Being of sound body and mind, I hereby bequeath and devise all my worldly possessions, real and personal, tangible and intangible, to my beloved wife, Connie Elizabeth Poole, nee Britt, with no reservations or qualifications whatever.

I appoint her executrix of my estate with no requirement for fidelity bond nor any restriction not mandatory by law. I declare that this testament is an expression of formal and legal proof of my absolute confidence in my wife, the said Connie Elizabeth Poole. It is my order and desire that she shall be my sole heir.

I am confident that the said Connie Elizabeth Poole will, according to my expectations and instructions, provide for our two children, James Bernard Poole and Victoria Anne Poole, her continuing loving care and protection as well as the material comforts of life to the fullest extent of her financial resources.

I further express my confidence that, following the dictates of her Christian faith, the said Connie Elizabeth Poole will provide for my mother, Anna Belle Poole, should the latter survive me, the love, protection, and material support which she has willingly and devotedly extended to the said Anna Belle Poole during the happy years of our marriage.

I disclaim and deny the right or authority of any person whatever to contest the expressed instructions, intentions, and wishes which I have set forth therein above.

This is a true copy of my last will and testament, so help me God.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF J.L. WILLIAMS

I, J.L. Williams, a resident of the County of Spartanburg, State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and testamentary disposition, hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking all other instruments testamentary heretofore by me executed.

ITEM I. I will and direct that all of my just debts be paid as soon as reasonably convenient after my death.

ITEM II. I will and bequeath all of my personal property to my beloved wife, Leila K. Williams, for and during her natural lifetime and at her death to my beloved son, John K. Williams, provided, however, that cash money on hand at my death shall not be deemed personal property as mentioned above but the said money on hand at my death to be divided equally among my children, excluding John since he will take the other personal property. Therefore, the cash money on hand at my death will be equally divided among my following children or the Heirs of any deceased child or children, namely: Sarah W. Love, Louis Williams, Ruth W. McMahan, Frances W. Westbrook, Nina W. Barr, Juanita W. Bishop, Edna W. Ellis and Francis Earl Williams.

ITEM III. I will and devise my real property, to wit: To my beloved wife, Leila K. Williams, I will and devise the home place, situate on Brock Street, Southern Shops, State and County aforesaid. Said home place having a frontage of 225 feet on Brock Street and a depth of 300 feet to a new street, which was originally the line of the Audrey property. She is to have the use and enjoyment of such property for and during her natural lifetime and at her death this particular property is to go to my beloved son, John K. Williams. All the rest of my real property is to be equally divided among the following children, share and share alike, namely: Sarah W. Love, Louis Williams, Ruth W. McMahan, Frances W. Westbrook, Nina W. Barr, Juanita W. Bishop, Edna W. Ellis and Francis Earl Williams.

ITEM IV. I hereby appoint, constitute and nominate my beloved son, John K. Williams, Executor of this Will, directing that he serve without bond, and giving him full power of sale over any or all of said property at any time during the administrative period, directing that he make good and sufficient legal title to the purchaser or purchasers thereof who shall not be required to follow the proceeds.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

We, Charley Tolbert, and Maggie P. Tolbert, man and wife, do make, ordain, publish and declare, this as and for our last will and testament, hereby revoking all instruments of a testamentary nature by us heretofore made. We both being of sound mind and discretion but being mindful of the uncertainties of life.

Item 1. We do direct our executor hereinafter named to pay all out just debts with the first money coming in to his or her hands.

