

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

STANLEY JACKSON REEVES

I, STANLEY JACKSON REEVES, of the City of Johnston, County of Edgefield, South Carolina, do hereby make and publish this as my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils by me made.

1. All property, both real and personal, which I shall own at my death, and all property over which I shall then have any power of disposition by will, I give, will, devise and bequeath to my wife, WILMA W. REEVES, in fee simple, if she shall survive me. If my said wife shall predecease me, all of my property, which I shall own at my death and over which I shall then have any power of disposition by will, I give, will, devise and bequeath to MY CHILDREN, in equal shares, in fee simple; subject to the provision, however, that the share of any minor beneficiary shall be transferred to my Trustee in trust and my Trustee in his uncontrolled discretion (1) may expend the whole or any part of the income or principal, for the education and comfortable support of such beneficiary, or (2) may retain and invest, and re-invest, the whole or any part of the income or principal, or accumulated income, and from time to time pay or expend the whole or any part thereof in the manner hereinabove provided, until such beneficiary attains his or her majority, and thereupon pay the balance then remaining to such beneficiary absolutely.

2. I appoint my wife, WILMA W. REEVES, Executor of this my Will. If, however, she shall fail to qualify or cease to act as Executor, I appoint my friend, WILLIAM G. HALL, of Abbeville, South Carolina, Executor in her place. If both my wife and William G. Hall shall fail to qualify or cease to act as Executor, I appoint BETTIS HAMMOND, of North Augusta, South Carolina, husband of my wife's sister, Executor in their place. I direct that neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

3. I appoint my friend, WILLIAM G. HALL, Trustee of all Trusts created in this my Will. If he shall fail to qualify or cease to act as such Trustee,

I appoint BETTIS HAMMOND, Trustee in his place. I direct neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

4. If my wife shall predecease me, or if she dies after my death without having appointed a testamentary guardian for any minor child or children of ours, then I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my friends, WILLIAM G. AND JEANETTE HALL, as testamentary guardians of the person of such minor child or children, and ask that they not be required to furnish any bond. If either William G. or Jeanette Hall shall fail to qualify or cease to act as such guardian I appoint the other as sole guardian. If both William G. Hall and his wife, Jeanette Hall dies, resigns or refuses or is otherwise unable to act, then I appoint Mr. and Mrs. Bettis Hammond, as testamentary guardian of the person of such minor child or children and direct that neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

5. Throughout this Will the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine and the singular the plural and vice versa where the context so requires.

I request that in making such distribution the committee give consideration to my present feelings of admiration and fondness for Christ Church, Greenville County Foundation and Greenville General Hospital, but the decision of such committee as to whether such corporations, associations or organizations should receive or share in any such distribution shall be determined by the then existing facts and circumstances and the committee shall have full discretion in reaching its decision.

principal for such purpose, even though the trust be depleted by so doing.

ITEM X.

If any principal of my estate or of the trusts created hereunder shall become vested in a minor, my Executor or Trustee may in its absolute discretion, either pay over such principal, and/or income therefrom, at any time, and from time to time, to the guardian or to any parent of such minor, or retain the same for such minor during minority. In the case of such retention, my Executor or Trustee may apply all or any part of such principal, and/or income therefrom, to the support, maintenance and education of such minor, irrespective of the resources of such minor, or of his or her parents, or, in the absolute discretion of my Executor or Trustee, such income from said vested principal may be accumulated and retained by it during the minority of such minor, in which event, the same shall be added to, and invested as, principal. Any such principal so retained by my Executor or Trustee, and any income therefrom, which is not expended or applied under the provisions of this Item, shall be paid over to such minor beneficiary upon attaining majority, or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her estate. In holding any principal or income for any minor, my Executor or Trustee shall have all of the powers, discretionary, and otherwise, hereinafter conferred upon it.

(2) To invest funds of my estate, or of the trusts created hereunder in stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities, or property, real or personal, (including any common or commingled fund maintained by my Executor and Trustee), notwithstanding that such securities may not be eligible investments for fiduciaries under statutory or general law, it being my intention that my Executor and Trustee shall have the power to make such investments as it, in its unimpaired judgment, may deem

(3) To sell, re-sell, exchange, re-exchange, convey, re-convey, assign, or otherwise transfer, or dispose of any property, real or personal, at any time forming a part of my estate or of the trusts created hereunder, at public or private sale, for cash or other property, or upon credit, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid;

(4) To determine what is income or net income and what is principal as respects any bequest, devise, legacy or trust herein created and what expenses, costs, taxes, and charges of all kinds shall be charged against income and what shall be charged against principal, including, but not by way of limitation, the power to allocate as between principal or income all realized appreciation in the value of stocks, bonds, securities, or other property resulting from the sale or other disposition thereof, and the decision of the Executor or Trustee, as the case may be, with respect to said matters, shall be conclusive upon all parties;

(8) To distribute in cash or in kind upon any division of my estate or of the trusts created hereunder;

(9) To employ such agents and counsel and other persons, (including ancillary executors and/or trustees, if required), as it may deem necessary in the administration of my estate or of the trusts created hereunder, and to determine and pay them such compensation as it may deem proper;

(10) To deal with itself, in its separate or any fiduciary capacity whatsoever, in buying and selling assets, in lending money and in borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by it of dual positions; and
