Last Will and Testament

OF

JEAN A. CHURCHILL

I, JEAN A. CHURCHILL, of the City of Flat Rock, and the County and State aforesaid, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all testamentary instruments heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

I direct that, as soon as practicable after my death, all of my just debts and funeral expenses, including the reasonable cost of an appropriate marker for my grave, shall be paid out of my estate. I further direct that all estate, transfer and inheritance taxes assessed with respect to my estate herein disposed of, or any part thereof, or any bequest or devise contained in this my Will (which term wheresoever used herein shall include any codicil hereto), and also with respect to any other property or interest of any character which may be included in my gross estate for purposes of estate, inheritance or similar taxes, shall be paid out of my residuary estate as administration expenses, and shall not be charged to or against any beneficiary or owner of my estate, or any portion thereof, or to or against any recipient, beneficiary or owner of any other property or interest includible in my gross estate for purposes of estate or inheritance taxes.

ITEM II

I bequeath all my personal and household effects and all automobiles which I may own at the time of my death, together with all policies of insurance thereon, and any and all interest that I may have in the premises which I occupy as my residence at the time of my death, together with all policies of insurance thereon, to my husband, HOWARD B. CHURCHILL, or if he shall not survive me, to my sister, A. LOUISE AGNEW.

ITEM III

I give and devise unto my sister, A. LOUISE AGNEW, absolutely, if she shall survive me, and subject to the provisions of Item II aforesaid, any and all interest that I may have in the residence located on Main Street in the town of Due West, County of Abbeville, State of South Carolina, together with all policies of insurance thereon.

ITEM IV

I devise and bequeath to my sister, A. LOUISE AGNEW, absolutely, if she shall survive me:

(i) Twenty-five (25%) per cent of the total of my gross estate as finally determined for United States Federal Estate Tax purposes (whether or not passing under this my Will), after deducting from the whole of said gross estate the total of all claims against my estate, including funeral and administration expenses and any estate, inheritance, transfer, legacy or succession taxes, less

(ii) An amount equal to the total of the values included in such federal gross estate with respect to any insurance upon my life, or any annuity, payable to my said sister upon my death, and any jointly owned property passing to my said sister upon my death.

ITEM V

All the rest and residue of my estate of every kind and description, including lapsed legacies and devises, and any property over which I may have power of appointment or disposition, I devise and bequeath to my Trustees upon the terms and conditions and for the uses and purposes hereinafter set forth:

A. To hold said assets, manage, invest and reinvest the same, and to collect the income thereof, and pay the net income thereof to my husband, HOWARD B. CHURCHILL, not less often than quarterly, until his death.

B. During the continuance of this trust, I authorize my Trustees to pay to my said husband from time to time, from the principal of this trust, such amounts as my Corporate Trustee, in its sound discretion, may deem advisable for the reasonable care, comfort, support and maintenance of my said husband. In making such payments from principal, my Corporate Trustee shall take into account any other income that my said husband may have received or be receiving from other sources, and whether or not such income is sufficient for the aforesaid purposes. The determination of my Corporate Trustee as to the advisability of making any such payments of principal hereinabove authorized shall be final and binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in this trust.

C. Upon the death of my said husband, HOWARD B. CHURCHILL, (or, if he shall predecease me, then upon my death), to pay the net income of this trust to my sister, A. LOUISE AGNEW, not less often than quarterly, until her death. I further authorize my Trustees to pay to my said sister, from time to time, from the principal of this trust, such amounts as my Trustees, in their sound discretion, may deem advisable, for the reasonable care, comfort, support and maintenance of my said sister. In making such payments from principal, my Trustees shall take into account any other income that my said sister may have received or be receiving from other sources and whether or not the said income is sufficient for the aforesaid purposes. The determination of my Trustees as to the advisability of making any such payments of principal as hereinabove authorized shall be final and binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in this trust.

D. Upon the death of the survivor of my said husband, HOWARD B. CHURCHILL, and my said sister, A. LOUISE AGNEW, to pay over and distribute, absolutely, the then remaining principal of my residuary estate to such of the group consisting of my nieces, Lila G. McMillan, Louise A. Stolleman and Jean A. Galloway, and my nephews, Robert S. Galloway, Jr., William A. Galloway, Sr. and Alfred H. Agnew, as shall be then living, share and share alike, provided, however, that the then living issue of any then deceased niece or nephew shall take the share to which his or her parent would have been entitled to receive if he or she had been living at the time of such distribution.

