If my said husband shall predecease me, all property, both real, personal and mixed, which I shall own at my death and all property over which I shall then have any power of appointment, I give, will, devise, and bequeath, to my children in equal shares, absolutely and in fee simple; but in case either or any of them shall have died in my lifetime leaving children living at my death, such children shall take by representation between them the share which his or her parent would have taken had such parent survived me, subject to the provision, however, that the share of any minor beneficiary shall be transferred to my trustee in trust, and my trustee in his uncontrolled discretion (1) may pay the income therefrom or any part thereof directly to such beneficiary or the guardian of the person of such beneficiary and without responsibility on my trustee to see to the application of any such payment, or (2) may expend the whole or any part of the income or principal, for the education and comfortable support of such beneficiary, or (3) may retain and invest, and re-invest, the whole or any part of the income or principal, or accumulated income, and from time to time pay or expend the whole or any part thereof in the manner hereinabove provided, until such
