LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, John Henry Cromer, Jr., of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, publish, declare and constitute this as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other Wills and Codicils by me heretofore made.

ITEM I

I wish my body buried in a suitable manner and a suitable memorial erected and the cost thereof paid out of my estate.

ITEM II

If my wife, L'Era B. Cromer, survives me by as much as thirty (30) days, I give, bequeath and devise to her in fee simple all of my household furniture and furnishings, books, pictures, objects of art, silverware, jewelry, clothing and other such personal effects that I may own at the time of my death. Such of the foregoing property as my wife does not wish to keep, then I request that she give the same to our beloved children.

If my wife does not survive me by as much as thirty (30) days, my Executor shall distribute to my children such of the foregoing property described in this Item of my Will as they wish to keep. Any such property not selected by my children, I direct that same be added to and become a part of my residuary estate.

ITEM III

If my said wife survives me by as much as thirty (30) days, I give and bequeath to her in fee simple, any automobile or automobiles I may own at the time of my death.

Recorded

ITEM IV

If my said wife survives me by as much as thirty (30) days then in that event, I give and devise to her any interest or equity I may have in the home in which we may be living at the time of my death, said devise to include any interest or equity I may have in all land surrounding said home and physically annexed thereto.

ITEM V

If my wife survives me, I give, devise and bequeath to THE CITIZENS AND SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA, as Trustees, a part of my estate selected by my Executor, having a value determined as follows: (1) Determine the value of my entire estate passing under this Will, (2) add thereto the value of any and all insurance and other property passing outside of this Will but includable in my estate for Federal estate tax purposes, (3) deduct therefrom all debts and expenses of administration but not any estate or inheritance tax, (4) ascertain one-half of the remainder, (5) deduct from such one-half the value of any and all insurance and other property passing to my said wife either outside this Will or under any other Item of this Will in such manner as to qualify as a part of the marital deduction under the Federal Estate Tax Law, (6) the remainder of such one-half shall be the value of the part of the estate bequeathed in this Item, and (7) if it cannot be determined whether my wife survives me, it shall be presumed that she survives and this bequest shall be affective.

(a) The Determination of this bequest and the division of my estate shall be on the basis of values existing on the date of division in the case of property then divided, or on the date of distribution in the case of any property previously distributed or on such estate tax value as finally determined in the case of any property outside of this Will, and this bequest shall carry with it its proportionate part of the income of my estate from the date of my death.

(b) My Executors shall not use to satisfy the bequest in this Item or any part thereof, any asset in respect of which no marital deduction would be allowed if such asset passed to my said wife, or any asset in respect of which a credit is allowed against United States Estate Tax for any estate, inheritance, legacy or succession tax imposed by any foreign country or political subdivision thereof, if and to the extent there are other assets sufficient to satisfy this bequest.

(c) Said Trustee shall manage, invest and reinvest said property and determine, and distribute the same to the beneficiaries as hereinafter provided.

(d) Said Trustees shall pay over to or for the benefit of my said wife all income from said property, in semi-annual or more frequent installments, from the time of my death until her death.

(e) Said Trustees shall be authorized to encroach on the corpus of the property in their hands at any time and from time to time in such amounts as they, in their sole discretion, may deem necessary, taking into consideration any other means of support my said wife may have to the knowledge of the Trustees, to provide for the proper support and comfort of my said wife.

(f) On the death of my said wife the property remaining in the hands of the Trustees shall be distributed then by the Trustees, free of the trust, to such persons and in such manner as my said wife may by her last Will and Testament direct or appoint, including the right of my said wife to appoint said property to her estate. Should my wife fail to so direct or appoint, then said property remaining in the hands of the Trustees shall go over to and become a part of the residue of my estate and be held and distributed as provided in Item VI hereof in all respects as if it had originally been a part of said residue.

(g) On the death of my said wife, said Trustees shall be authorized to withhold distribution of any amount of property sufficient, in its judgment, to cover any liability that may be imposed on said Trustees for estate taxes or other taxes until such liability is finally determined.

ITEM VI

All of the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description, and wherever located, including any lapsed or void legacy or devise and any property over which I may have the power of disposition or appointment, I give, devise and bequeath to the CITIZENS AND SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA, as Trustees, upon the uses and trusts and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set out.

(a) Said Trustees shall invest and reinvest said property and shall pay the net income therefrom in at least quarterly installments to or for the benefit of my wife, from the time of my death until her death or remarriage, whichever occurs first.

