I reside at 1936 Harracourt Ave, Apt 74, 10461

Delete if not applicable.

I am an attorney with offices at 2230 Grand Concourse, Bronx 714, 10457

I was acquainted with the decedent for 14 years, prior to his death on December, 1981

The subscription of the name of the said decedent to (a court-certified photographic reproduction of) the instrument now shown to me and about to be offered for probate as his Last Will and Testament and bearing date August 31, 1970

was made by decedent at 901 ELTON Ave, BRONX N.Y. 10451

New York,

on the 24th day of August, 1970 in the presence of myself and William J. Condon the other subscribing witness. At the time of making such subscription I knew that the said instrument so subscribed by him to be his Last Will and Testament, and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of said instrument in his presence.

The said decedent at the time of so executing said instrument, was over eighteen years of age, and in my opinion of sound mind, memory and understanding, and not under any restraint or in any respect incompetent to make a will. I also saw the other subscribing witness sign their name as witness at the end of said instrument and know that he did so at the request and in the presence of said decedent.

Said decedent could read and write, as well as converse in the English language and was neither deaf nor blind. The instrument was not executed by the decedent while he was confined in any hospital or sanitarium, nor while confined to his home or bed, because of any physical or mental condition and said instrument was executed more than three months prior to the death of the decedent.

I do hereby certify that by virtue of the annexed dedimus I did examine Salvatore J. Milano one of the several witnesses to the last Will and Testament of Edward Johnson deceased, according to law, and I herewith transmit said examination signed by the witness

(If decedent could not read or write in the English language or was deaf or blind or confined to his home or hospitalized at the time of said execution set forth such fact.)

Said instrument was not executed in multiplicate and is the only testamentary instrument executed on said occasion by said decedent.

Said instrument is now in the same condition as it was immediately following execution.

This affidavit was made at the request of the Honorable Bessie Lee F. Nance, Judge of the probate court of the County of Abbeville, State of South Carolina.

The execution of said instrument now offered for Probate was supervised by SALVATORE I. MILANO, Esq. an attorney at law of the State of New York.

So far as I know there can be no objection to the genuineness of said instrument or to the validity of its execution. I have no knowledge or information of any facts or circumstances which might raise any question as to the genuineness of said instrument or the validity of its execution.

that William J. Condon, the other attesting witness to the execution of the last will and Testament of Edward Johnson died in August of 1975. I attended his funeral and viewed his last remains.
