Last Will and Testament

OF

JULIA CORK GRIER

I, Julia Cork Grier, of 821 Eden Terrace, Rock Hill, York County, South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, yet aware of the uncertainty of this earthly existence, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, intending hereby to dispose of all my worldly possessions and to revoke any and all testamentary dispositions heretofore by me made.

ARTICLE ONE: I direct that all of my just debts, funeral expenses and the expenses of the administration of my estate be paid as soon after my death as shall be practicable. I further direct that any and all estate, inheritance, transfer or succession taxes, or death duties, including interest and penalties thereon, imposed by any State or Federal laws with respect to all property taxable under such laws by reason of my death, whether or not such property passes under this my Will, or any Codicil to my Will hereafter executed, and whether such taxes be payable by my estate or by any recipient of any such property, shall be paid by my Executor out of my residuary estate under Article Three of this my Last Will and Testament, as a part of the expenses of the administration thereof, with no right of reimbursement from any recipient of any such property, intending that no portion of such taxes shall be deducted from the devise and bequest to my husband, James Chalmers Grier, Sr., under Article Two of this my Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE TWO: (a) If my husband, James Chalmers Grier, Sr., shall survive me, I give, devise and bequeath to him a portion of my estate equal to fifty (50%) per cent of the value of my adjusted gross estate as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes, less the aggregate amount of marital deductions, if any, allowed for such tax purposes by reason of property or interests in property passing or which have passed to him otherwise than by the terms of this Article Two of this my Last Will and Testament.

My Executor shall assign, convey and distribute to my said husband the cash, securities and other property, including real estate and interests therein, which shall constitute said devise and bequest. Any property included in my estate at the time of my death and assigned or conveyed in kind to satisfy said bequest and devise shall be valued for that purpose at the value thereof as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes, except that the assets to be distributed in satisfaction of the devise and bequest to my said husband shall be selected in such a manner that the cash and other property distributed will have an aggregate fair market value fairly representative of the distributee's proportionate share of the appreciation or depreciation in the value to the date, or dates, of distribution of all property then available for distribution.

(b) In the event James Chalmers Grier, Sr. shall predecease me, that portion of my estate devised and bequeathed to him under this Article Two of this my Last Will and Testament shall sink into and become a part of my residuary estate under Article Three of this my Last Will and Testament, subject to all the terms and conditions thereof; provided, however, I direct that in the event James Chalmers Grier, Sr. shall perish as a result of the same common disaster with me or under such other circumstance causing doubt as to which of us survived the other, James Chalmers Grier, Sr. shall be presumed to have survived me, and my estate shall be administered as though James Chalmers Grier, Sr. survived me.

ARTICLE THREE: All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, whatsoever and wheresoever same may be situate, to which I may be entitled in law or in equity, I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto my children, John Davidson Grier, James Chalmers Grier, Jr. and Julia Grier Storey, share and share alike, to be theirs absolutely and forever, the child or children of any child of mine who might predecease me to take, equally, that portion of my estate to which his or her parent would have been entitled had he or she survived me, and in the event such deceased child of mine shall leave no child or children surviving him or her, unto such of my children and the child or children of any deceased child of mine as shall be living at the time of my death, per stirpes and not per capita.

ARTICLE FOUR: I hereby name, nominate, constitute and appoint my husband, James Chalmers Grier, Sr., to be Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, and request that he not be required to give bond.

I hereby give and grant unto my Executor full power and authority as he may deem advisable, to sell, convey and convert the whole or any part of my estate, real, personal and mixed, into cash, at such price, upon such terms and to such person, firm or corporation as to said Executor shall seem proper; to settle and compound any and all claims, either in favor of or against my estate, and for the purpose, as aforesaid, to execute and deliver all proper conveyances and assignments, with or without covenants or warranties, and to give full receipts and discharges, and my Executor, in addition to the foregoing, shall have the right, power and authority to make any division, distribution or partition of my residuary estate, in securities, properties or cash, as to him may seem proper, in such proportions thereof, and at such valuations as to him may seem proper, and such division, distribution or partition shall be binding on all concerned.

In the event James Chalmers Grier, Sr. shall predecease me, perish as a result of the same common disaster with me, fail to qualify as Executor, resign, become incapable of serving, or upon his death after so qualifying, I hereby name, nominate, constitute and appoint James Chalmers Grier, Jr., John Davidson Grier and Julia Grier Storey, or such of them as shall survive me and shall qualify, to be Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, vested with all powers and authority as hereinabove given unto my Executor. I further request that they not be required to give bond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal unto this my Last Will and Testament this 12th day of December
