POSITION OF TRUST

Executor

At a Court of Probate held at the place and time of hearing set by the Court together with any continuances thereof, as of record appears, on Petitioner's application for the granting of letters of administration OR the probate of will and any codicils, and the issuance of letters testamentary, all as in said application more fully appears.

PRESENT: Hon. Elton D. Rhodes, Judge

After due hearing THE COURT FINDS that:

The above-named decedent died on the 22nd day of June, 19 82, domiciled at the time of death at Old Saybrook and having estate whereof the administration appertains to this Court and administration of said estate ought to be granted.

- Notice of hearing was given in accordance with any order of notice previously entered.
- Any person listed in said application entitled to notice of said hearing who is in the military service of the United States or an allied nation has either signed and filed in Court a written appearance and waiver of notice or was represented by an attorney appointed by this Court.
- All persons known to be interested in said proceedings have signed and filed in Court a written waiver of notice of hearing on said application.
- The primary Executor nominated in said will predeceased the decedent or has declined to accept said trust.

The fiduciary named above has accepted the position of trust designated above, and

- Bond of the fiduciary as required by statute is fixed at $
- The fiduciary, being excused by the will from giving bond, or being a bank or trust company duly qualified according to law, the Court dispenses with the requirement of a bond.
- The fiduciary, a non-resident or a foreign corporation, has duly appointed an agent for service of process in this State; and the foreign corporate fiduciary, if any, is domiciled in a State which grants like powers to act as executor or trustee to Connecticut banks and trust companies.

And it is ORDERED AND DECREED that:

- The said application is approved, administration of said estate is granted to the fiduciary named above, and letters of administration are hereby issued to said fiduciary.
- Said will (and codicils, if any) is duly proved and the same is approved, and admitted to probate as the LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT of said deceased; and the fiduciary named above is approved, and letters testamentary are hereby issued to said fiduciary.
- The fiduciary having presented a bond in the amount fixed by the Court, and with sufficient surety, said bond is approved.

And it is further ORDERED AND DECREED that:

Two months from the date hereof, he and the same is allowed said fiduciary within which to make a true and complete inventory of all property of the estate of said deceased.

Twelve months from the date hereof, he and the same is allowed said fiduciary within which to settle said estate.

All claims against the above estate be presented to the fiduciary on or before October 13, 19 82 or be barred as by law provided; and notice be given within THIRTY DAYS of the date hereof by the Clerk by publishing a notice to that effect in a newspaper having a circulation in this probate district.

Dated at Old Saybrook this 13th day of July, 19 82

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
THOMAS L. FLEMING

I, THOMAS L. FLEMING, of near the Town of Due West, in Abbeville County, South Carolina, do hereby make and publish this as my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils by me made.

1. I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate, real and personal, and all property over which I shall have any power of disposition by Will, whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to my daughter, ANGELA MARIE FLEMING, in fee simple if she shall survive me, or, if she predeceases me, then to her children in equal shares, if any.

2. I appoint my daughter, ANGELA MARIE FLEMING, Executrix of this my Will. If, however, she shall fail to qualify or cease to act as Executrix I appoint my former wife, DOROTHY LEE FLEMING, Executrix in her place. I direct neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

3. The devise or bequest of any property in this Will is subject to the provision, however, that the share of any such minor beneficiary shall immediately vest in such minor, but my Executrix shall transfer, convey and assign such property to herself as Trustee and shall hold the property of such minor in trust for such minor during minority using so much of the income and principal of the property as my Trustee shall deem necessary to provide for the proper support, medical care and education of such minor taking into consideration to the extent my Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of such minor, until such minor attains her majority, and thereupon pay the balance then remaining to such beneficiary absolutely. If such minor shall die prior to attaining majority the balance then remaining shall be paid over and distributed to such minor's estate.

4. I authorize my Executrix and my Trustee to allot, assign, care for, collect, contract with respect to, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, create security interests in, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, and in general, to do any and every act and thing and to enter into and carry out any and every agreement with respect to the property included in my estate or any trust created in this Will which she could do if she were the absolute owner thereof, upon such terms and conditions as my Executrix and Trustee may deem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which such Executrix and Trustee may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this Will, and without the necessity of a court order.

I, CHARLES H. MILLER, being of sound mind and memory but mindful of the uncertainty of life, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all prior wills and testaments by me heretofore made:

ITEM I. I direct that all of my just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM II. I give and bequeath to my wife, Doris Vivian Miller, all of the personal property that I now own, and all that I may later acquire, of every kind and nature and wheresoever situate.

ITEM III. I give, bequeath and devise to my wife, Doris Vivian Miller, all of the real property that I now own, and all that I may later acquire, wheresoever situate, to her, her heirs and assigns forever.

ITEM IV. All the rest and residue of my property of every kind and nature and wheresoever situate, real, personal, or mixed, I give, bequeath, and devise to my wife, Doris Vivian Miller, her heirs and assigns forever.

ITEM V. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my wife, Doris Vivian Miller, as the sole executrix of this my last will and testament, she to serve without the necessity of bond if such be required by law at the time of my death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal to this my last will and testament, this 14 day of July, 1976.

COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE)

I, STELLA J. TAYLOR, of the State of South Carolina, County aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and being desirous of making suitable and proper distribution of the worldly goods which I possess, do make, ordain, publish and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all Wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me:

ITEM I. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Susan Taylor Strickland all of my silver, china, and crystal. I further give and bequeath to Susan Taylor Strickland certain items of furniture which I have designated for her or have marked in my handwriting in a Memorandum which I have prepared prior to the signing of this my Last Will and Testament. All other personal and household effects including other items of tangible personal property to be divided equally among my two sons, James E. Taylor and Allen W. Taylor, Jr., in approximately equal shares, provided, however, the issue of a deceased child shall take his or her parent's share per stirpes. If my children do not agree to the division of the said property among themselves, my Executrix shall make such division among them, the decision of my Executrix to be in all respects binding upon my children. I request that my children, my Executrix abide by any Memorandum by me directing the disposition of this property or any part thereof. This request is precatory and not mandatory. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my Executrix may distribute his share to him or for his use to any person with whom he is residing or who has the care or control of him without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of my Executrix.

ITEM II. I give and bequeath to James E. Taylor any automobile which I own at my death.

ITEM III. I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my property, both real and personal, of whatever kind and nature and wherever situate, to my children in equal shares to be theirs absolutely in fee simple forever.

If any of my children should predecease me leaving a child or children him or her surviving, I will, devise and bequeath the share which such child of mine would receive to his or her child or children surviving, in equal shares. If any of my children should predecease me leaving no child or children him or her surviving, then, in that event, I will, devise and bequeath the share which such child would receive to be equally divided among my children then living or to their child or children if deceased.

ITEM IV. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament my daughter, Susan Taylor Strickland and direct that she shall serve without bond.
