall at the left as you enter the hall from the living room, small table, with painted top in living room, my vase of hand made wax flowers on the mantel in living room, my set of aluminum ware, my gold watch, my day bed (the frame, not the mattress). My reason for leaving them more than the other members of their family is that they own and maintain the home.

3. I give and bequeath to my niece, Susie Johnson Dergeant, my folding screen, blue China vase, silver powder container, a rocking chair which will have her name pasted on the bottom. I have previously given her in person a pair of picture frames; also, I give and bequeath to her my sewing machine if she can use it.

4. I give and bequeath to my nephew, William H. Johnson, the hand made wardrobe in my bedroom, table in living room given me by his Aunt, Mrs. Sallie Cunningham, a rocking chair with arms which will have his name pasted on the bottom.

5. I give and bequeath to my nephew, Patterson B. Johnson, my radio, three bone handle knives, rattan living room suite.

6. I give and bequeath to my nephew, Jonathan Joseph Johnson, the small desk in the living room. I have previously given him in person several articles such as pieces of china, etc.

7. Any money I may have at my death, I wish divided into four (4) equal shares, one share to go to each of my step children, Henry Massey, and Nelle Massey Lipscomb and to the wives of my two deceased step children, namely, Bessie Massey and Lena Massey.

8. The framed picture of Mrs. Emmie B. Baskin, hanging on the living room wall, I wish to go to my step daughter, Nelle Massey Lipscomb.