(b) The Trustees shall also be authorized to encroach on the corpus of the property in its hands, at any time, in such amounts as it in its sole discretion may deem necessary to provide for the proper support and comfort of my said wife, and for the proper support and education of my children, taking into account any other means of support they or any of them may have to the knowledge of the Trustees. To the extent practicable, however, I desire my Trustees in making encroachment for the benefit of my wife to encroach first on the trust created for my wife in Item V hereof before encroaching on this trust; but this request shall not apply to the extent it would be necessary to sell property which in the opinion of the Trustees should not be sold in order to encroach first on such trust. After any child has finished his or her education, the Trustees shall not be required to make any payment for the support of such child unless in the judgment of the Trustees there is ample property to support my wife and educate my children or such child is unable to support himself or herself. My primary desire is that my wife be supported as well as possible during her life and that my children be supported and educated as well as possible, rather than the preservation of the corpus until the termination of this Trust, and I wish my Trustees to be guided by this consideration in determining the amount to be used for the support of my said wife and children.

ALLAS

(c) After the death or remarriage of my wife, the Trustees shall continue to hold said property in trust and shall be authorized to use so much of the income and to encroach upon the corpus in such amounts as it may deem necessary in its judgment to provide for the proper support and education of my children. Such encroachment for the purpose of providing an education for my children shall be deemed to include college, graduate or professional training.

(d) After the death of my wife, if and when the youngest living child of mine reaches the age of twenty-five (25) years, said Trustees shall divide the property then remaining in its hands into as many equal shares as I have children then living and deceased children with descendants then living.

(e) Said Trustees shall distribute one of said shares, per stirpes, among the descendants then living of any deceased child of mine.

(f) Said Trustees shall hold one of said shares in trust for each living child of mine and shall be authorized to use so much of the income and to encroach upon the corpus of the share of any such child to provide for the proper support and education of such child. Such encroachment for the purpose of providing an education for such child shall be deemed to include college, graduate or professional training.

(g) After said division under paragraph (d) above, and when each living child attains the age of twenty-five (25) years, said Trustees shall distribute to each living child of mine one-third of the share of such child then held by said Trustees.

(h) After said division under paragraph (d) above, if and when each living child of mine reaches the age of thirty (30) years, the Trustees shall turn over to such child all of the share of such child then remaining in its hands.

(i) Should any child die after the division of said property into shares but before such child has received all of his or her share, then the share of such child remaining in the hands of the Trustees shall be distributed, per stirpes, among the descendants then living of such child, if any, and if none, shall be added equally to the shares of my other children or their descendants and be held and distributed in all respects as if it had originally been a part of such other shares.

(j) If at any time before the final distribution of this trust all of the beneficiaries herein named or described should die and there should be no such beneficiary or beneficiaries to take the property or income therefrom, then the property remaining in the hands of the Trustees shall be distributed among the persons who would have been entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of South Carolina if I had died intestate at that time.

ITEM VII

The provisions made in this Will for my wife are in lieu of dower.

ITEM VIII

The provisions of this Will are made in contemplation of the possible birth of a future child or children and shall not be revoked by any such event.

ITEM IX

My Executor shall make no claim against any person receiving the proceeds of any insurance policy or any money or property transferred by me during my lifetime for any part of the estate taxes assessed against my estate because of such insurance proceeds or such money or property; but shall make claim, if and to the extent permitted by law, for any such estate taxes assessed against my estate because of any power or appointment I may have.

ITEM X

All bonds, bank accounts, savings accounts, building and loan accounts and other similar property I may own at the time of my death in the name of myself and/or my said wife which are in terms payable on or after my death to her shall be the sole property of my said wife and my Executor shall make no claim against her on account thereof.

ITEM XI

I hereby nominate and appoint as Executor of this Will THE CITIZENS AND SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Wherever THE CITIZENS AND SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA is mentioned herein, it shall include any bank or trust company with which it may hereafter be merged or consolidated.

