I Hamilton Cahill Claiborne, of the City of Washington, District of Columbia, do make, publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills and codicils at any time heretofore made by me:

Item I: I direct my executors, herein after named, to pay all of my just debts and the expenses of my last illness and funeral, in such amount as they may deem proper, as soon after my death as may be practicable.

Item II: All clothing and wearing apparel, jewelry and articles of personal use and adornment, books, pictures, bric-a-brac, silver and household furniture, articles and effects, of every kind and description, and any automobile and accessories thereunto pertaining, of which I may die possessed, I give and bequeath unto my wife, Cornelia Claiborne.

Item III: All of the rest, residue and remainder of my property and estate, both real and personal, of whatever kind and wheresoever situate, of which I may die seized or possessed, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath, absolutely and in fee simple, unto the American Security and Trust Company, a corporation organized under the laws in force in the District of Columbia and having its principal office and place of business at the City of Washington, in said District, as trustee, in trust, to hold the same with full discretionary powers of management, of sale and resale, in fee simple, or otherwise, of investment and reinvestment, and to keep the same invested, collect all rents, revenue and income arising therefrom, and, after paying all such costs, charges and expenses as it may deem necessary or proper in the administration of this trust, to pay over the net income arising therefrom unto my said wife, Cornelia Claiborne, for and during the term of her natural life. From and After her death, or, if she shall predecease me, then from and after my death, as the case may be, my said trustee shall pay over the aforesaid net income, per stirpes, unto my issue surviving from time to time, until twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last survivor of my children living at the date of my death, or, if no child or children of mine shall survive me, then until twenty-one (21) years after the date of my death, or until there shall be a complete failure of issue of mine, which ever of said events shall first occur, whereupon this trust shall ^{finally cease and determine, and my trustee shall} transfer, assign and pay over the entire trust property and estate then remaining in its hands, together with any undistributed accumulations of net income, absolutely and in fee simple, per stirpes, unto my then surviving issue, if any there be, or, in default of ~~and~~ any such then surviving issue, unto my brother, Herbert G. In the name of God, Amen.

I, G. J. Young of Abbeville County, South Carolina, being of sound mind, do make, ordain, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and testaments of testamentary nature heretofore by me made.

Item I: I commit my soul to the gracious God who gave it, and direct that my body shall be decently interred and that a suitable monument be erected to mark my grave, and that all expenses incurred therefor be paid out of my estate.

Item II. I will and direct that my executrix hereinafter named shall pay all of my just debts with the first money coming in to her hand out of my estate.

Item III. I will, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Etta Young, all of my property of every kind, personal and real estate belonging to me at the time of my death, including my interest in the estate of my father, James M. Young, hereby giving my beloved wife, Etta Young, the right to dispose of the same as she wishes.

Item IV. I hereby name, constitute and appoint my beloved wife, Etta Young, Executrix of this my last will and testament and direct that she be not required to give any bond.

In witness whereof, I herewith set my hand and seal this 17th day of December 1920.

G. J. Young (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by G. J. Young, as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who in his presence, and of each other, at his request, here subscribed our names as witnesses.
