The Elusive Ancestor

I went searching for an ancestor,
I cannot find him still.

He moved around from place to place
And did not leave a will.

He married where a courthouse burned.
He mended all his fences.

He avoided any man who came to take the U. S. Census.

He always kept his luggage packed,
This man who had no fame,
And every 20 years or so,
This rascal changed his name.

No one else in this world is searching for this elusive man,
So I play "Gene-solitaire" to find him, if I can!

I'm told he's buried in a lot,
With tombstone he was blessed;
But the weather took engravings,
And some vandals took the rest.
He died before the county clerks
Were appointed to keep records.
No family Bible has emerged -
In spite of all my efforts.

To top it off, this elusive ancestor
Who has caused me many groans -
Left me even one more challenge.
He brothed a lady by the name of "Jones"!