ITEM XII

A. In the management, care and disposition of my estate and of every trust I confer upon the Executor of this Will and the Trustee of each and every trust created by this Will, and the survivors and successors in office, the power to do all things and execute such instruments as may be deemed necessary or proper.

including the following powers, all of which may be exercised without order of or report to any court:

(a) To sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any property at any time held or acquired under this Will, at public or private sale, for cash or on terms, without advertisement, including the right to lease for any term notwithstanding the period of the trust:

(b) To invest all monies in such stocks, bonds, securities, investment company or trust shares, mortgages, notes, choses in action, real estate, improvements thereon, and other property as such Executor or Trustee may deem best without regard to any law now or hereafter in force limiting the investment for Executors, Trustees, or other fiduciaries;

(c) To retain by way of investment any property or choses in action owned by me at the time of my death, including any stock in such Corporate Executor or Corporate Trustee;

(d) To vote in person or by proxy any corporate stock or other security and to agree to or take any other action in regard to any reorganization, merger, consolidation, liquidation, bankruptcy or other procedure or proceeding affecting any stock, bond note or other property:

(e) To use real estate brokers, accountants, and other agents, if they deem such employment necessary and desirable, and to pay reasonable compensation for their services;

(f) To compromise, settle and/or adjust any claim or demand by or against said estate or trust and to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement affecting such estate or trust:

(g) To renew any indebtedness, as well as borrow money, and to secure the same by mortgaging, pledging and/or conveying any property of such estate or trust;

Handwritten initials and number 76

(h) To retain and carry on any business in which I may own an interest at the time of my death, to acquire additional interest in any such business, to agree to the liquidation in kind of any corporation in which my estate or trust may have any interest and to carry on the business thereof, to join with other owners in adopting any form of management for any business or property in which my estate or trust may have an interest, to become or remain a partner, general or limited, in regard to any such business or property, to incorporate any such business or property and to hold the stock or other securities as an investment, and to employ agents and confer on them authority to manage and operate such business, property or corporation, without liability for the acts of any such agent or for any loss, liability or indebtedness of such business if the management is selected or retained with reasonable care.

(i) To register any stock, bond or other security in the name of any nominee, without the addition of words indicating that such security is held in a fiduciary capacity; but accurate records shall be maintained showing that such security is a trust asset and the Executors or Trustees shall be responsible for the acts of such nominee.

B. Whenever the Trustee is directed to pay any money to or to use any money for the benefit of any minor, the Trustee shall not require the appointment of a guardian, but shall be authorized to pay the same over to the person having custody of such minor, to pay the same to such minor without the intervention of a guardian, to pay the same to a legal guardian of such minor if one has already been appointed, or to use the same for the benefit of such minor.

C. Whenever the Trustee is directed to distribute any property in fee simple to a person who is then a minor the Trustee shall continue to hold the share of such minor in trust for such minor until he or she becomes twenty-one (21) years of age and in the meantime shall use such part of the income and/or corpus of the share of such minor as the Trustee shall deem necessary to provide for the proper support and education of such minor.

D. Neither my Executor nor my Trustee shall be required to file any inventory or appraisal of any annual or other returns or reports to any court or to give bond, but shall furnish a statement of receipts and disbursements at least annually to each person then entitled to income from my estate or any trust.

E. In the distribution of my estate and the division into separate trusts and shares, the Executor and Trustee shall be authorized to make the division in money or in kind or partly in money and partly in kind and the division made by my Executor or Trustee and the values established by them for such division shall be binding and conclusive on all persons taking hereunder. My Executor or Trustee may in making such division allot undivided interests in the same property to several trusts or shares.

F. The Trustee of my remainder trust, but not my Executor, may set up reserves for depreciation or amortization, and determine whether a distribution shall be regarded as income or as principal, and apportion any expenditures or premiums on purchases of securities between principal and income, and its reasonable determinations shall be conclusive.

G. The income on the part of my estate used to pay debts, taxes, expenses, general legacies and other such corpus charges, shall go to the income beneficiaries of the residue of my estate and shall not be added to the corpus thereof.

H. My Executor or my Trustee shall be authorized to make any election permitted by any tax law, including the filing of joint returns, if in the opinion of such Executor or Trustee such election is for the combined best interest of my estate and the beneficiaries whereof and may make or agree to make such apportionment of taxes as such Executor or Trustee deem equitable under the circumstances.

I. The Trustee of any trust created by this Will shall be authorized to sell any property to or to purchase any property from any other trust created by this Will at the fair market value thereof as determined by the Trustee, even though the same person or corporation may be acting as Trustee of both trusts.

