I, WILLIAM MANN BROADWELL, SR., being of sound mind and memory, but mindful of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all prior wills and testaments by me heretofore made:

ITEM I: I direct that all of my just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM II: I give and bequeath to my wife, Ethel M. Broadwell, all motor vehicles that I now own, and that I may own, at the time of my death, all household furnishings belonging to me, and all my jewelry and personal effects.

ITEM III: All the rest and residue of my property of every kind and nature, wheresoever situate, real, personal, or mixed, whether owned now or later acquired, I give, bequeath, and devise unto William Mann Broadwell, Jr. and Clyde Herbert Broadwell, both of Abbeville County, South Carolina, as trustees and in trust for the following uses and purposes:

Broadwell, in monthly installments for so long as she may live for her care, maintenance, support, upkeep, and medical expenses.

(b) My trustees are authorized and directed to convert all of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, into cash as soon as it is practicable to do so, but they are directed not to sacrifice any of my property at any forced sale or at time during a buyer's market, or to sell same at any time unless the sales price is advantageous, my intent being that my property,

(d) My intent herein in this my will is to confer upon my trustees full power and authority to carry out my intent to sell my estate for cash, and to convert same to cash, and for this purpose they are given full power and authority of sale and full discretion to make all sales. They are especially authorized and empowered to execute and deliver good and sufficient fee simple deeds and general warranty bills of sale to any and all purchasers and all other instruments necessary to effect my purpose and intent of a sale of my property in this my will. If necessary, my trustees may borrow money and mortgage any or all of my property, executing good and sufficient security instruments to secure same. No approval of any Court is necessary for any acts or doings of my trustees in carrying out the intent and provisions of my will; I have absolute confidence in the integrity and ability of my trustees herein appointed.

(e) The net income from my estate shall be paid by my trustees to my wife, Ethel M. Broadwell, as aforesaid, for her care, maintenance, support, upkeep, and medical expenses. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

GEORGE B. NALLEY, SR.

I, GEORGE B. NALLEY, SR., a resident of the County of Pickens, State of South Carolina, being of full age and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all testamentary instruments made by me.

ITEM I

I direct that, as soon after my death as is practicable, my Executors, hereinafter named, pay all of my debts and funeral expenses. I further direct that all estate, inheritance, succession, legacy and transfer taxes, state and federal, and any other death duties or taxes imposed upon or with respect to any property required to be included in my gross estate, whether or not passing under my Will, including the taxable value of all policies of insurance on my life and of all transfers, powers, rights or interests includable in my estate for the purpose of such taxes, shall be paid solely out of that part of my estate consisting of my residuary estate, and being designated herein as Share 2, and all such death duties and taxes shall be charged as an expense of administration and without apportionment.

ITEM II

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, all ornaments, furniture, rugs, pictures, books, bric-a-brac, utensils and household effects and equipment of every name and nature whatsoever, which I may own at the time of my death, and I also give and bequeath unto my said wife all automobiles, accessories and equipment, jewelry, articles of apparel or personal adornment, and articles of domestic or personal use of which I may die seized or possessed; or, if my said wife shall not survive me, then to my children, in equal shares.

ITEM III

My Executors shall divide all of the rest and residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, wherever situated, into two parts, hereinafter designated as Share 1 and Share 2, each to be determined as follows:

(1) There shall first be determined the value of my gross estate, including property not administered in my estate, for the purpose of federal estate taxes.

(2) There shall be deducted from such value the amount of all funeral and administration expense, and any and all debts and accounts payable owed by me at my death; but there shall not be deducted any estate, inheritance, transfer, succession or legacy taxes or death duties referred to in Item I above.

(3) Share 1 shall be equal in amount to one-half of the difference so computed; except that, if there shall be includable in my gross estate for the purpose of the federal estate tax any interest in property not administered in my estate, which is deemed to pass or to have passed from me to my wife for the purpose of the marital deduction under the Federal Estate Tax Law, an amount equal to the taxable value of such interest shall be deducted from Share 1.

(4) Share 2 shall be equal in amount to the balance of my residuary estate after deducting the amount allocated to Share 1.

In allocating my estate between Share 1 and Share 2, my Executors shall use the values of properties as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes in my estate. In allocating and distributing assets between Share 1 and Share 2, my Executors shall allocate to Share 2 all of the capital stock which I own in Easley Lumber Company, Quality Construction Company and Town N Country Realty, Inc., and shall allocate to Share 1 assets which are fairly representative of appreciation or depreciation in the value of all property available for distribution. The division or allocation of my estate as finally made by my Executors shall be conclusive as to all persons interested hereunder. After so dividing my estate, my Executors shall dispose thereof as hereinafter provided.