ITEM VI

If any income and/or principal of any trust created under this my Will shall become distributable to a minor, my Trustees shall receive the same on behalf of such minor, if my Trustees have not already possession and control thereof, and may, in their absolute discretion, either pay over such income or principal at any time and from time to time, to the guardian or to any parent of such minor, or retain the same, or any part thereof, for such minor during minority. In the case of such retention, my Trustees may apply such income or principal, and income therefrom, to the support, maintenance and education of such minor, irrespective of the resources of such minor or of his or her parents, or, in the absolute discretion of my Trustees, such income may be accumulated and retained by them during the minority of such minor, in which event it shall be added to, and invested as, principal.

Any such payments or applications of income or of principal, or income therefrom, may be made directly to such minor, if over the age of fourteen (14) years, to any parent with whom such shall sooner die, to his or her estate. In holding any principal or income for any minor under the provisions of this Item, my Trustees shall have all the powers, discretionary and otherwise, hereinafter conferred upon them, the powers and authority conferred in this Item, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with any specific direction contained in this Item or any other Item of this my Will, being in addition to all other powers and authority conferred upon them.

ITEM VII

During the administration of my estate, I authorize and direct my Executors to pay to my said husband, HOWARD B. CHURCHILL, monthly or at other convenient intervals, such amounts from the available funds in my estate as my Executors, in their absolute discretion may deem adequate for meeting the reasonable needs of my said husband, taking into consideration the manner of living to which he has been accustomed and the income he has received or is receiving from other sources. Any such amounts paid to my said husband during the administration of my estate shall be charged against the current income of my estate to the extent available therefor, and thereafter against principal.

ITEM VIII

All payments of principal and income payable, or to become payable, to the Beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall not be subject to anticipation, assignment, pledge, sale, or transfer in any manner, nor shall any said Beneficiary have the power to anticipate or encumber such interest, nor shall such interest, while in the possession of my Trustees, be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, obligations, liabilities or torts of any Beneficiary.

ITEM IX

Without limitation of the powers conferred upon them by statute or general rules of law, my Executors and Trustees, respectively, are specifically authorized and empowered:

- (1) To retain in the form received any property owned by me at the time of my death;
- (2) To borrow money and give security therefor;
- (3) To invest any funds of my estate, or the trusts hereunder in any stocks, bonds, notes and other securities or property real or personal, notwithstanding that such investments may not be of the character allowed to executors or trustees by statute or general rules of law in North Carolina, and my Trustees shall not be liable for making or retaining in-

Any such payments which shall be made to persons, other than a parent or guardian, furnishing goods or services to such minor shall not exceed the reasonable value of such goods or services claimed to have been furnished as evidenced by voucher, but my Trustees shall not be required to verify the receipt of any such goods or services, and in no case, shall they be required to see to the application of any such funds so paid. Any such income or principal so retained by my Trustees under the powers conferred in this Item VI, shall be paid over to such beneficiary upon attaining majority, or, if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her estate. In holding any principal or income for any minor under the provisions of this Item, my Trustees shall have all the powers, discretionary and otherwise, hereinafter conferred upon them, the powers and authority conferred in this Item, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with any specific direction contained in this Item or any other Item of this my Will, being in addition to all other powers and authority conferred upon them.

husband during the administration of my estate shall be charged against the current income of my estate to the extent available therefor, and thereafter against principal.

ITEM VIII

All payments of principal and income payable, or to become payable, to the Beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall not be subject to anticipation, assignment, pledge, sale, or transfer in any manner, nor shall any said Beneficiary have the power to anticipate or encumber such interest, nor shall such interest, while in the possession of my Trustees, be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, obligations, liabilities or torts of any Beneficiary.

ITEM IX

Without limitation of the powers conferred upon them by statute or general rules of law, my Executors and Trustees, respectively, are specifically authorized and empowered:

- (1) To retain in the form received any property owned by me at the time of my death;
- (2) To borrow money and give security therefor;
- (3) To invest any funds of my estate, or the trusts hereunder in any stocks, bonds, notes and other securities or property real or personal, notwithstanding that such investments may not be of the character allowed to executors or trustees by statute or general rules of law in North Carolina, and my Executors and Trustees shall not be liable for any mistake of judgment in making or retaining investments so long as the same are made or retained in good faith, it being my intention to give the broadest investment powers and discretion to my Executors and Trustees;
- (4) To sell or otherwise dispose of any property, real or personal, at any time forming a part of my estate or the trusts hereunder for cash or upon credit, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as they may deem best, and no person dealing with them shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid;
- (5) To manage, operate, repair, mortgage and lease for any term any real estate at any time held by them;
- (6) To invest in, and borrow money for, improvements to real estate held by them, either separately or jointly with others where there is joint ownership of such property, whenever in their judgment such improvements are desirable or expedient to protect or preserve the property or to secure or retain a desirable tenant or to increase the rentals;