ITEM XIII

If ancillary administration on any property of my estate is necessary under the laws of any State wherein I might have property located, and if the laws of such state require that a resident ancillary administrator be appointed to administer property located therein, then and in that event I direct my Executor named herein to appoint and nominate such ancillary administrator. Said ancillary administrator is relieved of the necessity of making inventories, appraisements, or returns or reports to any court, and from giving bond to any court and shall administer said property as soon as possible and make a full and complete report to my Executor named herein.

ITEM XIV

On the death of any person entitled to income or support from any trust created by this Will, the Trustee of such trust shall be authorized to pay the funeral expenses and the expenses of the last illness of such person from the corpus of the property from which such person was entitled to income or support.

(a) The determination of this bequest and the division of my estate shall be on the basis of values existing on the date of division in the case of property then divided, or on the date of distribution in the case of any property previously distributed, or on such estate tax value as finally determined in the case of any property passing outside of this Will, and this bequest shall carry with it its proportionate part of the income of my estate from the date of my death.

(b) My Executrix shall not use to satisfy the bequest in this Item or any part thereof any asset in respect of which no marital deduction would be allowed if such asset passed to my said wife or any asset in respect of which a credit is allowed against United States estate tax for any estate, inheritance, legacy or succession tax imposed by any foreign country or political subdivision thereof, if and to the extent there are other assets sufficient to satisfy this bequest.

(c) If my wife shall so desire, any home in which we may be living at the time of my death, including all property connected thereto, whether I own such property or merely have the rights as lessee of such property, shall be allotted to the share which is distributed to my wife under this Item.

ITEM IV

(a) All of the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description, and wherever located, including any lapsed or void legacy or devise (but not including any property over which I may have power of disposition or appointment), I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustee hereinafter named as Trustee upon the uses and trusts hereinafter set out.

(b) Said Trustee shall pay the net income from said property from the time of my death to my wife, KATHRYN W. LESLEY, until her death.

(c) The Trustee shall also be authorized to encroach on the principal of this trust in such amounts as she may deem necessary in her judgment to provide for the support and maintenance of my wife in the manner to which she has been accustomed prior to my death.

(d) On the death of my said wife, the property then remaining in this trust shall be divided into three equal shares:

(i) One of said shares shall be distributed to each of my sons, who are living at that time.

(ii) One of said shares shall be distributed to or among such person or persons and in such manner, in trust or otherwise, as any deceased son of mine may have directed or appointed by his Last Will and Testament, making express reference to this power, provided that no son of mine shall have the power to appoint said property to himself, to his creditors, to his estate or to the creditors of his estate, and provided further that each son of mine shall have this power of appointment from the date of the execution of this Will unless this Will is revoked by me prior to my death.

(iii) Should any son of mine fail to exercise his power of appointment as to all the property in his share, then the share for such deceased son who has failed to exercise his power of appointment shall be distributed to the person who was the spouse of such deceased son at the time of the death of such son, if such son was married and if such spouse is living at the time of this distribution, and if no such spouse is living at the time of this distribution, then per stirpes to such deceased son's descendants who are living at the time of this distribution.

(iv) Should any deceased son fail to exercise his power of appointment and should there be no other person hereinbefore named or described to take such deceased son's share, that share shall be added equally to the other shares and held and distributed as provided for such other shares.

(v) If at any time before the final distribution of this trust all the beneficiaries herein named or described should die and there should be no such beneficiary to take the property or the income therefrom, then the property remaining in the trust shall be distributed among the persons who would have been entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Georgia if I had died intestate at that time.

ITEM V

The provisions made in this Will for my wife are in lieu of dower but shall not prejudice her right to seek year's support.

ITEM VI

All of the bonds, bank accounts, savings accounts, building and loan accounts and other similar property I may own at the time of my death in the name of myself and/or my said wife shall be the sole property of my said wife and my Executrix shall make no claim against her on account thereof.

ITEM VII

My Executrix shall make no claim against any person receiving the proceeds of any insurance policy or any money or property transferred by me during my lifetime for any part of the estate taxes assessed against my estate because of such insurance proceeds or such money or property; but shall make claim, if and to the extent permitted by law, for any such estate taxes assessed against my estate because of any power of appointment which I may have.

ITEM VIII

I hereby constitute and appoint as Executrix of this Will and as Trustee of each and every trust created hereunder, my wife, KATHRYN W. LESLEY. Should my said wife die or for any reason fail or cease to serve as Executrix or Trustee hereunder, then and thereafter TRUST COMPANY OF GEORGIA shall serve as my Executor or Trustee or both.