Item 2. We, and each of us do hereby will, devise to the survivor of us all of the Forty One Tract of Land formerly belonging to Dr. W.L. Pressly estate and deeded to Charley Tolbert by the daughters of Dr. W.L. Pressly for and during the natural life of the survivor of us. That is to say that I do hereby will and bequeath to my wife, (Charley Tolbert) Maggie P. Pruitt to be hers for and during her natural life, remainder to be willed in a later paragraph. And I Maggie P. Tolbert who am now owner of one-half undivided interest in said Forty One Acre tract of land secured from the Dr. W.L. Pressly estate, do will and devise to my husband Charley Tolbert the said Forty One tract of land to Charley Tolbert for and during his natural life - and I do will devise and bequeath to my son Fletcher Pruitt the remainder of said land. It is our intention as herein expressed for the survivor of each of us to have the land during (their) his or her natural life with right to use the same to the best interest of the survivor subject to paragraphs hereinafter written.

Item- 3- We both, Charlie Tolbert and Maggie P. Tolbert to hereby will devise and bequest to Fletcher Pruitt, our son and step son, ten acres of the above Forty One Acres of land bought from Dr. W.L. THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

DAVID L. HADDON

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN:

I, DAVID L. HADDON, of Greenwood County, South Carolina, being of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills and Codicils heretofore by me made.

FIRST: All property, both real, personal, and mixed, which I shall own at my death, and all property over which I shall then have any power of appointment, I give, will, devise, and bequeath to my wife, Florence B. Haddon, in fee simple, if she shall survive me. If my said wife shall predecease me, all property, both real, personal, and mixed, which I shall own at my death, and all property over which I shall then have any power of appointment, I give, will, devise, and bequeath to my children, in equal shares, absolutely and in fee simple.

SECOND: I appoint my wife, Florence B. Haddon, to be the Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament, and request that she not be required to give any Bond.

THIRD: Without undertaking to distinguish between the duties and powers of my Executrix and by way of illustration and not of limitation of her powers, I hereby authorize my Executrix as follows:

(1) To sell any property, real or personal, publicly or privately, for cash or on time, without an Order of Court, upon such terms and conditions as to her shall seem best, without liability on the part of the purchaser to see to the application of the purchase money.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

JAMES N. BONNER

I, James N. Bonner of the state and county aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, but recognizing the uncertainty of life, do hereby make and declare my last will and testament as follows:

First:

After the payment of all my just debts and expenses, I will, devise, and bequeath all my property, both real and personal, and of every nature and description to my wife, Mary Blackmon Bonner.

Second:

I will that Robert C. Brownlee execute this my last will and testament without bond.

Third:

I will that my executor be authorized and empowered to sell at public or private sale either personal property or real estate with or without an order or resort to law, should he for any reason deem it necessary to do so.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this first day of June 1934.

Signed sealed and acknowledged in our presence by the said testator and we in his presence and in the presence of each other have signed our names as witnesses.

equally divided among her three children, namely: Allard Tribble Douglass, Carol Louise Douglass and Walter James Douglass, should they survive, and should either of them have predeceased her, then his or her share shall go to his or her child or children in equal shares, and if such predeceased child leaves no lineal descendants, then to the survivor or survivors. In the event that my daughter Doris Tribble Douglass should die before my decease, then the child or children of my daughter named above shall receive the property to which his, her or their mother would have been entitled as if she were living at the time of my death.

Third

I have purchased certain Government bonds in the name of the respective children above named, have delivered them to my executrix together with a list thereof; and she is hereby directed to continue to hold them for the child or children in whose names they are inscribed or were issued until he or she reaches the age of twenty-one years, unless in the judgment of my executrix, an earlier delivery is warranted: the disposition to be left solely to her discretion.

Fourth

As executrix of this will, I hereby appoint my daughter, Doris Tribble Douglass, and direct that she shall serve without being required to give bond, and also without compensation, except for her expenses in connection with the estate which she shall have. And should for any reason my daughter fail to qualify as executrix then I hereby appoint Mrs. Louise O'Shea Younger as alternate executrix, and Allard Tribble Douglass as alternate executor, and on the same terms as stated above, and that she Doris Tribble Douglass, executrix, nor the alternates, Mrs. Louise O'Shea Younger and Allard Tribble Douglass shall make any return to any court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal to this will, consisting of four pages, this the 30th day of March 1963
