LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

JULIA S. DOUGLASS

I, JULIA S. DOUGLASS, also known as Mrs. Owen R. Douglass, of near Lake Secession, in Abbeville County, South Carolina, do hereby make and publish this as my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils by me made.

1. I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate, real and personal, and all property over which I shall have any power of disposition by will, whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to my Executor hereinafter named to be disposed of as follows:

(a) I direct my Executor to distribute all of my personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles in approximately equal shares to each and every niece and nephew of mine and of my deceased husband, Owen, provided, however, the share of all such nieces and nephews who do not survive me shall go per stirpes to those of his or her issue who are living at my death. I request that my Executor and the above mentioned nieces and nephews, and their issue, abide by any memorandum by me directing the disposition of this property or any part thereof. This request is precatory and not mandatory. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my Executor may distribute his or her share to him or to her or for his or her use to any person with whom he or she is residing or who has the care or control of him or her without further responsibility upon my Executor.

(b) I direct my Executor to convert all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this will, into cash, and to distribute the same to each and every niece and nephew of mine and of my deceased husband Owen, in equal shares, provided that the share of all such nieces and nephews who do not survive me shall go per stirpes to those of his or her issue who are living at my death.

2. I appoint my deceased husband's nephew, GEORGE THEODORE DOUGLASS, of Lake City, Florida Executor of this my will. If, however, he shall fail to qualify or cease to act as Executor, I appoint THE SOUTH CAROLINA NATIONAL BANK OF CHARLESTON, a National Banking Corporation, Executor in his place. I direct neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

3. I authorize my Executor to allot, assign, care for, collect, contract with respect to, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, create security interest in, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, and in general, to do any and every act and thing and to enter into and carry out any and every agreement with respect to the property included in my estate which he could do if he were the absolute owner thereof, upon such terms and conditions as my Executor may deem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which such Executor may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this will, and without the necessity of a court order.

4. The term "Executor" whenever used in this will shall be deemed to refer at any time to the Executor at that time in office hereunder.

5. Throughout this will the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the neuter and the singular the plural and vice versa where the context so requires.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I sign, publish, and declare this as my Last Will this 12 day of December, 1974.

RENUNCIATION AS EXECUTOR AND

NOMINATION OF SUCCESSOR

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME GEORGE THEODORE DOUGLASS, who being sworn says:

I am approximately forty years of age and reside at 218 Evergreen Avenue, Lake City, Florida 32055, telephone 904-752-4060. Julia S. Douglass of Abbeville County, South Carolina died about July 30, 1976, leaving her surviving no spouse and no descendants. The decedent was the widow of Owen R. Douglass, who was my uncle. I am informed that Julia S. Douglass left a purported will dated 1974 in which she appointed this affiant as executor and if this affiant should fail to qualify or cease to act she appointed The South Carolina National Bank of Charleston as executor. This affiant has recently had a heart attack, and because of this affiant's health and on the advise of this affiant's physician I hereby renounce my appointment as executor of the purported will of Julia S. Douglass, deceased, and nominate The South Carolina National Bank of Charleston as executor. I make the above renouncement and nomination of The South Carolina National Bank of Charleston on the condition of appointment and qualification by it, and subject to it continuing to act in such capacity until the close of the administration of the estate of Julia S. Douglass.

As the successor executor of the will of Julia S. Douglass, deceased, I hereby request The South Carolina National Bank of Charleston to cause the safe deposit box of Julia S. Douglass to be drilled open for examination and taking therefrom any purported will of the decedent for filing for probate in the court having jurisdiction of the decedent's estate. I do not have any knowledge or information of the existence and whereabouts of the lock box key of Julia S. Douglass at The South Carolina National Bank in Anderson, South Carolina.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF JASPER

I, H. Klugh Purdy, in the State and County aforesaid, do hereby make this my last will and testament, revoking all prior wills.

First; I direct that immediately after my death that my debts be paid and as soon as insurance can be collected, that all cash bequests be paid.

Second; I direct that my executor set aside Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and thereafter in January of each year until the amount is exhausted, pay to the Methodist Church in Ridgeland the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

Third; I give and bequeath to H. Klugh Purdy, III, my shotgun, two (2) watches and chains.

Fourth; I give and bequeath to Eleanor Ward Purdy any automobile that I may own at the time of my death.

Fifth; I give and bequeath to Mildred Ward Purdy my household furniture and everything connected therewith.

Sixth; I direct that my executor set aside Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) to be used in giving Peewee, Jr., plenty to eat and a good bed and hospital treatment if needed. Some may think me silly in doing this, but he and his father have given me many hours of pleasure that would have been otherwise denied me.

Seventh; I give and bequeath to my stenographer the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) with the request that she keep my office open for sixty (60) days after my death and look after all correspondence, and assist my executor in any way she can.

Eighth; I give and bequeath to Ms. Augusta Ryan Purdy the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) and that along with an insurance policy of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) will give her a total of Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00) at the time of my death.

Nineth; I give and bequeath to Mrs. Mildred Ward Purdy, Eleanor Ward Purdy, H. Klugh Purdy, III, and Mrs. Lucy S. Carter the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) each, and to H. Klugh Purdy, Jr., the sum of Ten Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars ($10,500.00). In the event that my personal property should not amount to the bequests heretofore given, excluding automobile, household furniture, office equipment, shot-gun and watches and chains, then I direct that all the bequests heretofore made be decreased proportionately. If any of the legatees heretofore mentioned should predecease me, except H. Klugh Purdy, Jr., then it is my intention that the bequests to said legatee or legatees who may be dead shall lapse and the property given to them shall go under the residuary clause of this will.

Tenth; All the rest and residue of my property, both real and personal, I give, bequeath and devise to H. Klugh Purdy, Jr., forever.

Eleventh; In the event that H. Klugh Purdy, Jr., should predecease me, then I give, bequeath and devise all of the property given to him in this will to his children forever, share and share alike.

Twelfth; I hereby appoint H. Klugh Purdy, Jr., as guardian for Eleanor Ward Purdy and H. Klugh Purdy, III, during their minority, with full authority to receive the money and property given to them without giving any bond and with full authority to spend same for them as he may think best, but I direct that he file a full report with the Probate Court each year setting forth the various collections and expenditures.

Thirteenth; I direct that any amount that may be owing to me at the time of my death by any legatee be and is hereby canceled and the debt forever satisfied.

I hereby appoint H. Klugh Purdy, Jr., executor of this my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 23 day of March, 1948.