(a) No successor Executor or Trustee shall be required to inquire into or audit the acts or doings of any predecessor Executrix or Trustee or to make any claim against any such predecessor Executrix or Trustee or her estate.

(b) Any successor Executor or Trustee shall have and may exercise any or all of the powers herein conferred on my Executrix or Trustee as fully and to the same extent as if such successor had originally been named as Executor or Trustee herein.

(c) Any Executrix or Executor of this Will and any Trustee of any trust created by this Will may at any time resign by instrument in writing signed by such Executrix, Executor or Trustee and deliver to the persons then entitled to the income from my estate or such trust, to any named successor Executor or Trustee, and, in the case of an Executrix or Executor, with the court having jurisdiction of the administration of my estate. Should any vacancy occur in the office of Executrix of this Will or Trustee of any trust created by this Will and if there should be a successor Trustee or Executor named, then such successor shall thereupon act as successor Executor or Trustee or both. Should any vacancy occur in the office of Executor or Executrix of this Will or of Trustee of any trust created by this Will and should there be no successor Trustee or Executor named or agreeing to act, then the person then entitled to more than Fifty Per Cent (50%) of the income from my estate or such trust, as the case may be, shall within sixty (60) days after such office becomes vacant, by instrument in writing signed by such person, appoint a successor Executor or Trustee. Should such person fail or refuse within sixty (60) days so to appoint such successor, then such successor may be appointed by the Judge of the Superior Court of Rabun County upon application of the retiring Executrix, Executor or Trustee or the personal representative thereof.

ITEM IX

(a) In the management, care and disposition of my estate and of every trust I confer upon the Executrix of this Will

(1) To sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any property at any time held or acquired under this Will, at public or private sale, for cash or on terms, without advertisement, including the right to lease for any term notwithstanding the period of the trust, and to grant options to buy for any period including a period beyond the duration of the trust;

(2) To invest all monies in such stocks, bonds, securities, investment company or trust shares, mortgages, notes, choses in action, real estate, improvements thereon, and other property as such Executrix or Trustee may deem best without regard to any law now or hereafter in force limiting investments of fiduciaries;

(3) To retain for investment any property or choses in action owned by me at the time of my death, including any stock in such corporate Executor or Trustee;

(5) To use real estate brokers, accountants and other agents, if such employment be deemed necessary and to pay reasonable compensation for their services;

(6) To compromise, settle and/or adjust any claim or demand by or against said estate or trust and to agree to any rescission or modification of any contract or agreement affecting such estate or trust;

(7) To renew any indebtedness, as well as to borrow money, and to secure the same by mortgaging, pledging and/or conveying any property of such estate or trust, including the power to borrow from such Executrix or Trustee at a reasonable rate of interest;

(8) To retain and carry on any business in which I may own an interest at the time of my death, to acquire additional interest in any such business, to agree to the liquidation in kind of any corporation in which my estate or trust may have any interest and to carry on the business thereof, to join with other owners in adopting any form of management for any business or property in which my estate or trust may have an interest, to become or remain a partner, general or limited, in regard to any such business or property, to incorporate any such business or property and hold the stock or other securities as an investment, and to employ agents and confer on them authority to manage and operate such business, property or corporation, without liability for the acts of any such agent or for any loss, liability or indebtedness of such business if the management is selected or retained with reasonable care;

(9) To register any stock, bond, or other security in the name of a nominee, without the addition of words indicating that such security is held in a fiduciary capacity; but accurate records shall be maintained showing that such security is a trust asset and the Executrix or Trustee shall be responsible for the acts of such nominee.

(b) Whenever the Executrix or Trustee is directed to pay any money to or to use any money for the benefit of or to deliver any property to any minor, the Executrix or Trustee shall not require the appointment of a guardian, but shall be authorized to pay or deliver the same over to the person having custody of such minor, to pay or deliver the same to such minor without the intervention of a guardian, to pay or deliver the same to a legal guardian of such minor if one has already been appointed, or to use the same for the benefit of such minor.

she becomes 21 years of age, and in the meantime shall use such part of the income and/or corpus of the share of such minor as such Trustee may deem necessary to provide for the proper support and education of such minor.

(d) Whenever the Trustee is authorized or directed to make payment to a beneficiary, the Executrix may, during the period of administration, make such payment directly to the beneficiary.