ITEM IV

I give, devise and bequeath Share 1 of my estate to my Trustees, hereinafter named, to be held by them upon the following trusts:

(1) My Trustees shall manage, invest, and reinvest the corpus of this trust, and collect and receive the income therefrom.

(2) My Trustees shall pay all necessary and proper expenses in connection with the administration of the trust.

(3) After deducting all necessary and proper expenses, including commission or compensation to the Trustees, my Trustees shall pay over the remaining net income, monthly or quarterly, to my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, for and during her natural life.

(4) In the event that the income of this trust, together with her income from other sources, shall not be sufficient for the support, maintenance and reasonable comfort of my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, and to permit her to maintain the standard of living to which she was accustomed during my lifetime, I direct my Trustees to use such portion or portions of the corpus of this trust as may be necessary for such purposes.

(5) The Trustees may, in their discretion, and at any time, or from time to time, use all or any part of the corpus of this trust for the support, maintenance, comfort and benefit of my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY. The determination of my Trustees as to the advisability of making any such payment of corpus shall be final and binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in the trust.

(6) Upon the death of my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, this trust shall terminate, and the corpus thereof shall be distributed as my wife, and she alone, shall appoint by her Last Will and Testament. In making such appointment by her Will, my wife shall have the full and free right to appoint the corpus thereof to her own estate, or to any person or persons, and she may appoint to such beneficiaries, including her estate, in such portion or portions as she may desire, such bequests to be free and outright, or to be imposed with such conditions or restraints as she may designate, and I expressly grant unto her the right to make appointments in trust or in life estate with remainders over should she so desire. I expressly grant unto my wife the right to exercise this power of appointment by Will which may be executed by her either before or after my death.

(7) Should my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, predecease me, this trust shall be null and void and of no effect, and this portion of my estate shall pass according to the terms of Item V hereof.

(8) Should my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, survive me, but fail, for any reason whatsoever, to exercise the powers conferred in paragraph (6) above, this trust shall terminate and the corpus of the trust as then constituted together with all accumulated income, shall pass according to the terms of Item V hereof.

ITEM V

All of the rest and residue of my estate, including Share 2, I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustees, hereinafter named, to be held by them upon the following trusts:

(1) My Trustees shall manage, invest, and reinvest the corpus of this trust, and collect and receive the income therefrom.

(2) My Trustees shall pay all necessary and proper expenses in connection with the administration of the trust.

(3) After deducting all necessary and proper expenses, including commission or compensation to the Trustees, my Trustees shall pay over the remaining net income, monthly or quarterly, to my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, for and during her natural life.

(4) The Trustees may, in their discretion, and at any time, or from time to time, use all or any part of the corpus of this trust for the support, maintenance, comfort and benefit of my then surviving issue. The determination of my Trustees as to the advisability of making any such payment of corpus shall be final and binding upon all persons then or thereafter interested in this trust.

(5) Upon the death of the survivor of my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, and myself, my Trustees shall pay over and deliver all the corpus and accumulated income of this trust to my then surviving issue in equal shares, per stirpes, to be their property absolutely. It is my desire that all of the capital stock of Easley Lumber Company, Quality Construction Company and Town N Country Realty, Inc., which is included in the corpus of the trust at the time of the distribution, be included if possible in the portion of the trust allocated to my son, GEORGE B. NALLEY, JR.

(6) The beneficiaries under this trust shall not have the right to sell, assign, transfer, or encumber, or in any other manner to anticipate or dispose of their interest in said trust property (including the income to be derived therefrom) until the same is actually paid over to and received by them. Neither the principal nor income produced by said trust shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary or subject to seizure for any claim of any creditor or other person to whom he or she may be indebted or obligated; nor shall said principal or income be subject to any proceedings at law or in equity instituted in anticipation of or designed to prevent the transmission thereof intact to any said beneficiary.

A. B. N. S. 11

ITEM VI

If any income and/or principal from my estate or from any trust created hereunder shall become distributable to a minor, my Executors or Trustees may, in their absolute discretion, either pay over such principal or income at any time to the guardian of the property of such minor, or retain the same for such minor during minority. In case of such retention, my Executors or Trustees may apply such principal or income, and income therefrom, to the support and education of such minor, and, in such case, may do so irrespective of any other resources of such minor or of his or her parent, either directly or by payments to the guardian of the property or parent of such minor, in any case without requiring any bond, and the receipt of any such person shall be a full discharge to my Executors or Trustees, who shall not be bound to see to the application of any such payment. Any such principal or income so retained, and any income therefrom which is not applied under the provisions of this Item, shall be paid over to such beneficiary upon attaining majority, or, if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her estate. In holding any principal or income for any minor, my Executors or Trustees shall have all the powers and discretion herein conferred upon them.