(7) To collect and receive the proceeds of insurance policies in the event of loss or damage, and to expend the same in repair, replacement or improvements of the damaged property, or any other property of the trusts or estate, or to hold the same as part of the principal of the trust funds;

(8) To compromise, settle or arbitrate any claim or obligation to or from me or my estate or the trusts hereunder, and to reduce the rate of interest on, to extend or otherwise modify, or to enforce, any such obligations;

(9) To vote on any securities by discretionary proxy or otherwise; and to join in or oppose any reorganization, recapitalization, consolidation, sale or merger;

(10) To enforce, or abstain from the enforcement of, any right, obligation or claim, and to abandon, if in their absolute discretion they shall deem it advisable, any property at any time forming part of my estate or the trusts hereunder;

(11) To make payment in cash or in kind upon any division and distribution of my estate or the trusts hereunder;

(12) To value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at such appraised value;

(13) To determine any question which may arise as to what constitutes income and what constitutes principal or corpus, and such determination shall be conclusive as to all persons interested hereunder, but subject to such power and except in some unusual instance where it may be exercised to the contrary, shares of stock received by way of stock dividend and all realized appreciation in the value of stocks, bonds, securities or other property (including unproductive property) resulting from the sale or other disposition thereof shall be deemed corpus and not income;

(14) To employ such agents and counsel and other persons as they may deem necessary in the administration of my estate or the trusts hereunder, and to determine and pay them such compensation as they may deem proper;

(15) In buying or selling assets, in lending and in borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with themselves in their separate, or any fiduciary, capacity; and

(16). In general, to exercise all powers in the management of my estate and the trusts hereunder which any individual could exercise in his own right, upon such terms and conditions as to them may seem best, and to do all acts which they may deem necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this my Will.

ITEM X

My Corporate Executor and Trustee shall keep all records and books of account and shall prepare, with the advice and consultation of counsel, all inventories and accountings to be filed with the Probate Court and any and all tax reports and shall at all reasonable times make all such records, books of account, inventories and other papers and documents available for inspection by my other Executor and Trustee. I further direct that such Trustee shall at least once a year furnish to the principal beneficiary or beneficiaries of each trust created hereunder a statement showing all investments, receipts and disbursements for the current year, and at the request of any beneficiary at any time, furnish to such beneficiary such other information concerning the financial condition of said trust as he or she may desire.

ITEM XI

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my husband, HOWARD B. CHURCHILL, if he shall survive me, and the FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK, Asheville, North Carolina, as Executors of this my Will and Trustees of the several trusts created under this my Will. Upon the death of my said husband, or if he should fail to qualify or for any reason cease to act as Executor and/or Trustee, then said FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK shall act as sole Executor hereof and/or sole Trustee hereunder with all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibilities, conferred upon my Executors and Trustees.

Any banking institution or trust company which shall acquire the trust business and assets, or the major portion thereof, of the FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK by reason of sale, merger, consolidation, reorganization, reincorporation, or other transfer to which said FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK is a party, shall be and become the substituted Executor hereof and/or Trustee hereunder in the place and stead of said FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK as fully as if it had been named herein.

If the FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK or THE NORTHWESTERN BANK or any successor institutions, as hereinabove defined, should fail to qualify as Executor hereof and/or as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in either capacity, then it is my wish that some other bank or trust company, doing business in Hendersonville, North Carolina, and acceptable to the Judge of the Probate Court for Henderson County, North Carolina, shall be requested to qualify and act in the place and stead of said FIRST UNION NATIONAL BANK and/or THE NORTHWESTERN BANK with all the rights, powers and duties herein conferred upon the Corporate Executor and Trustee originally named herein.

Whenever the word "Executors" and/or the word "Trustees", or any modifying or substituted pronouns therefor are used in this my Will, such words and respective pronouns shall be held and taken to include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Executors and Trustees named herein and to any successor or substituted executor or trustee acting hereunder.

I direct that no bond or other security shall be required in any jurisdiction of any Executor or Trustee acting hereunder.