(e) No Executrix or Trustee shall be required to file any inventory or appraisal or any annual or other returns or reports to any court or to give bond, but shall furnish a statement of receipts and disbursements at least annually to each person then entitled to income from my estate or any trust.

(f) In the distribution of my estate and the division into separate trusts and shares, the Executrix and Trustee shall be authorized to make the division in money or in kind or in both, and the division made and the values established by my Executrix or Trustee shall be binding and conclusive on all persons taking hereunder. My Executrix or Trustee may in making such division allot undivided interests in the same property to several trusts or shares.

(g) My Executrix or Trustee shall have discretion to determine whether items should be charged or credited to income or principal or allocated between income and principal as the Executrix or Trustee in her discretion may deem equitable and fair under all the circumstances; including the power to amortize or fail to amortize any part or all of any premium or discount, to treat any part or all of the profit resulting from the maturity or sale of any asset, whether purchased at a premium or at a discount, as income or principal or apportion the same between income and principal, to apportion the sales price of any asset between income and principal, to treat any dividend or other distribution on any investment as income or principal or apportion the same between income and principal, to charge any expense against income or principal or apportion the same, and to provide or fail to provide a reasonable reserve against depreciation or obsolescence on any asset subject to depreciation or obsolescence, all as the Executrix or Trustee may reasonably deem equitable and just under all the circumstances.

(h) The income on the part of my estate used to pay debts, taxes, expenses, general legacies and other such corpus charges, shall go to the income beneficiaries of the residuum of my estate and shall not be added to the principal thereof.

ITEM X

My wife is executing her Will at or about the same time as I am executing mine. However, it is expressly agreed and understood by my wife and me that our Wills are not mutual Wills and that we do not intend for them to be mutual Wills. My wife and I both anticipate the possibility that we will want to make changes in our Wills separately or together as our circumstances change in the future. The subsequent revocation of either Will shall not in any way operate as a revocation of the other Will.

ITEM XI.

My Executrix or Trustee shall be authorized to make any election permitted by any tax law, including the filing of joint returns, and the consenting to have gifts made by my spouse treated as if made partially by me, if in the opinion of the Executrix or Trustee such election is for the combined best interest of my estate and the beneficiaries thereof, and shall be authorized to make, or fail to make, such adjustment between the parties or the several bequests or accounts as such Executrix or Trustee may deem equitable and just under all the circumstances.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

WILLIAM J. REID

I, WILLIAM J. REID, now residing at 303 West Pinckney Street, in the City of Abbeville, Abbeville County, State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills and Codicils heretofore by me made.

1. If my wife, MARY S. REID, shall survive me, I give to her, outright in fee simple, an amount equal to Fifty (50%) per cent of the value of my adjusted gross estate as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes, undiminished by any estate, inheritance, transfer, legacy, or succession taxes, either State or Federal, less the aggregate value of all interests in property, if any, which pass to my wife under other provisions of this Will or which have already passed to her or for her benefit otherwise than under this Will, by operation of law, through life insurance policies, or otherwise, but only to the extent that such interests are included in determining my gross taxable estate and are allowable as a marital deduction for Federal estate tax purposes. My Executors shall have full power and the sole discretion to satisfy this gift wholly or partly in cash or kind and to select the assets which shall constitute this gift; provided, however, that all property so selected shall be valued at the value thereof as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes; provided, further that the Executors, in order to implement this gift, shall distribute to my wife assets, including cash, having an aggregate fair market value at the date or dates of distribution amounting to no less than the amount of the gift as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes; and provided, further, that there shall not be included in this gift any assets or the proceeds of any asset (a) which does not qualify for the marital deduction for Federal estate tax purposes; or (b) with respect to which any tax credit or deduction shall be available because it shall be subject to both Federal estate and income tax (except to the extent that assets of my estate other than those herein described are not sufficient, in which event assets or the proceeds of assets which do not qualify for such marital deduction shall be the last to be used to satisfy this gift). The exercise of the foregoing power and discretion by my Executors shall not be subject to question by or on behalf of any beneficiary under this Will regardless of its effect upon the interest of such beneficiary.