ITEM VII

If my wife and I die under such circumstances where it is not possible to determine with certainty which of us survived the other, it shall be conclusively presumed that I predeceased my wife.

ITEM VIII

The provisions hereinabove made for my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, are in lieu of dower.

ITEM IX

A.B.N.H.
I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my wife, LAVONNE E. NALLEY, my son, GEORGE B. NALLEY, JR., and my daughter, SARA N. PHILLIPS, and the survivor or survivors of them, as Executors of this, my Last Will and Testament, and as Trustees of the trusts provided for hereunder. No bond shall be required of any Executor or Trustee named in this, my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM X

In addition to the powers conferred by statute or general rules of law, and with the direction that a grant of specific powers shall not be construed as a limitation of general powers granted herein by statute or law, my Executors and Trustees are authorized and empowered:

281

(1) To retain, in the form received, any property or interest in property owned by me at the time of my death.

(2) To invest funds of my estate or of any trust created hereunder in stocks, bonds, notes, debentures, or other securities, or property, real or personal (including any common or commingled fund), notwithstanding such securities or property may not be eligible investments for fiduciaries under statutory or general law, either as to the nature of the security or as to the percentage of the security in relation to the other investments. It is my intention that they shall have the power to make such investments as they may, in their unrestricted judgment, deem best, and to register and hold any securities or property constituting a part of my estate or any trust created hereunder in the name of any nominee or agent.

(3) To sell, resell, exchange, re-exchange, convey, reconvey, assign, or otherwise transfer or dispose of any property, real or personal, at any time held as part of my estate or of any trust fund established hereunder, for cash or other property, or upon credit, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem best, and no person dealing with my estate or with any trust created hereunder shall be required to see to the application of any monies paid.

(4) To borrow money and give security therefor.

(5) To manage, operate, repair, rebuild, mortgage, rent, and lease, for such periods and upon such terms as they may deem best, any real estate at any time held by my estate or by any trust created hereunder.

A. B. Kelley
LA

(6) To invest in, and borrow money for, improvements to real estate, either separately or jointly with others where there is joint ownership of such property, whenever such improvements are desirable or expedient to protect or preserve the property, or to secure or retain a desirable tenant, or to increase the rentals.

(7) To collect and receipt for income, rents, profits, proceeds of insurance and of sale, and of any other funds or property to which the estate or any trust fund hereunder is entitled, and to pay therefrom all necessary administration expenses and other necessary expenses in connection with the operation and maintenance of principal assets, including taxes, insurance premiums, and the cost of repairs, replacements, and improvements.

(8) To collect and receive the proceeds of insurance policies in the event of loss or damage, and to expend the same in repairs, replacement, or improvement of the damaged property, or any other property of my estate or any trust hereunder, or to hold the same as part of the principal of my estate or any trust hereunder.

(9) To compromise, settle, or arbitrate any claim or obligation to or from me or my estate or any trusts hereunder, and to reduce the rate of interest on, to extend or otherwise modify, or to enforce, any such obligations.

(10) To vote in person or by proxy, discretionary or otherwise, any stock or securities held by my estate or any trust hereunder; to participate freely in, or to oppose, corporate reorganizations, recapitalizations, consolidations, mergers and sales; and to exchange stock or securities of one corporation for stock or securities, whether or not of the same class, of the same or any other corporation.

(11) To enforce, or abstain from the enforcement of, any right, obligation or claim, and to abandon any property at any time forming part of my estate or any trust hereunder, if such action is deemed advisable.

(12) To make payment in cash or in kind upon any division and distribution of my estate or any trusts hereunder.

(13) To value and appraise any asset, and to distribute such asset in kind at such appraised value.

(14) To determine any question which may arise as to what constitutes principal or corpus, and such determination shall be conclusive as to all persons interested hereunder (but, subject to such power and except in some unusual instance where it may be exercised to the contrary, shares of stock received by way of stock dividend shall be deemed corpus and not income).

(15) To employ such agents and counsel and other persons as may be necessary in the administration of my estate or any trust hereunder, and to determine and pay them such compensation as may be proper.

(16) In buying and selling assets, in lending and in borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with themselves, or either of them, in their separate or any fiduciary capacity, whatsoever.

(17) To commingle the funds of any trusts created by my Will with funds of any other trust or trusts created by me for the same beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(18) In general, to exercise all powers in the management of my estate and any trusts hereunder which any individual could exercise in his own right, upon such terms and conditions as may seem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which may be deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this, my Will.