2. If my wife, Mary, shall survive me, I give, devise and bequeath all the rest of my property, both real and personal, including any property over which I shall have a power of disposition by will, to my children, WILLIAM J. (Billy) REID, JR., O. H. (Buddy) REID, and WAYNE REID, in equal shares, subject to the adjustment provided in the next sentence. If during my lifetime I have given to my son, Buddy, any of the capital stock (which capital stock I anticipate to have a par value of $100 per share) of my franchised Chevrolet - Oldsmobile dealership business in Abbeville, South Carolina, and if at the time of my death I have not made any such comparable gift to my other children, Wayne and Billy, I direct that before making distribution herein provided there first be paid to WAYNE and BILLY the sum of $100 times the number of shares of such capital stock given to Buddy, and that such sum be paid to each of them. For example, if prior to my death I have given my son, Buddy, 250 shares of the capital stock of my franchised Chevrolet - Oldsmobile dealership business in Abbeville, South Carolina, with a par value of $100 per share, and if at the time of my death I have not made any such comparable gift to Wayne and Billy, I direct that before making the distribution herein provided there first be paid to Wayne and Billy the sum of $25,000 each. If as a result of this adjustment, it should develop that my son, Buddy, is entitled to take nothing under this paragraph the property shall be divided equally between my sons, Wayne and Billy. If any of my children predeceases me, his share shall be divided per stirpes among his issue living at my death, or, if there be none, to my issue surviving me per stirpes.

3. If my wife, Mary, does not survive me, I give, devise and bequeath all of my estate, real and personal, wherever situated, to my children, WILLIAM J. (Billy) REID, JR., O. H. (Buddy) REID, and WAYNE REID, in equal shares, subject to the adjustment provided in the next sentence. If during my lifetime I have given to my son, Buddy, any of the capital stock (which capital stock I anticipate to have a par value of $100 per share) of my franchised Chevrolet - Oldsmobile dealership business in Abbeville, South Carolina, and if at the time of my death I have not made any such comparable gift to my other children, Wayne and Billy, I direct that before making distribution herein provided there first be paid to WAYNE and BILLY the sum of $100 times the number of shares of such capital stock given to Buddy, and that such sum be paid to each of them. For example, if prior to my death I have given my son, Buddy, 250 shares of the capital stock of my franchised Chevrolet - Oldsmobile dealership business in Abbeville, South Carolina, with a par value of $100 per share, and if at the time of my death I have not made any such comparable gift to Wayne and Billy, I direct that before making the distribution herein provided there first be paid to Wayne and Billy the sum of $25,000 each. If as a result of this adjustment, it should develop that my son, Buddy, is entitled to take nothing under this paragraph the property shall be divided equally between my sons, Wayne and Billy. 4. References in this my Last Will to "issue" mean lawful blood descendants of the first, second or any other degree of the ancestor designated.

5. If my wife and I shall die simultaneously, or under circumstances which make it difficult to determine which of us died first, I direct that my wife shall be deemed to have survived me for the purpose of this Will, and I direct further that the provisions of this Will shall be construed upon that assumption.

6. In the administration of my estate I authorize my Executors to retain, purchase, or otherwise acquire without restriction any stocks, bonds, notes, or other securities, or any other variety of real or personal property, the holding of which they deem advisable for my estate, to sell, lease, pledge, mortgage, transfer, exchange, convert, or otherwise dispose of, or grant options with respect to, any real or personal property at any time forming a part of my estate, in such manner, at such times, for such purposes, for such prices, and upon such terms, credit, or condition as they may deem advisable; to manage, operate, repair, and improve any real property forming part of my estate in such manner as they may deem advisable; to borrow money for any purpose connected with the protection, preservation, or improvement of my estate, whenever in their judgment advisable, and as security to mortgage or pledge any property forming part of my estate on such terms and conditions as they may deem advisable; to compromise or otherwise adjust any claims or demands in favor of or against my estate; to make distribution in kind and to cause any share to be composed of cash, property, or undivided fractional shares in property different in kind from any other share; to execute and deliver such instruments as may be necessary to carry out any of these powers; and to do any other acts which they may deem necessary or desirable for the proper execution or discharge of any powers or duties held by or imposed upon them, whether by the terms of this Will or by applicable law.

7. I appoint my son, O. H. REID, Executor of this Will. If he should fail to qualify or cease to act as Executor, then I appoint my son, WILLIAM J. REID, JR., as such Executor. If both of my sons, O. H. Reid, and William J. Reid, Jr. should fail to qualify or cease to act as Executor of this my Last Will, then in that event I appoint my son, WAYNE REID, Executor in their place.

8. I request that no Executor hereunder be required to give any bond.

9. Throughout this Will the plural shall be deemed to include the singular and vice versa where the context so admits or requires.
